

then shall make a corresponding provision indicating that he does not occur therein; every such signature or initial and memorandum shall appear on every corresponding card in the order of the name and address of the voter.

Section 2. On a day to be fixed by the Chief Electoral Officer and notified by the returning officer to the registrar, each copy of the list shall, from the information then received by him, propose and certify in Form No. 15 in Schedule One to this Act a separate list in exact alphabetical order of all the persons who are resident in the polling division or part thereof for which they have been appointed, and, in the opinion of such officer, are qualified to vote at the election, and shall also propose and certify in like form at least two copies of such list.

Section 3. In each list the names shall, after the name of every female voter whose name appears therein, be followed by the name of the husband of such female voter, and the names of all other persons who shall be entered in such list in the alphabetical order determined by the first letter of the name of her husband or deceased husband, as the case may be.

Section 4. Every list and the copies thereof, together with the original list or other notes upon which the same has been based, shall be available for inspection and examination by the returning officer, who shall, in the case of each copy of such list to the representative of each candidate or prospective candidate as hereinafter defined, the returning officer shall retain the original list in his office, where it shall be available for public inspection, and shall furnish one copy thereof to the registrar within whose registration district as hereafter provided, the polling division lies.

3. Section thirty-three of the said Act is repealed and the following is substituted therefor:-

33. When a writ of election in any electoral district is issued within six months after the day fixed for the poll at the next preceding general election under this Act in that electoral district, it shall not be necessary to prepare lists of voters for such election as in the next preceding section provided, if there are on file in the Chief Electoral Officer's office copies of the lists of voters prepared for such preceding election, but it shall be the duty of the Chief Electoral Officer to forward to the returning officer as soon as possible after the issue of such writ of election at least twelve copies of the lists so prepared for each polling division.

(2) Such lists shall be used at such election in the same way in all respects as if they had been prepared thereby; at least two sets thereof shall be furnished by the returning officer to each candidate formally nominated.

When any list of voters is prepared

Such lists shall be used at such election in the same way in all respects as if they had been prepared thereby
