ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1890.

SEVENTY YEARS OLD.

Our most gracious sovereign, Queen Victoria, will be seventy years of age to-morrow, and will have attained her limit of three score years and ten mentioned by the Psalmist, an age rarely reached by any of the monarchs of England.

Queen Victoria will have been fifty-two years on the throne on the 20th of June, so that only Henry the Third and George the Third reigned longer than she has done.

THE CARNIVAL. The request of the finance committee of the summer carnival to the Common Council for financial assistance, was not dealt with yesterday.

THE GLOBE IS AFRAID. The profound disgust which has been excited within the ranks of our party by the cowardly conduct of the Globe has caused that journal to take a new departure with reference to the conduct of the Provincial government.
