Verses in my Old Age. BY BARRY CORNWALL.

Come from the Ends of the World. Wind of the air or sky, Wherever the thunder is hurled, Wherever the Lightnings fly ! Come, with the bird on your bosom (Linnet or lark that soars.)

And the Sun from Southern shores I hate the snake Winter that croopeth And poisons the buds of May : I shout to the Sun that sleepeth; And pray him awake to-day, For the world is in want of his power, To vanquish the rebel storm :

All wait for his golden hour,

Man, and beast, and worm.

Come with the sweet Spring blossom

Not only the seasons, failing But Age droops onward, sailing And is lost in the seas unknown. No wisdom redeemeth his sorrow, For thought and strength are fled : No hope enlightens to-morrow, And the Past (so loved) is dead !
