LOCAL NEWS
ST. JOHN IS TO HAVE ONE BATTALION
 Hon. Mr. Hazen Says so Definitely - Not Sure Which, But Thinks it Will be 64th
 The definite assurance that one battalion of the overseas force will be quartered in St. John for the winter was given by Hon. J. D. Hazen. The statement was made by a delegation from the Board of Trade who waited on the minister to ask regarding the present prospects.
 Mr. Hazen could not say which battalion would come to St. John, but it was his impression that it would be the 64th. He expected to learn soon what the arrangements will be.
 Regarding the other battalion, Mr. Hazen could say that half of it will winter in Fredericton, one company in Sussex and the other in Woodstock. Two battalions of infantry are expected to spend the winter in Halifax.

PRESENTATION
 Members of the Sunshine Club of Callum Lodge, No. 86, L. O. B. A., called at the home of Mrs. Herbert Johnston, 94 Durban street, on Wednesday evening, and on behalf of the club, Mrs. Robert Baird presented to her an emblem of the society and another small token. Refreshments were served and all had a pleasant evening, which ended with God Save the King. Mrs. Johnston and family are to leave soon for Collins.

L. F. ARCHIBALD AND MISS EDITH COCHRANE WED.
 Are Married at Home of Bride's Sister in Tyngsboro, Mass.
 A wedding of much interest to many friends in St. John took place on Wednesday, October 13, at 4.30 o'clock p. m., when L. Franklin Archibald and Miss Edith H. Cochran, both of this city, were united in marriage at the home of Mrs. Wallace P. Butterfield, sister of the bride, in Tyngsboro, Mass. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Craig in the presence of immediate members of both families.
 After the ceremony a wedding supper was served and Mr. and Mrs. Archibald left on the 8.15 train for Boston and later proceeded to the White Mountains. Before returning to St. John they will visit friends in Nova Scotia, and on their return will make their home at 17 Orange street. Both are prominent in musical circles. Miss Cochran having officiated as organist and Mr. Archibald as leading bass in the choir of St. David's church for several years. They will have the best wishes of a host of friends for their future happiness.

BODY OF MRS. WM. FALLIS BROUGHT TO ST. JOHN FOR BURIAL
 The death of Mrs. William Fallis took place in Montreal on Tuesday. She was in the 64th year of her age, and is survived by her husband, one son, Sgt. J. A. Fallis, a member of the Canadian forces; two brothers, H. E. Howard, of St. John, and J. G. of Malden, Mass., and one sister, Mrs. Robert Gilliland of this city. Mrs. Fallis formerly resided here. Her body was brought here this morning, accompanied by her husband and son. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Gilliland, 28 Peters street.
ROXBOROUGH LODGE OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY
 The fifteenth anniversary of Roxborough Lodge, No. 22, L. O. B. A., was celebrated last evening at a gathering which completely filled the P. A. P. B. hall, Guilford street, West St. John. The worthy Mistress, Mrs. Joseph Taylor, presided. An interesting feature of the gathering was the large number of ladies, active members of the Soldiers' Comforts Association, who brought their knitting with them. An enjoyable programme was given, refreshments were served and dancing indulged in, and the national anthem marked the close of the evening. The programme was as follows:- Solo, Mrs. Duff; recitation, Mrs. Galbraith; address, R. K. A. Anderson; dialogue by four ladies of the lodge; recitation, Miss Rolston; reading, Miss B. Galbraith; address, E. P. Tippet; reading, Mr. Stratton; solo, Mrs. Boone; reading, Mr. Murray; solo, Mrs. Hamilton; recitation, Miss Mallory.

MRS. GEORGE M. TAYLOR FORMERLY OF ST. JOHN DIES IN VANCOUVER
 News of the death of a former St. John resident, Mrs. George M. Taylor of Vancouver, was received here today. Her death took place there at an early hour this morning. Mrs. Taylor had resided in Vancouver for about thirty years, but kept in touch with her friends in the east, and was here on a visit four years ago.
 The first intimation of her illness was received by mail yesterday when relatives were told that Mrs. Taylor had undergone an operation, and that her condition was still critical. The news that she had passed away followed today.
 Mrs. Taylor is survived by her husband, Mr. George M. Taylor, one brother, Robert M. Bartsch, with the S. Hayward Company here, and three sisters, Miss Bertha of Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. John Crease of Medford, Mass., and Mrs. Allan N. Nixon of St. John.

MARTIN ARMSTRONG DEAD AT AGE OF 88
 At the advanced age of eighty-eight years, Martin Armstrong, a familiar figure in the city since he was quite a young man, passed away yesterday afternoon following a short illness. He was a native of Donegal, Ireland, but came to this country in his youthful years and was for some time in the early seventies engaged in the dry goods business with his brother, the late John Armstrong, at the corner of Church and Prince William street.
 He continued with him as assistant for some time until he started in business on the opposite corner of the street for himself, likewise conducting a dry goods store. He was widely known about St. John. Before the fire of '77 business fell off and he was compelled to abandon the store. In the early eighties he became a member of the Salvation Army and continued one of its most faithful adherents. He was liked by those with whom he did business as he went about selling magazines, books, stationery and other articles, wearing the army uniform. The funeral will be held tomorrow from the residence of his brother, Samuel Armstrong, Loch Lomond road.

TRAIN CREW FREE OF BLAME
 Moncton, N. B., Oct. 15 - The coroner's jury, empaneled to enquire into the death of Brakenham William Robinson, killed at Beaver Brook by being struck by the Maritime Express, found that no blame could be attached to the train crew.
 The exhibition of the Moncton and Fox Creek Agricultural Society was brought to a close last night.

"Taking Profits"
 There, Mr. Retailer, is a well known stock market phrase that has a meaning for you!
 The speculator or investor who knows how and when to "Take Profits" gets rich.
 Mr. Retailer, when the manufacturer of a well known article goes to the expense of advertising that article in this newspaper it is time for you to "take profits".
 Get the benefit and the sales by linking your store window to that newspaper advertising.
 Show the goods while they are being advertised.
 "Taking the Profits" will be a matter of course.
