

444 History of New Brunswick.

- Coffin, General — unsettled, 310, v. ii.
- Colebrook, Sir Wm. — Lieutenant Governor, 74, v. ii.; his unconstitutional conduct, 106, v. ii.
- College, the — begins, 388, v. i.; its charter, 398-399-400, v. i.
- College, Kings — its unpopularity, 23-24-25, v. ii.; 164-165-166; reorganized, 192-193.
- Confederation, 204-205-207-208-209-210-211-212-218-219-220-221-222-223-224-225-226-227-228-229-230, v. ii.; defeated in N. B., 232-233-234-235-236-237-238-239, v. ii.; the Smith Government resigns, 248, v. ii.; Mr. Tilley forms new Government, 250, v. ii.; carried in New Brunswick, 252-253-254-255, v. ii.; the London conference, 263-264-265, v. ii.; passed in the Imperial Parliament, 268, v. ii.; comes into force, 270, v. ii.; changes in the Legislature, 272, v. ii.
- Cornwallis, Governor — founds Halifax, 40, v. i.
- Cornwallis, Lord — surrenders at Yorktown, 125, v. i.
- Connell, Hon. Charles — resigns, 194.
- Conway, its population, 77, v. i.
- Cortereal, Gaspar de — 2, v. i.
- Council the — 146, v. i.; its legislative authority, 160, v. i.; sits with closed doors for almost 50 years, 165, v. i.; no record of its proceedings printed until 1830, 166, v. i.; throws out the grant for Parish schools, 235, v. i.; throws out the appropriation bill, 242, v. i.; quarrels with the Assembly, 248, v. i.; rejects the revenue bill, 253, v. i.; again rejects the revenue appropriation bill, 261, v. i.; the deadlock with the Assembly ended, 263, v. i.; the throwing out of bills, 345, v. i.; its ideas of etiquette, 434, v. i.; divided into two sections, Executive and Legislative, 19, v. ii.
- Council Executive — 108-109, v. ii.; its functions, 115-116.
- Council, Legislative — Complaints against it, 83-86, v. ii.; 138-150-278, v. ii.; its clerk, 290-291; Legislative and the Free School law, 314-315-316; v. ii.
- Crown Lands bought by speculators, 434, v. i.; Department investigation, 287, v. ii.
- Crops, failure of — 37, v. ii.
- Cumberland, settled by New Englanders, 65, v. i.; disloyalty of New England people there, 103, v. i.; Fort besieged by rebels, 111, v. i.
- Customs establishment, controlled by British Government, 159, v. i.; collections permitted to Provincial Treasury, 388, v. i.; salaries, agitation for their reduction, 410-411-412-413-414-415, v. i.
- Customs House fees, 359-360, v. i.; establishment, 29-31, v. ii.; establishment, Imperial, 172, v. ii.