OFFICIAL ORDERS PETER SMITH FREED ON TICKET OF LEAVE

Message Sent From Ottawa
After Review of Case
by Cabinet

SENTENCED TO FINE
AND IMPRISONMENT

Drury's Ex-Aid Given Term and Assessed $100,000
by Courts

Canadian Press Despatch.

OTTAWA, May 30.—Release on ticket-of-leave has been granted to Peter Smith, former Provincial Treasurer of Ontario, now confined in Portsmouth Penitentiary. A telegram provides for the release of Peter Smith forthwith, was sent tonight by the Under-Secretary of State. The case has been under review by the cabinet.

Peter Smith was convicted and sentenced on Oct. 24, 1924, to three years in Portsmouth Penitentiary, Kingston, on charges of conspiring to defraud the Province of Ontario in connection with the purchase of bonds when he was provincial treasurer. He is 49 years of age, was born at Stratford, Ont., and has farmed most of his life. He was prominent in municipal affairs in Dundas Township when he was elected U. F. O. member in the general provincial election of 1919. He was appointed provincial treasurer on Nov. 15, 1920, and was ousted from office at the fall of the U. F. O. government of Premier Drury in the general election of June 23, 1923.

ARRESTED IN 1924

Mr. Smith was arrested on April 24, 1924, at the Ontario Parliament Buildings in Toronto shortly after his refusal to give evidence before the public accounts committee of the Ontario Legislature which was then inquiring into provincial bond transactions. Bail of $100,000 was set and Mr. Smith came up for trial on Oct. 20, 1924, with Mr. Jarvis. The hearing lasted four days. Chief Justice Meredith sentenced Mr. Smith to three years in the penitentiary and Amelius Jarvis, who was tried jointly with him, to six months at the jail farm and imposed a joint fine of $600,000. They were to remain in custody until the money was paid. Later this fine was reduced by the Appeal Court to $200,000 for Mr. Jarvis, which he paid and is now seeking to have returned, and $100,000 for Mr. Smith. The latter's fine was to be paid at the termination of his sentence or else he would have to serve an additional five years.

An appeal to the Supreme Court by Messrs. Jarvis and Smith was dismissed. During Mr. Smith's incarceration in Portsmouth there have been frequent rumors that he was suffering from an illness. He has served about half of his three year term.

SUCCESS ATTENDS NORTH END BRIDGE

Seventy-five Tables at Event
Saturday Conducted By
C. W. L.

Admirably arranged and very largely patronized was the afternoon bridge and tea held on Saturday afternoon in St. Peter's church hall, under the auspices of the Saint John north end sub-division of the Catholic Women's League. It was an unqualified success, raising effort of the society. There were 75 tables of card players and many tea guests also.

Mrs. H. S. Clarke was the general convenor and each member of the society had some part in carrying through the entertainment so successfully. Miss Minnie Durrieck, president, Mrs. J. D. James and Mrs. Clarke were the reception committee and welcomed the many patrons. The tickets were in charge of Miss Alice Phillips. Those who poured tea and coffee were Mrs. M. A. Mullin and Mrs. Alice Phillips. The table, over which they presided, was exceedingly pretty with its charming decorations. A silver basket in the centre was filled with pink carnations and forget-me-nots and was tied with a bow of pink tulle. Pink candles in single silver candlesticks and in two large silver candelabra carried out the pleasing scheme of decoration most effectively. Those who assisted by replenishing were Mrs. Charles Rush and Mrs. George McCuskey.

There were very handsome prizes for the winners at cards and there was also a very nice lucky chair prize which was won by Miss Evelyn Quinn. The fortunate prize winners at cards were as follows: Bridge, first, Miss Edith Fitzgerald, and second, Mrs. E. J. Henneberry; forty-fives, first, Mrs. Rose Allen, and second, Miss Bertha Logie. During the afternoon a delightful musical program added much to the enjoyment of the occasion. Mrs. M. A. Quinn was the accompanist and vocal solos were contributed by Mrs. E. J. Cronin and Miss Margaret McCarthy.

CONTINUES LECTURES.

Rev. James Cloran, C. S. S. R., delivered the second last in the series of his addresses on Character Building last evening in St. Peter's parish hall when he spoke of one phase of moral development. Father Cloran last night dealt with the will as governing all other faculties. He will give the closing lecture of the series next Sunday night. The series has attracted much interest and each lecture has been very largely attended.

SHOOTING DOG.

At the request of the owner, William G. Blumher, of High street, Police Constable Blackwell on Saturday shot a dog belonging to him that was of no further use.

$15,000 AND A JOB IN THE MOVIES

Teddy Winslow, 18, won a beauty contest in Los Angeles. More than a hundred girls competed. And the prize was $15,000 in cash and a movie contract.

Polish Revolt Effects Seen at Halifax

HALIFAX, May 30.—The revolution led by Marshal Pilsudski in Poland robbed the Baltic-American liner Lituanian of a large share of her passenger list. It was reported this morning from Danzig and Copenhagen. A great many bookings for the Lituanian were cancelled because the railway service had been demonized by the revolution and the passengers could not reach the port. The Lituanian sailed for New York.

A. W. PETCH OWNER OF 2 OLD VOLUMES

One is "The Whole Duty of Man," Published in 1684

Another rare volume owned in Saint John is a first edition copy of "The Whole Duty of Man," the property of A. W. Petch, 39 Peters street. It has been in his family for more than 70 years. This book was published in London in 1684. Editions of 100 years later date have become very valuable and are eagerly sought by collectors and are eagerly sold by dealers. Mr. Petch's copy is believed to be worth a considerable sum of money. Since the interest in old books in Saint John has been so keenly aroused recently Mr. Petch has decided to present this old volume as one of the prizes in the Natural History Society or to some similar public organization in order that it may be carefully preserved and be accessible to all who wish to examine it and read it.

"WHOLE DUTY OF MAN." The copy of "The Whole Duty of Man" is a weighty volume, measuring 14 1/2 inches by 9 inches and has a strong leather binding. While the front page is slightly frayed at the edges the rest of the book is in a marvellously good state of preservation. The paper has not discolored with age and is as white and strong as it ever was. The lettering is very clean cut and perfect in its alignment. The type used is as old as the fly-leaf of the book which would be termed 12-point type today. Initial lettering on some of the pages are very beautiful pieces of craftsmanship. There is a wood cut showing Moses with veiled face giving the ten commandments to the people of Israel. The name Mrs. Mary Holford is written in ink on the wood cut and the ink has eaten a hole in the paper in one place but is still an intense black. At what date the name was written is not known. Mr. Petch's first knowledge of the book is that it was owned by his stepfather, A. A. Coughlan, who has written on the fly-leaf of the book his statement that he was born at Habitant, N. S., in 1813, and was on a whaling voyage in the South Pacific ocean at that time, May 24, 1846. The second book, Matthew Pilkington's "Evangelical History and Harmonies," is somewhat smaller than "The Whole Duty of Man," being 13 1/2 inches by 8 1/2 inches. It also is strongly bound and is in an even better perfect state of preservation. It is a less rare book than the other but can boast of a hoary old age.

Is Now On Staff Of Biltmore Hotel

Frank B. Doherty, who was for some years chief clerk in the old Dufferin Hotel in Saint John, has sent to a local friend a card and a booklet which is entitled, "The Official Metropolitan Guide" and is used by the Hotelmen's Association of New York. Mr. Doherty is now one of the rooming clerks in the front office of the Biltmore Hotel, having joined the staff last fall. He reports meeting an occasional Saint John man and some of the old Dufferin's former out-of-town guests and says on these occasions the old Dufferin days are very pleasantly recalled.

WHITE STAR LINE TO DROP PORTLAND

Report Indicates Vessels
Will Soon Be Using
Halifax

HALIFAX, N. S., May 30.—The Morning Chronicle Saturday published the following: "It is the intention of the White Star Line to give up Portland, and you may infer what you will as the significance of that for the port of Halifax," was the statement made to the Morning Chronicle from an authoritative source in the trans-Atlantic steamship world. Elaborating upon it, this official explained that it was only a matter of time before the ships of the White Star Line, heretofore using Portland, will be coming to Halifax, not only as a port of call, as now, but for turning.

So light in weight you can scarcely feel them on the head, yet so skillfully fashioned that they are snug as well as comfortable. A good assortment of Sport Hats now in our Millinery Salon.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Seven persons lost their lives tonight in a fire which destroyed the old Taft Hotel in Brooklyn.

Four children were burned to death when their father, Thomas Hughes, a subway dispatcher, failed to reach them after throwing his two other children from the window of their hotel room to persons in the street who caught them safely.

Mrs. Thomas Hughes, mother of the children and an aged widow known as Mrs. Smith, and J. F. Knowlton, 65, were also burned to death. The fire started in a paintshop at the rear of the hotel, and quickly spread to the hotel which was a wooden structure. The hotel burned like tinder and the first and second stories were a mass of flames when firemen arrived on the scene.

The Hughes family, in their rooms on the second floor, were trapped while sleeping. Hughes, after throwing his youngest children, twins, to the street made a vain attempt to reach the rooms in which his wife and the others were sleeping. He saved himself by jumping from a window.

Miss A. E. DeBlois, who has been working in the Anglican mission at Kananga, India, as a teacher in the mission school for about 12 years and is now on furlough in Canada, is expected in the city tomorrow and will be the guest of Mrs. James P. Robertson, president of the Fredericton Diocesan W. A. C. Miss DeBlois is a native of Prince Edward Island. Her present furlough is nearly ended and she expects to return in July to return to the mission field.

While in Saint John she will address a special meeting of women in the Church of England Institute in the afternoon.

Winter Port Issue Still Undecided

MONTREAL, May 31.—Questioned with regard to the report in a Halifax paper that the White Star line intended abandoning Portland as their Western terminus and indicating that the Maine seaport would be superseded by Halifax, Major P. A. Curry, Canadian manager of that company says that no thought had as yet been given to the matter. Consideration of the question of winter traffic would not be given until August.

The Real Cause Of Constipation Is A Bad Liver

Mrs. Jean Bochar, Nelson, B.C., writes: "For many years I have been troubled with my liver, and suffered terribly with constipation."

I HEARD ABOUT Milburn's LAXA-LIVER PILLS

and have been greatly improved since I started to take them.

I cannot recommend them too highly to any one who is troubled with their liver."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are not a new and untried remedy. They have been on the market for the past 32 years; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Deaths

Clifford Godfrey

Clifford Godfrey died suddenly at his home in Lancaster on Saturday evening. He was 21 years of age and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Godfrey, of West Saint John. He received an injury in an accident about six years ago and had never fully recovered.

On Saturday night he had taken tea with his sister, Mrs. Frank Arthur, at her home and had apparently been in his normal health but during the night he was fatally stricken at his home and passed away shortly after midnight. Medical aid was called but before the doctor arrived he had died.

He is survived by four sisters and three brothers. The sisters are Mrs. G. Fred Noble, of South Bay, Mrs. Frank Arthur, of Lancaster; Miss Harriet, at home, and Miss Lillian, of London, Ont. The brothers are Charles what can be done in Halifax, and as a result of that you may expect increased interest on the part of the White Star Line."

James Alston

James Alston, one of the most highly respected of the older residents of West Saint John, died on Saturday morning at the residence of his son, George Alston, 186 Queen street, West. He will be sincerely mourned by a wide circle of friends. Mr. Alston was a carpenter by trade and very skillful. For many years he was a valued city employee. Mr. Alston was one of the oldest attendants of the West Side Kirk and a devout member of that congregation. His wife died about 18 months previously and his son, George, with whom he resided, is the only surviving near relative.

Miss Mary Alder

YARMOUTH, May 30.—The death of Miss Mary J. Alder took place at her home, Cumberland street, this

R. Godfrey, William B. and Harvey Godfrey, all at home. The funeral service will take place this (Monday) afternoon at 3.30 from the home of his sister, Mrs. Frank Arthur, 8 Havlock street, Lancaster, West End.

The service will be conducted by Rev. W. McN. Matthews and interment will be in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Miss Alder was a member of Zion United Baptist church. She was a member of Opal Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F.

Miss Alder was 61 years of age and is survived by her sister, Miss Nellie Alder, who resided with her, and her niece, Mrs. C. K. Curry, of the Western Union Telegraph offices in Yarmouth.

The funeral will take place from her home on Saturday afternoon and will be conducted by Rev. E. H. Cochran, pastor of Zion church.

WEST SIDE FIRE.

The West Side fire department was called out on Saturday morning by an alarm from Box 43 for a fire in John O'Brien's house at 175 Prince street. Considerable damage was caused.

BEAT TORONTO

TORONTO, May 30.—England's touring soccer eleven extended their success to three victories over Canadian teams by defeating an all-star Toronto team at Uster Stadium Saturday by the decisive score of six goals to nothing.

LAD WAS LOST.

Garth Cosman, aged four years, and residing at No. 2 Carmarthen street, was found by a woman, wandering about Sydney street on Saturday afternoon and was taken to police headquarters. The youngster was later called for by his mother and taken to his home.

Funerals

George McKiel

Funeral service for the late George McKiel, of Victoria, Vancouver Island, was held on May 11 at Hayward, B. C. Funeral was conducted by Rev. Dr. Campbell. Mr. McKiel was the youngest son of the late W. B. McKiel, of Greenwich, N. B. He is survived by two brothers, Albert, of South Haven, Michigan; Edward, of Greenwich, and one sister, Mrs. C. F. Hoban, of Westfield, N. B.

Mrs. Albert Dunlop

The funeral of Mrs. Albert Dunlop was held Saturday afternoon from the residence of her sister, Mrs. William Goldsworthy, 61 Richmond street. Service was conducted at 2.30 by Rev. W. M. Townsend and interment took place in Cedar Hill.

LAD WAS LOST.

Garth Cosman, aged four years, and residing at No. 2 Carmarthen street, was found by a woman, wandering about Sydney street on Saturday afternoon and was taken to police headquarters. The youngster was later called for by his mother and taken to his home.

New Sport Apparel and Equipment For Every Kind of Game

The time of sports has come again and to enter into the spirit of the game the participants must have the correct garb—Your tennis, for instance, will be a better game if played in one of the new Two-piece Frocks with full pleated skirt.

Then there is the hike—none will deny that it is best enjoyed when one wears knockabout knickers. Golf, motoring and other outdoor activities also demand special apparel. We can show you everything that is new and correct.

Sport Hats

The popular sport hat of today is the kind you "pull on and forget about it" and it is the rule which these dashing little models in feather weight felt and straw obey—They come in gay summery colors with nothing but a crease, a tailored bow or a gleaming buckle for adornment.

So light in weight you can scarcely feel them on the head, yet so skillfully fashioned that they are snug as well as comfortable. A good assortment of Sport Hats now in our Millinery Salon.
