CHEAPER FLOUR NOW LOOKED FOR; STATES CANCELS REGULATIONS

Wheat Rose at Minneapolis When News Arrived.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Cancellation of all flour milling regulations, including fair price schedules and the price and quantity restrictions on the sale of wheat flour by millers, which officials expect will result in a sharp rise in the price of wheat, and other mill feeds for the Minneapolis market, was formally announced late today by the food administration.

Notification of the action was telegraphed last night to all agents of the food administration's grain corporation and today there was a sharp rise in the price of wheat, and other mill feeds for the Minneapolis market, which officials expect to be followed by a drop in flour prices.

Existing regulations restricting margins of profit on flour and mill feeds remain in effect as do general regulations of the food administration prohibiting profiteering, hoarding, and unfair practices, and officials said these would be strictly enforced.

The prediction of cheaper flour to the consumer was studied at the food administration, is based on the immediate rise today in the price of mill feeds, amounting to several dollars a ton.

Close observation of the market trend in flour and mill feeds made by the food administration's milling division and grain experts, showed that with every upward movement of feeds came a fall in the price of flour.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 20.—Food board orders restricting the sale of beef and veal remain in force and two Montreal firms have had their licenses suspended for seven days for neglecting to observe these regulations.
