Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

FANCY SALE at Masonic Hall to-day. I. O. G. T.—The Grand Lodge, of I. O. G. T., will assemble at Masonic Hall on the 25th inst.

MILL PROPERTY FOR SALE.—The property known as the Lamont Mill is offered for sale.

Rain fell all Tuesday afternoon and yesterday and the downpour continues as we go to press.

ABOUT $1,700 was the amount realized by the I. O. G. T. Bazaar at Masonic Hall. It was one of the best managed affairs of the kind ever held.

SALMON are low in price in New York—bringing only 15 and 16 cts. The catch is good and our dealers are freighting most of the fish.

STRAWBERRIES AND CREAM at Masonic Hall to-day.

REGATTA MEETING.—On Tuesday afternoon next the Regatta Steewards are to meet at the Secretary's office, Newcastle, for the purpose of fixing the time and deciding upon the program of this year's Miramichi Annual Regatta.

TELEGRAPHIC.—Mr. Wm. Wynn, who has the Government contract for setting up the poles for the telegraph line between Chatham and Miramichi, has sub-let to Mr. Wm. Bridges. Mr. Peter Loggie has been appointed Government Inspector of the line.

BAZAAR.—Don't miss the Bazaar at Masonic Hall to-day.

THE 72ND BATTALION, looking trim and soldier-like, returned home from Camp Shediac on Saturday last. The men enjoyed their camp experiences very much and express themselves well-pleased with their pay, rations and general treatment.

Who is the most popular of the four County representatives in the Local Legislature?—the question to be decided by ballot at the St. Andrew's Bazaar. Ballots are to be had at the Masonic Hall—six for 25 cts., 50 for $1 and 150 for $3.00.

ROCKWOOD PICNIC.—A picnic is to be held to-day at Rockwood, near the proceeds of which will be added to the fund for building a Roman Catholic Presbytery at that place. The preparations being made for the event indicate that it will be an enjoyable one.

GO TO REHEARSE.—The Strawberry Feast and Fancy Sale at Reiback, referred to last week, is more fully advertised in this week's ADVANCE. The advance is to make an excursion trip in connection with the affair, which promises to be one of the most attractive events of the season.

NOBLESSE.—What next? The Municipal Council has made an attempt to induce people in the County to send their children to the school at the expense of the County. We feel that it is not fair to make itself noticeable by interfering with parents entirely beyond its control.

MATTERS CHANGED.—Mr. Fred W. Bland, senior railway mail clerk, has been appointed chief railway mail clerk, and entered on his new duties to-day. Mr. Whitehead, formerly postmaster, has been appointed to the office. Walter Starkey, mail carrier on the Western train, succeeds Mr. Bland.

THE WORLD is again out in its most angry mood—calling the editor of the ADVANCE a scoundrel. We said the statement that Mr. Stewart had bought that paper from the Company was untrue. Our authority for our contradiction was one of the owners of the paper and his word is quite as good as that of the writer who disposes its columns with the language referred to.

METHEONAL.—The Summer's Journal contains the following interesting notice in reference to a young lady well known on the Miramichi:—"Rev. Thomas Pierce, of Fredericton, N. B., and Miss Eliza J. Duff, one of Sumner's attractive young ladies, were married yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock, in the Methodist church by Rev. John Burwash, assisted by Rev. S. Allen. After the imposing ceremony was over and breakfast partaken of at the residence of the bride's father, the happy couple took passage on the good steamer "Princess of Wales," amid the happy congratulations of many friends."

A GREAT BAZAAR.—The preparations being made for the R. C. Bazaar at the Chatham Skating Rink—to commence on "today next"—warrant the belief that it will be second to none ever held on the Miramichi. The building is admirably adapted for the purpose, and the committee have been very successful in procuring many attractive features, which could not be successfully introduced in an ordinary hall. The Bazaar is in aid of the Diocesan debt fund and should be very widely patronized. Railway excursion tickets are to be issued at I. C. R. Stations on Tuesday, to enable visitors to come to Chatham to that day and return the next. The Auditor also is to leave Newcastle every evening during the Bazaar at 8.30, Newcastle time, issuing return tickets at 25c. per trip, Madigan's Band to be on board each evening up and down.

NOT IN CONFIDENCE.—Accidental Whaler's whining letter in the Advocate of this week does not require any reply at our hands, further than to say that its statements were so grossly untrue, that we were obliged to publish it as a warning to us. Besides, he did not send the letter to us in "sacred confidence" or otherwise. He made no "sacred" secret of the authorship of his letters, either—at least one half of the neighborhood in which he lives as the writer thereof. As we said before, he is "too frank."

NEW BUILDING.—Mr. Alex. Robinson is erecting a new two-story building on St. John street, auxiliary to his present carriage manufactory. The building is 25 feet long, 18 feet wide and two and a half stories high. It fronts on both St. John and Main streets. The lower story is divided into two parts. That on the St. John side, front to be used as a show room, the other end as a wood-working shop. The whole of the second floor is to be used as a paint shop and the upper part as a wood-drying and store room. We are glad to see such success of Mr. Robinson's success in his business. His factory, with this new addition, will be a large and very complete one.

"SHELLS OF OCEAN" at the St. Andrew's Bazaar to-day.

PITHECOPUS CANADA. We have received parts 27 and 28 of this valuable work. The part devoted to "Eastern Ontario" is ended and a description of South Eastern Quebec is begun. The engravings are numerous and many of them represent historic places and interesting scenes along the St. Lawrence, or in its vicinity. Issued by the Art Publishing Company, Toronto.

PRIZE PASSES TO CIVIL SERVANTS.—The Minister of Railways has instructed the Chief Engineer and Superintendent of the Intercolonial that in future all civil servants may journey over the I. C. R. at half rate. Of course those officers and employees who have to frequently travel over the road, of official business, will be furnished with passes issued by the heads of the departments, under which they serve.

A SPLENDID ROOFING.—The old tar, paper and gravel roof will soon be a thing of the past, as the fire proof roofing now being introduced by builders becomes known. The Spanghams Fire Proof Roofing Co. is the name given to the article, which is gaining favor very fast, being used on mills, railway shops and dwellings with equal success. We observe that Mr. J. C. Paine of Newcastle is the agent for Northern New Brunswick for the new material and we advise all interested to try it.

PERSONAL.—J. C. Gough, formerly of Northumberland, N. B., now resident at Port Arthur, has been appointed commissioner under the act for the preservation of peace near public works. Rev. Mr. Aitken of St. James' Church, Newcastle, was a passenger by the Poligon which left Miramichi on Saturday last for England. He is to visit friends in Scotland and bring with him, when he returns, his daughter, now being educated in that country. Just before his departure he was visited, at the house, by a number of friends belonging to his congregation, in whose behalf Mr. Youmans presented him with a pair of sovereigns, accompanied by a brief and appropriate address, to which Mr. Aitken made a fitting reply.

MR. FRED C. HOOPY, the Actor and Elocutionist, from New York City, will give select readings, consisting of Patriotic Heroic, Sentimental and Humorous pieces, also imitations of several of our Great Actors, at Masonic Hall, Chatham, on Monday next, 14th inst., and at Newcastle on the 15th, affording a rare opportunity for all to witness an entertainment of this refined character. Mr. Hoopy has received the highest praise from both press and public throughout the United States. The New York Mirror says:—"A large and select audience assembled at Lygon Hall last night to listen to readings by the well-known Actor and Elocutionist, Mr. Fred C. Hoopy. His selections were well chosen and his recitations rendered with his characteristic force and vigor. His recitations were very forcibly rendered, so much so that his voice was frequently hoarse from the force of his utterance. Mr. Hoopy, as a Shakespearean reader, has few superiors, if any, in the front rank of Elocutionists."

DROWNED.—On Dominion Day, while a young man named Alfred Davidson, son of Mr. ALVIN DAVIDSON, was engaged in fishing logs at the South-west point, he fell into the water and immediately sank. In a very short time a number of his comrades were at the spot and a young man named McGregor—followed a pole down some 15 or 16 feet and brought the body up. Although it is said that less than five minutes had elapsed from the time Davidson sank, life was extinct. McGregor was very much excited by his plucky and successful effort. The remains were interred on Thursday at the Presbyterian Church burying ground, Derby. The funeral was very large. The services were conducted by Rev. D. Johnston, at both the house and grave. The deceased was much esteemed in life and deeply regretted in death. The afflicted parents and friends have the sympathy of the whole community.

DANGEROUS LIQUOR PROSECUTION.—A telegram of 14th inst. to the Sun says:—"An unpaid tithing man, who had been convicted for violation of the new Liquor Act, was tried yesterday before Justice Sadler, at the Assizes at Fredericton, resulting in a fine of $200 and costs. Mr. Murray, barrister of Campbellton, for the prosecution; Mr. Thomas, of Moncton, for the defence. The Council made a mistake in this case, on the Inspector of Licenses for this country by Thom. Murphy, convicted to-day for violation of the Liquor Act. Inspector Bissett while sitting in the office of Justice Sadler was asked by Murphy if he intended to prosecute him further. Mr. Bissett said he should do his duty, and if violations were charged on what he considered good evidence he would certainly put the law in force, although Murphy had struck and kicked him in a brutal manner. Of course legal remedy will be had against Murphy. This outrageous act has completely destroyed any feeling of respect which might have existed in Murphy's favor, and raised the just resentment of every respectable person against the perpetrator of the cowardly act."

Five Weeks without Food.—The man David Howell who was found recently in the woods a mile or so from his home on the newly laid off road leading from the Northwest to the Sugary Settlements, is gradually improving, being now able to speak, which he could not do when found. The strange feature of this case is that the unfortunate man managed to exist without nourishment during the five weeks of his wanderings, excepting the water that he found at intervals. The pieces of rabbit found in his pocket had picked up, being part of a rabbit that had been killed and partly devoured by some animal, but says he did not eat any part of it, having tried to start a fire to cook it, but failed. Though partly smothered in his reason he remembers that when he left home he travelled for three days and then all was a blank until two or three days before he was found, when he endeavored to reach his home by crawling along on his hands and knees, this part of his story being corroborated by the appearance of his knees, which look sore and calloused. The theory that he may have obtained food at Hannay's lumber camp near Wild Cat Brook does not turn out to be a correct one as proved by the fact that the camp is locked, and Howell could not enter without breaking the door open, which he did not do. Another theory is that in vicinity lately and the camp is still closed. It is certainly a most remarkable case, and leads one to believe the correctness of the conclusion that Howell must have left his home while suffering from brain fever, which lasted three or four weeks, and that when the fever and delirium were at an end he wandered slowly to find his way home again, getting weaker and weaker every day, until when found, (still moving homeward) he presented the appearance of a living skeleton, so fearfully reduced that the "wagner" he managed to move at all. One of the settlers who has seen him lately says that the living skeleton exhibited in a circus here some time ago was fat when compared with Howell after his five weeks of sickness and hardship in the woods of the Northwest.—Adocate.

Fall Races at Chatham Driving Park.—The Directors of the Chatham Driving Park have already arranged their program of fall races, which is a very attractive one. They have increased the amount of money offered—may be $200, instead of $400 as last fall, and by dispensing with the running race making two trotting races for each afternoon. The dates are Thursday and Friday, Sept. 4th and 5th.

The first day's racing will be a trot for 3 minutes horses for a sum of $100—divided into prizes of $50, $25 and $10—and one for 2:30 horses for a purse of $100—divided into prizes of $75, $25 and $15. On the second day, the opening event will be a trot, open to horses of the 2:30 class, purse $110, divided into prizes of $50, $30 and $10. The meeting will close with a free-fall trot for a purse of $175—$110 to 1st, $45 to 2nd and $30 to 3rd.

Racing will commence at 2:30 each day. All races will be mile heats, best 3 H. H. five to harness. Entries will close with Mr. W. T. Connor, Secretary of the Association at 8 p.m. on Tuesday 2nd Sept. and must be accompanied with ten per cent of the purse in cash. Arrangements are being made for I. C. R. excursion return tickets at one fare from all stations between Truro, St. John, Campbellton and Chatham.

A Small Business.—It will be seen, by the report of the Northumberland Municipal Council, July proceedings, that Councilman Blaisdell, introduced a resolution—concerning the editor of the ADVANCE. The measure of such persons as Mr. Bamford amounts to very little, and anything he may do in Newcastle, is to be considered with an amount of allowance to be granted by the conditions he may suggest to be in. We are informed that when he was introduced by Councilman Freeman he was in the resolution in question he was, in his most accommodating mood and may, therefore, be looked upon as more sincere against such sinning.

We are informed that Councilman Freeman asked at least one other member of the Council to move his resolution, but the man was not present and failed to do so. It is, therefore, interesting—considering the fact that he lacked the courage to openly move in the matter himself—to find that he should endeavor to induce his fellow members to vote the desired course by telling them—as he did—that they would do so if they were not afraid of the gentleman he was attacking. It is an all too common piece of the kind of political maneuvering that he indulged poor Bamford to move the resolution when he found that the editor of the ADVANCE was not present at the Council. It is the same kind of course which was proposed by Councilman Freeman, in his capacity as Plaintiff, when, from property discharging his duties, and that makes his district one of the safest on the Miramichi for those who ally themselves with the "Free Press."

So far as the merits of his resolution are concerned the editor of the ADVANCE will discuss them with him at shorter range, but, in the meantime, we advise him to be on the lookout in such matters as he has been, for there is no creature so despicable as one who advances the weakness of others by inducing them to perform work which they consider too dirty or dangerous for themselves. The monkey who used the dog's name to pull his tearing chains out of the fire was as mean perhaps as Councilman Freeman, but Councilman Freeman was meaner than the cat, for that was too weak physically to resist.

A brutal assault was made this p.m. on the Inspector of Licenses for this country by Thom. Murphy, convicted to-day for violation of the Liquor Act. Inspector Bissett while sitting in the office of Justice Sadler was asked by Murphy if he intended to prosecute him further. Mr. Bissett said he should do his duty, and if violations were charged on what he considered good evidence he would certainly put the law in force, although Murphy had struck and kicked him in a brutal manner. Of course legal remedy will be had against Murphy. This outrageous act has completely destroyed any feeling of respect which might have existed in Murphy's favor, and raised the just resentment of every respectable person against the perpetrator of the cowardly act."

Notes on the Sale of the Chalmers.—AN IMPORTANT INDUSTRY. I met with at the north with Mr. C. G. Beckett, of Beckettville. He has built up a post office which includes the spoil from a mill, dry houses and fourteen houses connected therewith, located about three miles from Jacques River Station. The Spoil factory was destroyed by fire in August 1882, but with characteristic pluck and enterprise Mr. Beckett rebuilt and had it running the following November—3 months—and it has been running ever since, winter and summer.

The Spoil factory building is 150x30ft. and three stories high, and is filled with all the machinery necessary to the business. I once heard of an establishment where oxen, sheep, blocks of wood, raw cotton and other items were turned into a hopper at one end and boots and shoes of all kinds came out at the other. Mr. Beckett's factory is not quite so complicated as that, but its machinery is wonderfully perfect and capable of turning out every kind of spoil, roll, bob, bin or similar articles used in cotton and woolen mills. The saw mill, which is a building separate from the Spoil factory is 65x30 ft. and there are three dry houses the dimensions of which are 72x30 ft. The machinery is run by steam and gives employment to a large number of hands.

The market for all the mill spoils and bobbins made at Beckettville is within the Dominion, while all the thread spoils made are shipped to England. The output of the factory is from two to three car loads a month. Interesting notes bearing on the question of Halifax as a great woolen mill, which were developed by the experience of Mr. Beckett as a shipper. I was surprised to find that he sent his English consignments for ocean shipment to Liverpool, Me. This seemed the more surprising in view of the fact that the freight on a car load to Portland was some $80, while it was only about $33 to Halifax. It seems, however, that the parties interested in handling freight reaching Halifax pile on the charges so excessively as to suggest the notion that they think each car-load may have the last by which they will be able to get an opportunity to make money. In this way such items as wharfage, cartage, etc.—"etc." including what Mr. Beckett appropriately denounces as "steak"—amounted, in his case, to sixteen or seventeen dollars, while the whole cost of handling at Portland would be about fifty cents. This is a difference much too wide for any business man's loyalty to pay and, therefore, Halifax must lose by it. There is, no doubt, a whole lot of handling at Portland who are directly interested in the city and its future as a great Canadian shipping port. It is to be seen that Portland is not content to see that Portland and its interests are to be so handsomely outbid it for such business.

Veterans.—The Moncton Capital, referring to Camp Shediac says:—"There are two quite celebrated veterans in Camp. The first of these is Sergt. Mathew O'Shaghnessy, brigade orderly from 1861, from the 1st S. C. at Fredericton. Sergt. O'Shaghnessy was in the Royal service 20 years, during which time he served all through the Crimean war. He wears two medals—Crimean medal and one for the Crimea. He is now 70 years of age, but he is still a soldier at heart. He came to Canada 17th May last, leaving a civil service office; but he could not live a civil life, so he came here, and is now engaged in the S. C. Co. He is a very interesting man, and he has about 35 papers of merit, service, etc., from prominent English officers, showing 34 years service in the 20th Regiment; 2 years in the School of Artillery; 3 years as a military instructor in the 21st Regiment; 3 years as volunteer instructor in the Angers Rifles, and 51 years in the 4th S. S. Regiment."

"The other veteran is Capt. A. S. Templeton, adjutant, a kindly-faced Scotchman, who has served 22 years. He wears three medals—the Crimean medal, with three clasps, one each for the battles of Alma, Inkerman and the Tchernaya; Turkish Crimean medal and the Queen's medal for long service and good conduct. He was sergeant of one regiment to which he was attached in the Crimea. Adj. Templeton was in Canada in 1862 as a drill instructor of volunteers, and he still holds that position."

Rev. Father Babineau's Return.—Mr. Enrou, on Monday evening last, was met by a telegram from the Rev. J. A. Babineau, who was a passenger on the express train from Quebec to Chatham, returning from his pilgrimage to the Holy Land. The Rev. Thomas J. Babineau, of Chatham, had accompanied him at Newcastle, and escorted him to the Bishop's residence, where they arrived after midnight. Next morning Father Babineau celebrated mass at the chapel of the Holy Trinity, with instantaneous Mass, the Rev. Father Babineau, with his venerable parents and family at St. John's Bay, on Friday next, and on Friday next, where his loved passengers will give him a warm and affectionate reception. The following is a copy of the address:—"Joseph A. Babineau, Pastor of the Holy Trinity, returning from his visit to the Holy Land of Palestine and Italy.
