tress to which the human family are subject, is caused by corrupt, stagnant matter having lodged in various parts of the body, therefore, it would be of no use to speak of the various pains, sickness or distress, or in what part of the body, or how severe the various afflictions that you may undergo; because the more sickness or distress is occasioned by the more corruption or impurity within, and the only inquiry should be, is the person sick? But it should be borne in mind by those desiring to be restored to health, that they should take them in sufficient quantities to operate briskly by the morning. The usual dose is from two to four but they must be taken in sufficient quantities to operate two or three times on the bowels. Very delicate persons should begin with two, and increase as the nature of the case may require. Those of more robust or costive habits, may begin with three and increase to six, or even more, if it should be found necessary, and they will effect a sufficiently happy change to guide the patient in their future use. but in case of violent pains in any part of the body the medicine must be taken in large doses every night and morning, and oftener if the sufferings are great. There is not an ache or pain that the body is subject to, but will yield to their powerful influence, and they show that it is by drawing off the ill-humors, and constant purging, that will cleanse and purify the blood, and in a mild and gentle way drive away disease of every kind, (and restore the system to a state of sound and perfect health.
