The first boat to reach Dawson last spring was the Flora. The Ora was the last boat to come up the river this fall, with the Flora just ahead of her. The tonnage this year is more than treble that of last year, and next year we look for even a more prosperous

Mr. Potts reports that the telegraph line between White Horse and Tanana has now been completed. Another passenger on the Dolphin was Capt. Newcombe, of the steamer Cutch, which as is known, has been floated off the rocks, and is being made ready to come south. The Captain only remained a short time in Victoria before proceeding to Vancouver,
