

quently built was burnt, 1883. In this House H. M. King Edward VII stayed in 1860, the "Fathers of Confederation" met in 1864, and the "Dominion of Canada" was proclaimed in 1867. Monument to Laval, first Bishop of Quebec, now in course of erection, on opposite side of Mountain Hill. The old Parliament grounds have been suggested as a suitable site for a national monument to Carleton.

3—THE RAMPARTS AND GRAND BATTERY. Jacques Cartier wintered in the St. Charles River, 1535. Montcalm's Beauport entrenchments in full view, 1759. Montcalm's quarters during last year of his life, 1758-59. Nelson often at the Woolseys' house in 1782.

4—THE INTENDANT'S PALACE. Talon built a brewery, 1671, which,