

ship to the use of the Church in this Colony, he supplied her with everything calculated to make her outfit as complete as possible in every detail for the holy service to which she had been thus dedicated. Your Committee trust God's fullest blessing may be given to her donor, and likewise to the work to which his gift has been so piously devoted. It only remains to record, in connection with this subject, that the Lavrock sailed North on her first voyage, as the Newfoundland Church Ship, on St. John Baptist's day, and has now gone South to complete work that was necessarily left undone last year in consequence of the shipwreck of the Star. His Lordship has visited Labrador from Battle Harbor to the North-shore of Esquimaux Bay, and Twillingate and Fogo on his return, and now purposes visiting St. Peter's and Lamaline, and the Missions of Burin and Harbor Buffett, in Placentia Bay.

Three Ordinations, all by the Coadjutor Bishop, have taken place since the last Annual Meeting of this Society. At Christmas, Mr. Winsor, of the Theological College, was ordained Deacon, and since Trinity Sunday the Rev. F. G. Hall, late Missionary at St. George's Bay, has been ordained Priest in the Cathedral, and at the same time Mr. Cecil Wilson, of the Theological College, was ordained Deacon. The Rev. George Bishop was the subject of the first ordination on the Labrador shore, having been ordained Priest at St. James' Church, Battle Harbor, during the Bishop's late voyage. Your Committee regret to state
