

order, that the said petition of the House of Representatives of the province of the Massachusett's Bay, be, and it is hereby dismissed this board, as groundless, vexatious, and scandalous, and calculated only for the seditious purpose of keeping up a spirit of clamour and discontent in the said province,

to G. CHETWYND,

noting that as you are to be present at the Board of Trade, you will be able to give him full information of the state of things in New England, and particularly of the progress of the rebellion, and of the conduct of the rebels, and of their designs against the King, and of the measures taken by the Government to oppose them, and to support the King, and to maintain the law and order of the country.

and to advise him of the best course to be pursued in the present emergency, and to inform him of the state of the rebellion, and of the measures taken by the Government to oppose them, and to support the King, and to maintain the law and order of the country.
