

9. Nothing in this Act contained shall prevent or abridge any remedy by action against the offender or his employer where the amount of the damage is not sought to be recovered by virtue of this Act.

10. Every penalty recoverable under this Act shall belong to the Crown: and every proceeding for the recovery of such penalty shall be commenced within one month next after the committing of the offence.

11. Every offence against the seventh section of this Act may be prosecuted in the manner directed by the "Act respecting the duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions in relation to summary convictions and orders," so far as no provision is hereby made for any matter or thing which may be required to be done with respect to such prosecution; and all the provisions contained in the said Act shall be applicable to such prosecutions in the same manner as if they were incorporated in this Act.
