-------------	--------------

The following Past Chancellors attended as representatives of their respective Lodges:

New Brunswick Lodge, No. 1.—Jacob S. Brown, Chas. Nevins.
Union Lodge, No. 2.—Thos. S. Adams, John R. Armstrong.
Westmorland Lodge, No. 3.—Murray Fleming, George Craig.
Frontier Lodge, No. 4.—W. C. Hazen Grimmer, George J. Clarke.
Cumberland Lodge, No. 5.—C. A. Lowe, George Dunn.

After examining the certificates of the Past Chancellors, Deputy Supreme Chancellor Moulson proceeded to institute the Grand Lodge by

1st. Reading the petition of the Past Chancellors to the Supreme Chancellor.

2nd. Reading the Supreme Chancellor's reply granting their request.

3rd. Reading the commission of the Supreme Chancellor authorizing the Deputy Supreme Chancellor to institute the Grand Lodge, after which the Past Chancellors retired from the lodge room. The Deputy Supreme Chancellor then obligated several Past Chancellors, after which they assisted him in conferring the Grand Lodge rank upon the Past Chancellors previously named. After conferring the rank nominations were received for the Grand Lodge officers.

PAST GRAND CHANCELLOR.

John R. Armstrong of Union Lodge, No. 2, being the only nominee he was declared elected.
