A Young Champion.

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Helen Wills, a fifteen-year-old girl of Berkeley, Cal., who wears short dresses and lets her hair drop in a couple of pig-tails, became the junior tennis champion of the United States yesterday.

She just blushed and smiled her thanks when a group of young girls and grown-ups surrounded her as she left the courts where she won the national title by defeating Miss Virginia Carpenter, sixteen years of age, of Philadelphia, 6-3, 6-3.

Possible Entry.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 19.—G. H. Grosvenor, editor of the National Geographic Magazine, New York, arrived here last night from Baddeck, C. B., on board his yacht Esie. He expects to race the Esie in the Coronation Cup races to be held here under the auspices of the Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Squadron next week.

New World's Record.

Indianapolis, Aug. 19.—A new world's record for women of 4.18 3-5 for 300 yards in a 110-yard open water course was established here yesterday by Miss Ethelble Hiebtrey of New York in winning the 440 yards national free style A. A. U. swimming championship. The time was 6.30. Miss Hiebtrey's time for 300 yards has been bettered, it was announced, but not under record-making conditions.

Miss Lenglen Enters.

Boston, Aug. 19.—Receipt of the formal entry of Suzanne Lenglen, French tennis star, for the national mixed doubles championship tournament next week was announced yesterday by Secretary Bishop of the Longwood Cricket Club. She will be paired with Wm. M. Johnson of California.
