

C O N T E N T S.

The Privy Council to the Duke. Instructions about dealing with the Rebels, and offering them pardon, Dec. 2, 1536,	Page 27
The Privy Council to the Duke of Norfolk, December 6, 1536,	30
The Privy Council to the Duke, Feb. 4, 1536-7,	33
The Privy Council to the Duke, Feb. 4, 1536-7,	35
The Privy Council to the Duke, Feb. 25, 1536-7,	37
The Privy Council to the Duke, March 3, 1536-7,	38
The Privy Council to the Duke, March 12, 1536-7,	39
The Privy Council to the Duke, March 17, 1536-7,	41
The Privy Council to the Duke, April 7, 1537,	43
The Privy Council to the Duke, April 8, 1537,	46

No. IV.

Roger Ascham's communication with Monsieur d'Arras, at Landau, October 1, 1552. To Sir Richard Moryson.	48
--	----

[From the Paper Office.]

Sir Richard Moryson to the Lords of the Council, October 7, 1552,	51
--	----

No. V.

The Journey of the Queen's Ambassadors unto Rome, Anno 1555. The Reverend Father in God the Bishop of Ely, and Viscount Montague, then Ambassadors; who set out of Calais in Picardy, on Wednesday, being Asb Wednesday, the 27th of February.	62
---	----

[From the Harleian Collection.]

No.