This Level is Invaluable to the Farmer

WITH FARM HELP SO SCARCE, labor-saving machinery becomes more than ever a necessity. And witness in this level a device that is indispensable to up-to-date farming—saving work and making for efficiency in the aid it affords in "taking sights." Here are some of the numerous operations in which it proves invaluable:

- Fencing—ascertaining without delay or difficulty an absolutely accurate line.
- Grading the fall for ditches.
- Locating drains.
- Planting an orchard—determining the lines for the setting out of the young trees.
- Repairing or building barns.
- Ascertaining the height of springs.
- The Level proper is of black nickel. It is put up in a mahogany box with carrying strap, and is accompanied by trivet plate, which enables instruments to be set on the wall of a building where it is impossible to use the tripod. The latter is made of hardwood and bell metal. Moreover, the Level can be used without previous experience.

Price of Farm Level, complete as described, is $27.50.—Optical Department, Third Floor, James St.

Wedding Stationery

Inviting the Guests or Announcing the Marriage—'Tis a Matter in Which You must Act Just This and So, as Usage Commands.

Who Can Measure the Pleasure of a Victrola?

'Twere Hard to Limit Its Allurements, For, Verily It Meets Your Every Mood With Music to Comfort, Stimulate or Amuse You—What Household Would Be Without It?

OLD PLATO IN HIS WISDOM said that Music to the mind is as air to the body. With what elation would he have hailed this great modern boon, which makes Music—sublime, soulful Music—as accessible almost as air!

Bring a Victrola into your house, and the Music of the loveliest voices and the greatest musicians in the world is at your command. You may call upon it to charm you at any moment you will. Galli-Curci and Caruso will sing for you. Mischa Elman will play for you. And not only this, but Ellen Terry will recite for you, and James Whitcomb Riley will tell his fascinating tales to the children.

The particular machine our artist has drawn is Victrola X., which you may obtain in either mahogany or oak case. Below the sound box is a cabinet with record shelves. But to realize its sweet, clear tone, you must come into the Musical Instrument Department and hear it played—unless you are already familiar with its high musical excellence. For 'tis one of the most popular of all Victrola models.

Price of Victrola X.—$102.00.—Fifth Floor, Queen St.

This is Interesting

TOKENS OF GOOD-WILL between the Allies crop up in the most unexpected places. In the French color cards for Autumn just received from Paris, their publishers pay us the pretty compliment of christening many of the new shades with English names. Three tones of grey, for example, have been entitled "Tank" grey. A range of red tints is called "Toronto" red. A series of purple is to be known as "Bagdad." A soft dark green is "Prairie." Our "Navy Blue" is entered under its own name, and three lovely lake-like blues, which will surely be known to fame and fashion, appear on one card as "Ontario."

A Passport Case—This is a new object of interest at the counter where bill-folds and wallets of various forms are to be found. It has been designed specially to accommodate the imposing document of recent necessity, being in envelope style, secured with a strong dome fastener. It may be had in black goat seal at $1.50, and in tan calfskin at $1.00. Incidentally, the idea might be utilized by minds perplexed over what to give to "Daddy" or "Hubby" by way of birthday present.

And apropos of travelling, the woman who is contemplating a journey and wishes to fortify herself against loss and theft of money, is afforded an splendid choice of safety purses of many convenient sizes. A large, flat pocket attached to a strong belt—to be worn under the skirt—is procurable in linen at 50 and 75 cents, and in suede at $1.50 and $2.25. Jewel cases suspended from a long tape or ribbon, to be worn around the neck, are of white cotton or silky material outside, with inner case of chamolite. These are 25 and 35 cents. Chintz "Pill-box" equipped with numerous compartments, lined with rubber cloth, for the carrying of brushes, sponge and other toilet articles, are available from 75 cents to $4.00.

If you have been accumulating photographs lately you will be glad to hear of the wonderfully nice frames which are obtainable in very clever effects of stainedwood, rosewood, mahogany and a grey oak finish. Many of them show a delicate choice of veneer wood, and are equipped with back and stand for use on a desk or mantelpiece. They are made in innumerable sizes to fit all the usual forms of picture from postcard to cabinet and large older style. Prices run moderately from 40 to 85 cents. Just the thing for soldiers' photographs, as one person after another as they catch sight of them.

WILL ASK BISHOPS TO DEFINE SUNDAY

Synod Invites Guidance From Upper House on Day's Observance.

THE FINAL SESSION

Anglican Gathering Ends Its Labors at Late Meeting Last Night.

Marking the closing session of the Synod of Toronto at St. James' Parish House last night was a protracted discussion in connection with the observance of Sunday, and a plea by the Rev. Dyson Hague for a national day of prayer, the recognition of God, and the consequent application to Him for victory for the allied arms. During the day many subjects of great importance were discussed, but the attendance at the final session was small.

The report of the committee on the observance of the Lord's Day was lengthy, and clauses dealing with observance in relation to modern habits and customs preceded a recommendation urging the primate and the house of bishops to have prepared and to promulgate a definite statement of what the church considers to be a well-kept Sunday, the whole report being criticized and amended considerably. It gave in detail customs of modern times which Archbishop Warren, who presented the report, while he would not condemn, thought should be embodied in order to assist the higher authorities in carrying out the request. Finally, after many amendments had been made, the bishop suggested that it might not be wise to send the bishops a thesis, but rather to request them to have prepared a pastoral regarding the observance of Sunday. This was carried.

Speaking on a motion to the effect that the synod should once more reassert its sense of the need on the part of the nation of the recognition of the overruling sovereignty of God in the war, Rev. Dyson Hague urged the appointment of a national day of prayer. He deplored the fact that statesmen thought so much of the material side of the war. He referred to the speech of Lloyd George in which the prime minister stated that ships were necessary to win the war, making no mention of the supreme power of God. "Our nation seems to shrink back from humiliation—from confession," he said, referring to the need of public prayer. "After Trafalgar a day was given over to supplication and thanksgiving. The beating heart of the nation is religious and statesmen, whether Roman Catholic, Protestant, Conservative or Liberal, must all know this." The resolution received hearty endorsement.

For Returned Soldiers A committee composed of Rev. Canon Dixon, Ven. Archbishop Inglis, Rev. H. A. Brooke, Rev. T. G. Wallace, W. T. Hallam, R. Macnamara, and Messrs. D. L. Hill, W. H. Popler, M.D., J. B. Ormsby, J. M. McWhinney, G. H. Kilmer, and F. C. Jarvis, was appointed at the afternoon meeting to deal with the whole question of the responsibility of the church towards returned soldiers. In moving the resolution for the appointment of the committee, Rev. W. Allan deplored the lack of interest shown by the church in this regard. "Three hundred dollars a year is nothing for a widow to starve on year in year out, because she was foolish enough to marry a clergyman," declared Dudley Hill, in discussing the report of the widows' and orphans' fund committee. He claimed that the church is not supporting clergy as it should, and maintained that if there is any fund which requires wide support it is this one. "The whole status of the fund should be brought before the people," he said.

A resolution by Bruce Murphy, of Orillia, to the effect that the canon on the widows' and orphans' fund be amended by placing every clergyman upon the fund without assessing the clergyman, and that the whole annual sum required be levied on each parish pro rata in support of the benevolent fund was referred to the executive. There are at present 29 widows and seven orphans in receipt of pensions from the fund as compared with the same number of orphans and 26 widows a year ago in the report. Chairman Provost Macklem pointed out that the amount provided was totally inadequate in view of the excessive prices for the necessities of life, but a payment of even this small annuity would be come impossible if the parishes did not respond better to their assessments. The committee has exhausted its resources in a vain endeavor to persuade the delinquent parishes to pay their dues.

Rev. R. L. Sherman and Dudley Hill were appointed to the diocesan committee on Jewish work. In this connection it was reported that work at the Nathaniel Institute, St. Beliveau avenue, which was opened in November, 1916, has amply justified the change in location. Classes in callisthenes, sewing and cooking have been carried on with considerable success. The committee has not yet been successful in securing a properly qualified Hebrew-Christian to preach the gospel in the Yiddish language. The synod authorized the superannuation fund committee to place the names of the Revs. L. A. Trotter and W. S. Westney upon the list of auxiliants to receive amounts according to their respective terms of service. The allowances to date from February 1, 1917.

Since the outbreak of war there has been a steady decrease in the membership of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, owing to enlistments. Between 60 and 70 per cent. of the members have joined the army. At the morning session Rev. H. B. Thompson made some strong remarks in connection with the distribution of clergy in the diocese and while they were met with some applause he was mildly censured by Bishop Sweeney. The discussion came up at the consideration of the report of the Diocesan Mission Board and the clergyman inferred that newly-ordained men were sent to the rural parishes and allowed to remain there while others were given more important and central charges.

No Preference. The bishop declared that this was the last time he would explain his actions in such a manner to the synod. He hoped the impression would not get abroad that the diocese was administered in a "haphazard, higgledy, piggledy way. He wanted it distinctly understood that there was no question of preference at all.

A resolution expressing approval of the work of the Toronto Juvenile Court was moved by Rev. T. W. Wallace, who declared influences had been at work to decry the work carried on and abolish it altogether. "That would be a great calamity," he said. "The juvenile court has more than justified itself in this and other cities."

"The newspapers have been calling down this court because Commissioner Boyd was the only man strong enough to say to the reporters, 'You are not going to make fun of the children,'" declared A. Wilson, who is connected with the Big Brotherhood Movement. Rev. Lawrence Skey, Canon Dixon and Prof. Cochrane all spoke in high terms of the court and the commissioner.

Amend Code. The clause in the criminal code, was carried. The changes requested would make adultery a crime, and raise the age of consent. A resolution condemning race-track gambling was carried by the synod. "We ought to emphasize clearly that we are not opposed to racing, but that we are strongly opposed to the business of race track gambling," declared Archbishop Inglis in presenting the report of the committee on temperance and social service.

A clause expressing gratification that progress had been made in Ontario in dealing with the feeble-minded was adopted and a motion proposed by Rev. Canon Plumtree endorsing the proposal to ask the government to appoint a commission to investigate the subject was carried out.

Clause Struck Out. A resolution calling for the prohibition of manufacture and importation of intoxicants for beverage purposes during the period of the war and some time after, and urging that the manufacture of such liquors be not resumed after the war without the taking of a referendum and the vote of the people heard, was moved by Archbishop Inglis, but met with some opposition with the result that the last clause was struck out.

Chancellor Worrell objected to the clause regarding the referendum, declaring that he personally did not believe in prohibition except as a wartime measure.

POPULAR WITH BURGLARS.

At an early hour yesterday morning the cigar and barber shop of Edward Adams of Newmarket was broken into and more than $100 worth of tobacco and cigars stolen. This is the third time in two years that this store has been burglarized.

The General Assembly

By Dr. Quill

Montreal, June 8.—Showery weather prevails, hence every commissioner sticks both to his umbrella and his blue book. The report on church union takes place on Saturday at 11 o'clock; that means it will be introduced and left over to Monday, when the intervening day of rest will give time for quiet exchange of opinion.

Dr. Alex. MacGillivray, Toronto, senior convener of Sabbath schools and young people's societies, resigned, after ten years of most valued service. The reason given was that he felt he owed it to his congregation to conserve all his strength for their benefit. His successor has not been named.

The Rev. W. J. Knox, London, and Rev. J. S. Robertson spoke on the question of religious education. The former dwelt upon the fact that such is the root which produces the fruit. Save the children, and the church is secured. Mr. Robertson outlined the policy of the committee, namely, to perfect the organization by means of presbyteries, to stimulate interest and instruction thru Sunday school institutes, and to add three of the women leaders to co-operate. At present only men are on the executive. Finally, he urged that the great work was not organization, but the conversion of the children and young people to God.

Prof. Kilpatrick conducted a noon hour spiritual service. The business of the assembly was discontinued. It was a powerful address, and a rousing appeal to the church to awaken to the needs and opportunities of the world today. He reminded us of the exciting times which are shaking with big things. Any preaching which does not present the love of God, which stops so low as Calvary is only the cracking of thorns under a pot. The cause of the war is just the very same demonic outfit in his possession. A portion of the drugs was made into packages.

CARRIED DRUG SUPPLY.

Ernest Brock, who gave his address as 710 Crimston avenue, was arrested last night on a charge of vagrancy by Detectives Twigg and Young on York street. When searched at Agnes street police station, Brock had a large quantity of heroin and morphine and a hypodermic outfit in his possession. A portion of the drugs was made into packages.
