

PLAYS, PICTURES
AND MUSIC

"Miss Springtime."
The announcement comes from the new Princess theatre that the opening week of that theatre, which starts next Monday, will be filled out by accompanied by remittance. The regular sale will begin on Thursday morning for "Miss Springtime." Its brisk, witty story, with its haunting melodies, fairly gallops along to a surprising finale, and its up-to-the-second characters, with their rollicking fun-making, its legions of pert, pretty girls and picturesquely beautiful embellishment all combine, it is said to banish dull care like magic. Of the principals, Frank McIntyre, Zoe Barnett, Harrison Brockbank, Hattie Burks, George Leon Moore, Frank Doane and Mae Hennessy are particularly well-known in this city.

"The Sky Pilot."
Tonight at the Alexandra the dramatic version of Ralph Connor's two most famous books, "The Sky Pilot" and "Black Rock" will be presented with Brandon Tynan in the title role of the Pilot. This play when reviewed by the Buffalo papers last week received the most flattering notices. The usual matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday. "The Sky Pilot" has been staged by George Henry Hader.

"Mutt and Jeff" at the Grand.
Bud Fisher's famous cartoon creations, Mutt and Jeff, who have made millions laugh will be at the Grand Opera House this week with their new fun festival, entitled "Divorced." The new offering is said to be the most amusing that the popular duo have yet appeared in, and the author has given them a vehicle which is full of ludicrous situations and bright lines. The principals are supported by a number of clever specialty people and a chorus that can dance and sing.

This Week's Shows.
Bert Kalmar and Jessie Brown are well known to patrons of Shea's Theatre, and should be heartily welcomed on the occasion of their return to the week, when they will present as the headline attraction the delightful story-book novelty, "Nursery Land." The act will prove immensely popular with the kiddies and interesting to their elders. Will Oakland, supported by a capable cast, presents his newest festival of melody, "Danny O'Gill, U. S. A." Nonetto, the singing violinist, besides possessing almost perfect technique as a violinist, is also an excellent singer. Virginia White and Jean Lewis present a refined offering of songs and dances. "Monday Morning" is an amusing travesty on theatrical life. The Le Vars will present their series of whirlwind dances. Mankichi and company are Japanese athletes in musical diversion, and feature film comedies close a well-balanced bill.

Loew's.
"The Amazons," starring Marguerite Clark, the diminutive favorite of the screen, will receive its initial production in Canada this week at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre and Winter Garden. Heading an all-star vaudeville bill is Bruce Duffett and Company, presenting a comedy playlet, "Via Wireless." As an added feature, Jas. Teddy, the champion high and broad jumper of the world, will give an exhibition. Other bookings embrace the Columbia City Four, in singing and comedy; Beatrice MacKenzie, offering new melodies and whistling; Picti, a character singer; Ben and Hazel Mount, singers and dancers, and the Le France Trio, comedy acrobats.

The Hippodrome.
"Come Thru," George Bronson Howard's intensely interesting story of New York's underworld, will be presented on the screen when it will headline the bill at the Hippodrome this week. "Six Imps and a Girl," a musical diversion, heads the vaudeville bill. Charles Deland and company present "Back to Buffalo." The Edith Richardson Trio will sing a number of new songs and present some pleasing dances. Dorothy Earl has some new songs and bright, clever stories. James and Agnes Du Veau, Evans and Sidney, sensational bar performers, "Blind and Bud," in a new comedy film, and "The Pathe News" complete an excellent bill.

Gaiety.
It is no more of unknowns which Peter S. Clark will present with his "Oh, Girl" company at the Gaiety Theatre this week. Every performer in the organization is well-known and has proved his worth. The two-act musical comedy which will be presented is from the pen of Junie McCree and is entitled "The High Cost of Flirting."

The Speedway Girls.
The Speedway Girls are coming to town this week and will be seen at the Star. The fun is provided by burlesque's most able headliners and Barker's Prize Beauty Chorus, the 20 handsomest girls on the American stage. In book, music, scenery and costume the entire production is strictly in keeping with the high standard of burlesque entertainment.

Made Kennedy in "Baby Mine."
Made Kennedy, America's foremost comedienne, makes her first appearance on the screen in the swiftest farce ever produced at the Regent Theatre today. Toronto theatre patrons will see "Baby Mine" simultaneously with New York theatre-goers. Irene Delaney, the eminent lyric soprano, has been engaged to sing at the Regent. The play will also be pictured the raising of the centre span of the Quebec bridge.

Earle Williams at Madison.
Earle Williams and Cordine Griffith head an all-star cast in the strong Greater Vitaphone Blue Ribbon production, which will headline the bill at the Madison Theatre for the first half of this week. The photoplay tells how the mayor of a big city fought a great fight for his brother's honor against political corruption.

"Love o' Mike" Here Next Week.
As its attraction next week, starting on Wednesday evening, the Royal Alexandra Theatre will offer "Love o' Mike," the delightfully and distinctively different new comedy, with music which has recently completed a prosperous run of ten months at the Casino Theatre, New York. "Love o' Mike" will be interpreted by a cast of exceptional excellence.

"Flora Bella" Coming.
"Flora Bella," the attraction to be offered to the patrons of the Grand Opera House next week, is a pretty, dainty, charming, musical comedy. In "Flora Bella" is combined all the charm and delectable melody of a dreamy waltz, enhanced by voices of a very attractive chorus of pretty girls and a plot which adds greatly to its attractiveness.

KAISER VISITS TROOPS
UPON EASTERN FRONT

Berlin, Sept. 23, via Amsterdam.—An official statement issued today states that Emperor William left on Sept. 18 to visit the German troops on the Russian front. He is expected to arrive at the front on Sept. 20, and will remain there for a few days. He is expected to visit the front on Sept. 20, and will remain there for a few days. He is expected to visit the front on Sept. 20, and will remain there for a few days.

ITALIAN RED CROSS.

Special to The Toronto World.
Vancouver, Sept. 22.—At the close of the campaign here in behalf of the Italian Red Cross fund this afternoon I was estimated by the secretary-treasurer of the campaign that the objective of $600 had been reached.

A Satisfactory Range

"Pandora" Ranges never disappoint the cook. Also they last longer, maintain a more even temperature, use less fuel and require less attention than any other range you can buy. Write for free illustrated booklet.

McClary's

PANDORA RANGE

LONDON TORONTO MONTREAL WINNIPEG VANCOUVER
ST. JOHN, N.B. HAMILTON CALGARY
SASKATOON EDMONTON

FOR SALE BY

W. Walker & Son, 1228 Yonge St.
Treford Hardware Co., 1036 St. Clair Ave.
W. J. Merrill, 862 Kingston Road.
Washington & Johnston, Broadview and Queen Sts.
Toms Bros., 1612 Danforth Ave.
Ame Hardware Co., 2428 Yonge St.
R. Iredale, 223 Danforth Ave.
Revelley & Son, New Toronto.
J. G. Marshall & Son, Mount Dennis.

Polly and Her Pals

Copyright, 1917, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc. Great Britain rights reserved. Registered in U. S. Patent Office.

Society---Mrs. Edmund Phillips

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Hendrie will return to Government House today.

The marriage took place at noon on Saturday very quietly in the drawing-room of the royal suite at the King Edward of Frances, daughter of Mr. Henry E. Bedford, president of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, and Mrs. Bedford, to Mr. Harold W. Chapin, Imperial Oil Company, Toronto, son of Dr. and Mrs. Chapin, New York. The drawing-room was most artistically arranged with palms and roses and an orchestra played the wedding music. The Rev. Byron Stauffer, New Jersey, officiating. The pretty bride, who was brought in and given away by her father, wore a beautiful gown of ivory satin embroidered with pearls and a tulle veil crowned with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies and orchids. Both bride and groom were unattended. After the ceremony Mrs. Bedford held a reception for the immediate families, when she was wearing a gray crepe and a mole skin hat to match. The guests adjourned to the banquet hall, where two rows were arranged for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

The bride traveled in a smart navy blue tailor-made with hat to match. On Friday night Mr. Alfred Bedford, for the dejeuner eleven sitting at each table, which was arranged with white roses, surrounded with baskets of white sweet peas, the silver candlesticks shaded with green. The bride's cake was at the side and was brought to her out, and after the wedding it was sent to the soldiers' convalescent home in College street, the magnificent flowers going to the Sick Children's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left by train for the west and will spend the honeymoon in the Rocky Mountains. On their return they will live in the Queen's Court Apartments, Jarvis street.

Winnipeg, Chicago, Pittsburg and Hagerstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Strathy, who have been in Winnipeg for some years, are coming to Toronto to live.

Lady Whyte, Winnipeg, is the guest of Mrs. Edward Meek, Jamieson avenue.

Mrs. Geo. C. Thompson, Euclid avenue, is spending a few weeks with Mrs. S. Mahaffy in Bracebridge, Muskoka.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beatty are expected home from Loon Lake today.

Sir John Aird returned from Ottawa on Saturday morning.