BAY ROBERTS, FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1914.

The Electric Lights Turned On IN BAY ROBERTS

Another step in the forward march of Bay Roberts was witnessed on Monday evening, May 11th, when the United Towns Electrical Co. turned on the electric current here for the first time and gave electric light to the Reid Nfld. Co. railway station, two street lights situated on the Cross Roads and the staff house of the Western Union Telegraph Co.

Messrs. Murphy and Duff, Directors of the United Towns Electrical Co., were in town to witness the inauguration of the service, and numbers of our townspeople also turned out to witness the event. The street lights were very bright, and the lights in the staff house, shining brilliantly from so many windows, looked very well, indeed. And so, in spite of the conservatism and the grudging attitude of some people, Bay Roberts is making progress, and there is no person more delighted and pleased than we ourselves.

The Guardian has ever advocated local improvements, and will continue so to do. We believe the time is ripe for an advance all along the line, and now that our people are getting more 'light' on the matter, they should measure up to their light and walk accordingly.

Other places were lighted by electricity during the week, viz: Messrs. D. G. Fraser's and Wm. Parsons' shops.

Now that our people are assured by the Company that the rates for light will be the same as the rates in force in Hr. Grace and Carbonear we expect that a number of houses and shops will be wired within the next few weeks.

A matter that should engage our attention is the securing of an annual grant from the Government out of the general revenue for street lighting purposes. St. John's receives a grant, why not Bay Roberts?

Letter from Vancouver

(Editor the Guardian).

Vancouver, B. C.,
April 19, 1914.

Dear Sir,—It is with sincere regret that we read of the awful disaster which has overtaken the crew of the S. S. Newfoundland while engaged in that dangerous calling, the seal-fishing. No doubt much will be said of them and how they stood by each other like heroes to the very last. I feel sure that when I say we tender our sincere sympathy to the bereaved loved ones I am expressing the heart felt sentiments of all the Newfoundlanders in the City of Vancouver.

I am enclosing herewith a clipping from the 'Vancouver Daily

Province. I think it a very fitting tribute to the bravery and heroism of those who suffered and died on the icefloes on that awful night. With regard to the question asked in the last sentence, 'Shall we be laggard with such an example before us?' I may say that the Newfoundlanders in Vancouver are raising a fund for the relief of those who will be deprived of their 'bread-winners', and already over seven thousand dollars have been realized. At a concert given to-day by the 'Daily Province', aided by the Orpheum Theatre, and City Band and other musicians, the sum of $840 (eight hundred and forty dollars) was realized, which brings the fund close to eight thousand dollars. So we say to Newfoundlanders everywhere, 'Shall we be laggard in this worthy cause?' Sincerely yours,
MALCOLM MERCER.

[The clipping, above referred to, will appear in our next issue.—Editor.]

Confirmation

On Friday, 8th May, the Bishop of Newfoundland performed the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation in St. Matthew's Church, Bay Roberts. The Rev. H. L. Pike acted as Chaplain and carried the Pastoral Staff. The service began with the Hymn: 'My God, accept my heart this day, And make it always Thine, That I from Thee no more may stray, No more from Thee decline.'

After the reading of the preface by the Rector, the candidates responded to the Bishop's question and renewed their Baptismal Vows. Each one then knelt in succession before the Bishop who, during the impressive ceremony of the laying on of hands, prayed for each separately.

'Defend, O Lord, this Thy child with Thy heavenly grace, that he may continue Thine forever, and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more, until he come into Thy everlasting Kingdom. Amen.'

When all had been confirmed, Hymn 271 was sung: 'O Jesus, I have promised To serve Thee to the end; Be thou forever near me, My Master and my Friend; I shall not fear the battle If Thou art by my side, Nor wander from the pathway If Thou wilt be my Guide.'

Then followed the Lord Bishop's address. In very beautiful yet simple language he reminded the newly confirmed what they had done in renewing the vows of their Baptism, and what they had received in the sevenfold gift of the Holy Ghost to enable them to keep their promise.

After wise words of counsel and warning to the young, the Bishop addressed the parents, urging them to help and encourage their children in their spiritual life. When confirmed the young should go on to Holy Communion, and the parents should go with them. What a beautiful sight if father, mother and child knelt together at the Altar rail to partake of the Bread of Life.

Few of the very large congregation who were privileged to be present in St. Matthew's Church will readily forget the inspiring service and the fervent eloquence of the Bishop's address.

When the Bishop had concluded, Hymn 280 followed: 'Thine for ever! God of love; Hear us from Thy Throne above, Thine for ever may we be Here and in Eternity.'

Notwithstanding the length of the service, the congregation gave the most earnest attention. All felt that it was good to be there, and as the last hymn was sung it seemed to express the Faith and Hope of the Pilgrim, and the Love of God: 'Through the night of doubt and sorrow Onward goes the pilgrim band, Singing songs of expectation, Marching to the Promised Land.'

Offsetting Competition

The thing for the merchants of this community to do in their own interests is to advertise faithfully, and to make their printed announcements interesting and helpful to those whose trade and favor are desired.

The serious competitors of the retailers of this community are the big stores of the big cities—those that send out catalogues and have mail-order departments.

The poorest way to offset this competition is for our local merchants to remain silent. For them not to 'speak up' is to give the mail-order houses a better chance to get business from this community.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC

When you send your money out of this community, you enrich the great shops and impoverish this community. Strengthen—not weaken—the merchants of this community. It will all be returned to you in the form of better service and better values.
