A Congregational Meeting Held Last Night-Suppressed Indignation — The Pastor's Statements Strongly Refuted—The Transfer

Will Not Be Opposed at the Presbytery To-Night.

"Moved by Mr. J. W. Langmuir, seconded by Mr. S. R. Hart, That, having regard to the statement made to the congregation by the Session and Board of Management, as well as the intimation given by the Rev.
Mr. McCaughan that he desires to accept the call of the Third Presbyterian Church of Chicago, therefore be it resolved by lie congregation of St. Andrew's, that the commissioners to be appointed to represent the church at the meeting of the Presbytery, to take place to-morrow, be instructed to offer no objection to the translation of the Rev. Mr. McCaughan to Chicago, In the above motion, so clearly worded,
so orthodox, so light and yet so deep,
so orthodox, so slight and yet so deep,
so orthodox, so light and yet so deep,
so orthodox so light and yet so deep,
so orthodox as a foundation and last came thereof," the final amen to that memorable sermon.

A Just Refutation.

Here this unfortunate incident in our church history might close were it not that Mr. McCaughan has intimated his decision to accept the call to Chicago and, in consequence, the congregation of St. Andrew's must at once take steps to select his successor. It will be evident to the congregation that the injurious and misleading statements in respect to our financial affairs, which have recently appeared in the press and more particularly the utterances of Mr. McCaughan himself, on the subject from the pulpit on Oct. 2, may very seriously affect our efforts to secure a suitable minister to take his place. It is, therefore, in our opinion, a simple act of justice to the congregation that these injurious reflections on the church finances, whether emanating from the press or the pulpit, should not be allowed to pass unchallenged, and to that end it becomes necessary that the rue condition of the finances of St. Andrew's should be made public at this particular juncture.

Since the year 1876 up to this time the congregation has expended in the acquirement of land and in the construction of St. Andrew's Church, St. Mark's Church and St. Andrew's Church, St. Mark's Church and St. Andrew's Church point of the construction of St. Andrew's Church and St. Andrew's Church point of the subject of the construction of St. Andrew's Church points of the construction of St. Andrew's Church and St. Andrew's Church points of the construction of St. Andrew's Church points of the construction of St. Andrew's Church points of the construction of St. Andrew's Church points of the cons

Since the year 1876 up to this time the congregation has expended in the acquirement of land and in the construction of St. Andrew's Church, St. Mark's Church and St. Andrew's Institute no less a sum than $167,752.17. These expenditures (with the exception of $21,000 from the sale of the glebe lands) have all been met by special and ordinary subscriptions of the congregation, except $41,780, which sum represents the entire indebtedness of the church, manse and institute at this date.

The congregation has also contributed during the same period for missionary, educational and benevolent purposes the sum of $163,000, thus showing that in addition to the large sums paid for the ordinary maintenance of St. Andrew's Church, the congregation have since 1876 paid no less a sum than $330,000 for the purposes before mentioned.

A Fine Record. A Fine Record.

It is not necessary, however, to go back 10 or 20 years in the history of St. Andrew's Church to prove that the congregation have always responded generously to the financial calls made upon them. We need not go further back than to the time of Mr. McCaughan's installation, as our minister. The church debt, including the St. Mark's and Institute mortgages, at that time amounted to about $53,000. Through time amounted to about $53,000. Through the settlement which the managers effected of the St. Mark's debt (which settlement the congregation knows erred on the side of extreme liberality to that church) and notwithstanding that abnormal expenditures amounting to $7418.51 have been made during the 19 mouths that Mr. McCaughan has been wifn us, the aggregate debt has been reduced from $53,000 to $41,780, viz., $35,000 on church and manse and $7500 on the Institute, less $ 1300 at our c redit in the bank. The managers think that the financial record of St. Andrew's this outlined, will compare favorably with that of the largest and wealthlest congregations in the Presbyterian Church of Canada, and, whether viewed as a whole from 1876, or confined to the pagt nineteen months, is one that may reasonably afford cause for congratulation instead of censure.

Your Own Clothes

The man who goes to his tailor to be fitted for a suit of clothes gets just what he wants. It is not a case of being obliged to make his choice from the clothes before him-to be satisfied with that or nothing.

Materials in large variety are presented to him by his tailor and he can select to his own

The tailor takes his measure. He is not a duplicate of somebody else. As each leaf on the tree differs from the other-no two being exactly alike-so with men. They differ. The clothes that will fit one will not fit another. The tailor takes note of these differences, because he makes clothes for the individual. It is your clothesnot somebody else's-that he is making-made to your measure, as you measure-not as you have been measured from somebody else.

"The little peculiarities that make character in dress, which harmonize it with the wearer's individuality, with his ambitions, mental proclivities, habit of figure, carriage of head and shoulders, etc.," enter into a suit of clothes when made correctly by an experienced tailor to a man's own measure. These cannot come to you from clothes ready-made, cast from a model that may in form be somewhat nearly to yourself, but is not

The Hobberlin Custom-Mades cover all the defects and peculiarities of form. They are made with a degree of finish that is not common to ready-mades by whatever name known. Skilled cutters and first-class workpeople only are employed. The sweat-shop is not a factor in Hobberlin Custom-Mades. Hobberlin Custom-Mades are the best value in clothing the country produces. Those who have tested our work say so. What better proof can we ask?
