

CONFERENCE OF YOUNG WOMEN

Two Hundred Present at Summer Session at Lake Joseph.

PROGRAM IS COMPLETE

Study Courses of Unusual Interest Prepared—Many Speakers.

Two hundred delegates, officers and visitors to the Canadian summer conference of the Young Women's Christian Association are assembled at Lake Joseph, Lake Joseph. The conference is conspicuously representative. Officers and speakers from all over the world. The study courses are of unusual interest.

Miss J. E. Macdonald, executive of the Dominion Council of the Y.W.C.A., and Dr. Gilmour of McMaster University, Toronto, struck the keynote of the conference in their opening addresses of welcome—the fundamental purpose of life devoted to the service of Christ, and the immediate purpose of drawing from this occasion the opportunities of love and prayer, joy and friendship.

The regular sessions, which continue to the end of the conference, opened last Wednesday morning. Four Bible study groups, with a total enrollment of 188, met daily.

Prof. Gilmour's Classes. Prof. Gilmour is conducting a normal class in "Studies in the Teachings of Jesus." This method of allotting to individual members different phases of the subject to represent from the teachers' standpoint is of immense value to leaders.

Dr. Norman Macleod of St. Anne de Bellevue in a course on "The Acts" is developing the idea of the "illness power of the spirit of God." The Rev. C. W. Sykes is leading a course on "The Word and Man's Work." The inspiration of prayer, licensing of where decisions must be made and made are the dominant things.

Books of Victoria College, Toronto, treating with the works and words of the earlier prophets. Mission Study Classes. Mission study classes are attending to the needs of the students in foreign fields, those who are working in or means to work in the home field and others who are seeking to work the various fields of labor throughout the world. Dr. Murdoch Macleod is setting forth the greatness of the emergency in China. Rev. E. Sillwell of India is presenting in "The Awakening of India" the complex needs of India today. The "Modern World" course by Miss Claribel Platt of Turley is an exposition of Islam. The studies, entitled, "My Neighbor" by Dr. J. B. Woodhouse of the Canadian League, is an exposition of the social problems of Canada today. In addition, Canada's great foreign relations, the conditions in the cities, the crowding, low wages and the lot of living—labor and public questions—concerning the cities, the field of study, an opportunity to deal with the social conditions of Canada today. Macleod is delivering a deeply stirring course on the fundamental problems of religion and the Christ-life.

Technical Sessions. Technical sessions are held at the end of each morning. In the student reports for the past year are read and discussed, new lines of progress and advance are laid down and technical questions considered. In the city sessions of the local associations all over the Dominion is reviewed, extension considered and new opportunities investigated. Miss Lane of the city department of the Dominion Council is assisted in these sessions by Miss Elizabeth Hughes, representative of the national board of the Young Women's Christian Association, New York. Out of the richness of a varied experience and a deep fund of human sympathy and understanding, Miss Hughes has made the technique of the city association grow with interest and appreciation. Y.W.C.A. Toronto, spoke on the tremendous opportunity awaiting the Y.W.C.A. in teaching the foreign women in the cities.

Recreation in Afternoons. The afternoons are devoted to delightful launch trips, canoeing and rowing, walking parties, tennis and basketball. Sports afternoon has just closed. The different delegations displayed wonderful ingenuity in organizing and carrying out this stunt. The Kuchan orchestra, conducted by Dr. Gilmour, really rendered a most effective program. The chorales, which included a life-like portrayal of Hindu, the Indian and Japanese, were really performed. The suffragette program was a convincing piece of work, and the mock parliament, presented by the delegation of Toronto University, as well carried out.

At two of the evening meetings, held at the beautiful little chapel overlooking the lake, Canon Plumptre of Toronto spoke on "Christ's Love" and "Christ's Joy." All the meetings are deeply significant, the power of prayer is pre-eminent and the enthusiasm stirring.

Mrs. McLaren of Ottawa and Mr. Woodworth of Winnipeg will make a special appeal for the work in the one field.

DOCTORS HONORED

LONDON, Ont., June 30.—Dr. Norman Macleod and Dr. G. A. Seaborn of this city have returned from Philadelphia, where they were honored with fellowships in the American College of Surgeons.

COUNCIL MEETS AGAIN TOMORROW

Discussion on Winter Fat Stock Show Was Adjourned.

YONGE ST. WIDENING

Upper Canada College District Residents Ask to Be Annexed.

At the council meeting last night in the heat of debate upon the controversy between the Canadian National Exhibition board and the directors of the winter fat stock show, Controller Church was taken with holiday fever and moved adjournment. So contagious was the disease that a majority favored his proposal and the discussion was dropped until 2.30 tomorrow afternoon.

The board of control had recommended to grant the National Live Stock Show $25,000 to cover deficits for 1914. Ald. McBride moved that the show be discontinued, but did not obtain a seconder for his motion. Ald. St. Joseph delivered arguments in favor of having the grant discontinued. Ald. McBride contended that the show was detrimental to the Canadian National Exhibition, which had taken since 1879 to build up. He said the deficit of the National Live Stock Show was being borne by the taxpayers of Toronto, and the show being promoted by several well-known men, and that the show was not patronized by the people who were bearing the expenses.

Ald. Maguire complimented the board of control for sending on this recommendation and said the show was a great advertising medium for the city. Expansion and development of North Toronto again occupied council's attention. A by-law formally authorizing widening of Yonge street to 86 feet from about 800 feet north of Collier street to the city limits was passed, and a petition from residents of Toronto for Upper Canada College district annexation was presented by Controller McCarty.

The council approved the names of practically all residents within the city limits and bordering them. The council decided to refer back a recommendation of the board of control to pay three months' salary to District Fire Chiefs Villiers and Smedley, who have retired after forty years of service. They served the fire department as volunteers without remuneration for several years previously.

Ald. Cameron and McBride entered strong protests against this money being granted. Ald. Cameron said it was not good business, and McBride argued that it would be establishing a bad precedent.

OVER SEVEN HUNDRED ENTRIES IN ANNUAL WORK HORSE PARADE

Judging Starts at Nine This Morning and Parade Will Leave St. Alban's St. Entrance to Park About an Hour Later—Mayor Hocken to Present Prizes.

Toronto's 15th annual work horse parade will be held this morning in Queen's Park and adjacent streets. The public are invited to witness the judging of 700 entries in fifty-two classes comprising over 1000 horses. The exhibitors will enter Queen's Park by College street entrance shortly after eight o'clock and be directed by Superintendent Swift to their respective classes. It is expected that the judging, which starts at nine o'clock, will have been completed at ten, at which hour the parade will leave St. Alban's street entrance, proceeding to Jarvis street, south on Jarvis to Adelaide, west on Adelaide to Simcoe, north on Simcoe to Queen into University avenue to the reviewing stand at Sir John Macdonald's monument, where his worship the mayor will present the prizes.

The east side of Queen's Park south of the parliament buildings has been reserved for the children and their ponies, which is unusually large this year.

A grand massed band concert of the 48th Highlanders and Governor-General's Body Guards and Royal Grenadiers will take place in Queen's Park, and the parade will be headed by a company of the 9th Mississauga Horse in charge of Lieut. Cosgrave, together with the Band of the 48th Highlanders.

DEMOGOGIC CLERICS

Sir James Says Political Pulpit-teers Carried Little Weight With Electorate.

Sir James Whitney is rejoicing in the confidence which the people showed in his administration by their vote at the polls. He takes the whole result as a vindication of the policy the government has adopted in the past three years, and confesses the obligation under which he and his colleagues have been placed by the manifestation of public favor. This confidence, he states, will not be misplaced, and all matters of public interest which have been touched in the past will continue to form the subject of ministerial deliberation.

The action of the ministers of the gospel who took part in the campaign here, but to those who retained their activity he extends words of personal appreciation. "A cold-blooded and dishonest attempt was made to make use of the so-called temperance question, to get a few demagogic clergymen, anxious above all else for the success of this party move, were not ashamed and did not hesitate to denounce us and every good citizen who approved of our course as bad citizens and worse men, and to announce their views and denunciations from their pulpits in im-temperate, violent and abusive language, which I will not further describe, but which in some cases was calculated to make a listener shudder. However, the result has shown several things: among others that these men have no influence whatever and that the good people of Ontario regard them with quiet contempt. What injury they may have done to the temperance idea—and what is of more consequence—what injury they may have inflicted on the influence of the churches, will be seen more clearly as time goes on.

COUNCIL DISCUSS RAILWAY PURCHASE

Geary's Letter Showing Progress of Negotiations Read at Meeting Yesterday.

DEMOGOGIC CLERICS

Sir James Says Political Pulpit-teers Carried Little Weight With Electorate.

Street railway purchase came before council again yesterday. This time the debate was limited to the agreement to be proposed by corporation counsel and by Z. A. Lash for the company, and a letter was read from the former relating the present position of negotiations. Enclosed with it was the city's draft agreement, but it is incomplete, and council took the mayor's advice to withhold it from the public until completed. In his letter Corporation Counsel Geary said: "On the 6th of January, 1914, the draft agreement, prepared by Mr. Thomson and myself was forwarded to Mr. Lash for consideration. A copy of the agreement and letter covering same are herewith enclosed. Subsequently instructions were conveyed to us thru his worship the mayor to have the agreement so forwarded, amended, by the insertion of certain terms as to entrance to the city of radial traffic. The second draft was then prepared, following the express instructions referred to, and this in turn forwarded on April 9, 1914, to Mr. Lash. A copy of the second draft with covering letter is enclosed herewith. You will observe that as yet the clauses as to power contracts have not been prepared, the company having to date failed to give certain information necessary to have before drafting such clauses. "Since April 9 I have pressed to have the matter gone on with, but Mr. Lash has been fully occupied in Ottawa with C. N. R. affairs, and could not give this his attention. I saw him, however, on Tuesday last, and he now promises that the matter will receive his early attention." Members asked that no time be lost in concluding the agreement.

CRUELLY TREATED GERMAN ACTORS

Label Suit at Munich Revealed Revolting Conditions.

Canadian Press Despatch. BERLIN, June 30.—An astonishing commentary upon the conditions in the German theatrical world has been furnished by a label suit at Munich. Ernest Schrumpp, director of the Munich Folk's Theatre brought action against the publisher of a magazine devoted to stage affairs, who had accused Schrumpp of mistreatment of his employees. The testimony of his disclosed conditions which moved the presiding judge to declare that "we have experienced a great deal in this court room, but never before such testimony as this process has brought to light. The poorest workmen are better off than these actors. Working men would not endure such treatment." Uncontradicted testimony showed that Schrumpp was accustomed to strike and kick actors and to lash them with a whip; that actresses were engaged at a salary of $15 to $25.00 monthly and required to furnish their own wardrobes, also the theatre was extremely profitable and Schrumpp had become rich thru its management; that the director had declared in the presence of the whole company that "it is a pity that we are not in Russia, so I could walk into you with a knout"; that he had struck a woman promoter in the face with a bunch of keys—(German keys are so big and heavy that a bunch of them is almost a deadly weapon). The testimony concerning the plaintiffs' conduct toward the women of his company was of such a nature that the public was excluded from the court room while it was being given. The abused actors declared that they submitted to such treatment because they were, under prevailing conditions in their profession, helpless to resist. Moreover, they said, there was no feeling of solidarity among actors which would make resistance effective, it was a question of bare existence with them, and they bore it because they had rather than see to others which might be worse.
