

	PAGE
One of our Camps in the Yellowhead Pass	111
"I picked up a little Ram just above the Timber Line"	113
The Bush-fire on the Brazeau which nearly ended our Enterprise	143
The Pass cunningly hidden among the Glaciers	148
The Parting of the Ways	150
Again and again the Horses sink to their Bellies in the soft melting Whiteness of this cloud-girt Pass	151
Pack-train entering a Mountain-pass	155
A Mammoth Glacier that is the true Head of the great McKenzie River	157
Fresh Meat for Supper.	161
Pack-horses picking their way over a Bad Bit of Going	163
An Ideal Camp on the Athabasca River	165
Waterfalls in the Athabasca Valley	169
A Couple of Views of the Athabasca Falls	173
We pitch our Tent on the very Brink of the River	179
How the Pack-train crossed the Athabasca River	181
Crossing the Athabasca on a Raft	183
Breaking a Wild Horse for Use in the Pack-train	197
Packhorse picking his Way in the Yellowhead Trail	201
Showing the "Diamond Hitch"	203
A Stretch in the Pathway through the Yellowhead that is responsible for Volumes of Profanity	207
Human Pack-horses	223
A Series of Waterfalls	225
A Typical Bit of the Yellowhead Trail	233
Where the Trail winds through the Burned-over Timber	239
The Worst Bit of Trail in the Yellowhead	245
Mount Robson and Yellowhead Pass	247