Adventures Of The Twins

THE BLACK RACE HORSE'S WISH.

"Have you heard any more wishes lately?" the Fairy Queen asked the Twins.

"Yes," said Nancy. "We heard a horse wish that he was an automobile."

"The idea!" said the Fairy Queen. "As though a horse would ever so much like. Where does this horse live?"

"He belongs to Mr. O'Neil and his name is Frank. He's very fast—he's a race horse."

"A very dangerous person to be an automobile," said the Fairy Queen, shaking her head. "But come along. We'll hunt him up and see what we can do."

Two Spot, the big blue velvet butterfly, flew off with the three of them to the place where Frank was.

He was out in a field eating grass. "What's all this about being an automobile?" asked the Queen.

"Who's Mr. O'Neil?" whinnied Frank.

"Yes," said Nick. "Didn't you say you wanted to be one? I heard you."

"Sure," said the horse. "Every horse wishes that, especially a race horse. How do you suppose I feel when I'm out on the road to let everything pass me?"

"They go by—zip—zip—like bullets out of a gun. It's most mortifying."

"No doubt," said the Fairy Queen. "But most dangerous, too. If you feel that way now—you'd still feel that way if you were changed into an automobile. You would still want to race everything on the road."

"No—honest—cross my heart, I wouldn't," whinnied the horse.

"Then you may have your wish," said the Fairy Queen, and waving her wand a remarkable thing took place.

The black horse was nowhere to be seen. Instead, a fine new black automobile was standing where the horse had been, right beside the fence.

With a honk, honk that sounded something like a whinny it rolled out of the gate onto the road.

Mr. O'Neil came out and seemed surprised.

WORN OUT MEN AND WOMEN SOON REGAIN STRENGTH

The nervous system is the vital force of your body; the force that gives energy to every organ and every muscle. So great is the organ of the nerves that a tremendous shock, such as fear, may cause death.

A lesser nerve shock will pale the cheeks, make the knees tremble, cause the heart to beat wildly or almost paralyze breathing. To keep our vitality and strength we must nourish the nervous system. When we restore lost nerve power we quickly regain lost strength!

Wincarnis gives to the nerves the very elements they must have to be nourished back to energy. For fifty years this nerve restorative has reinvigorated those who were weak, thin, pale and so discouraged that life seemed to hold no real happiness.

If you need more nerve power go to your druggist today and begin the safe Wincarnis treatment. A sixteen ounce bottle, which is a fourteen day Wincarnis treatment, is sold by all leading druggists for $1.50. Wincarnis is so effective that only three table-spoonsful a day need be taken.

HER TONGUE WAS COATED HAD BAD TASTE IN MOUTH

Miss Pearl L. Zinck, Barrs Corner, N. S., writes: "I was awfully troubled with my liver, and used to get such dizzy spells I would have to sit down while I was doing my work. In the morning, when I used to get up, my tongue was coated and I had a bad taste in my mouth and often times, throughout the day, I was troubled with pains in my stomach. I suffered in this way until a friend of mine who had used your
