STABBED FOR TALKING TO ANOTHER MAN'S WIFE

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 9.—Lawrence B. Cook, member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, who was re-nominated by the Republican Party yesterday, was today perhaps fatally stabbed by Andrew McMillan, a justice of the peace, and one of the wealthy residents of Carnegie, Cook, who came into notoriety during the last Legislature for being the author of the greater Pittsburgh bill, met a woman, said to be Mrs. McMillan. While they were together McMillan burst open the door and engaged in a struggle with Cook. During the battle Cook was stabbed a number of times and is now in a critical condition in the Mercy Hospital while McMillan is in the Oakland police station, held without bail.

NEW YORK MOTORMAN ARRESTED IN THE WEST

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—A man giving his name as James McAuley was arrested today on suspicion of being Paul Kelly, who is wanted in New York for homicide. Kelly was a motorman on an elevated railroad car, on Ninth Avenue. On Sept. 5, 1906, he ran into an open switch, drenching the train and causing a number of deaths.

Firemen from Kennebunk and Kennebunkport saved the granite state house and two cottages which were in danger.
The Bass Rock House was a four story wooden building, containing forty rooms and was owned by J. A. Wells. The loss is $10,000; insurance, $5,000.

PRESIDENT PALMA CALLS A MEETING OF CONGRESS

HAVANA, Sept. 8.—President Palma tonight issued a call for a special session of congress for Sept. 14th to consider the disturbed condition of the country and measures for ending the intolerable situation. The president is weary of the complicated and threatening condition and is anxious to divide the responsibility with congress.
Last week at the exhibition the Boston Ladies' Orchestra played the Clavola Waltzes lately composed and arranged by Wm. Wilber of this city. Mr. Wilber arranged the waltzes especially for them to play. It is needless to say that the orchestra played the composition splendidly and brought out the character of the music to the fullest extent.

AN EXCELLENT SCHOOL FROCK.

4086.—The changes in the fashion of children's clothes are never at any time so marked or sudden as is sometimes the case with the fashions of their elders. We hear very often these days that the little frocks were never so well dressed, and surely good taste in the simplicity which characterizes these small garments. For general wear mothers find that the simple mode of dressing survives the longest, and a gown which will serve excellently for the daughter's school frock is shown. The square yoke and panels are very becoming and afford enough adornment for a dress of this kind. Made of a contrasting material or color together with the cuffs and belt, the dress is one that any girl will like. The tucks at the side in front and back relieve any tendency to plainness and add fullness to the small figure. The skirt is one of unusual merit, being a circular one and of excellent shaping. The pleats attached to yoke depth give extra fullness and grace. Any of the light worsteds may serve for the dress, which are resulting in scarcity of food. The foreign office advises against inland travel for the present.

4086.—Sizes, 6 to 14 years.

A DRAMATIC INCIDENT

Brother Implores Brother Not to Kill Himself.

Sailed for Italy to Die on the Grave of His Sweetheart—Parents Forebode Union and Double Tragedy is to Follow

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—A dramatic scene occurred on the French Line pier today as the steamer La Provence left for Italy. Among the passengers was Luigi Contantini, 24 years old, who was bound for his old home in Locarno, province of Lombardy, Italy, to keep a suicide pact to die on his sweetheart's grave.
Antonio Contantini, his brother, created the scene on the pier as he followed wards told his brother's story. He said that Luigi became betrothed to Josephine Balastrini, a girl in his native town. Her parents opposed the match, preferring a wealthier suitor, and Luigi, with his sweetheart's promise to keep faith, came to America to seek his fortune. He established himself at Beaver, Oklahoma, where he secured a farm and tilled it successfully. Then he wrote for Josephine to come, but she replied sadly that she could not; that her parents forbade; that she intended to commit suicide, and that she expected Luigi to join her in death. News quickly came that the girl had carried out her purpose, and Luigi sold his property and started for Italy to kill himself on the pier's edge. His brother, Antonio, lives in Paterson, N. J., and Luigi went to him, told him the story and bade him farewell. Evidently he failed to avert the man, and on the pier today Antonio made his final appeal. He clung to his brother and earnestly kissed him and implored him not to go. Luigi shook his head. Antonio then half dragged his brother to an open space on the pier, fell on his knees, raised a crucifix aloft and, with tears in his eyes, renewed his pleadings. Luigi could not be averted, and finally, turning his back on Antonio, went on board La Provence.

When the ship sailed Luigi stood at the rail and sadly watched Antonio, who had again fallen to his knees and with outstretched arms was beckoning to his brother.

BOXERS TERRORIZE A CHINESE TOWN

Scared the Officials and Took Charge of the Place—Troops Sent to Make Peace.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 3.—A missionary writing under date of August 18, from Sopping, in the province of Shansi, stated that a large party of Boxers entered Tsoyushan. The missionaries and native Christians fled to the Yamen for shelter, and the Boxers following overtook the officials and got control of the city. A German Lieutenant was travelling in the country arrived opportunistically and rallied the small force of Chinese soldiers who killed the Boxer leader and eleven others, and made prisoners of forty-two, while the remainder were dispersed. The missionaries were saved.
A Chinese general with a force of troops subsequently appeared on the scene. Native reports speak of the persistent uneasiness, especially in the Yangtze Valley following on the floods which are resulting in scarcity of food. The foreign office advises against inland travel for the present.

WARSAW IS AGAIN THE SCENE OF MASSACRE

Terrorists, Soldiers and Jews Mixed up in a Wholesale Slaughter.

WARSAW, Sept. 9.—Terrorists on Saturday evening shot and killed two soldiers guarding a government alcohol store at Siedlec. A detachment of infantry rushed up and fired a volley into the crowd, killing two persons and wounding two.

This morning the terrorists retaliated by beginning a massacre of policemen and soldiers patrolling the streets and at noon the infuriated troops attacked the Jewish quarter of Siedlec, destroying the houses and shops.

It is reported that over one hundred persons were killed or wounded and that the town is in flames.

A regiment of infantry has been sent from Delia to Siedlec to restore order. The Jews are panic-stricken. Alarm reports are being circulated in the city.

SIEDLEC, Russian Poland, Sept. 9.—A massacre of police and soldiers began at eight o'clock Saturday night. Immediately after the troops attacked the Jews.

All today the soldiers have attacked civilians, Christians or Jews, robbing and murdering them without discrimination. Hundreds of persons were killed or wounded. Three streets were devastated.

It is reported that drunken reservists started the massacre. Troops have surrounded the city and refuse access to it.

KAISER PLAYING AT WAR.

He Has Two Armies in the Field and is Having Lots of Fun.

LIEGNITZ, Prussia, Sept. 9.—Two armies, each of about forty thousand men, began tonight the task of working out a theoretical problem of war under the personal supervision of Emperor William. A strong effort is being made to simulate actual conditions of war. The battalions and regiments have been brought to a war footing and the operations will be continuous, night and day, until the umpires signal their cessation, which probably will be Thursday.

The blue army is coming from the north to engage the red forces, which are lying somewhere between here and the Austrian frontier.

The Emperor, with his numerous foreign guests, is spending the night at Breslau and will start for the field of the manoeuvres at four o'clock tomorrow morning.

TANGIER, Morocco, Sept. 9.—Despatches received from Magador says that Anifos Kaid, has seized the town and batteries and won over the government troops. The Jews fled to Melah. The details are extremely scanty.

POPE PIUS RECEIVES A PARTY OF GYMNASTS

Encourages Them to Continue in Their Sport—An Exhibition Given.

ROME, Sept. 8.—Pope Pius this morning received 600 French Gymnasts who are here to give an exhibition. The President read an address of loyalty to the Pope, who in replying encouraged the gymnasts to continue in athletics, which, he said, strengthened the body.

"Strength and courage," said His Holiness, "are necessary to maintain faith when many are losing it; to remain to the church when many abandon her; practice the word of God when many banish it."

He urged them to follow the words of the heroic Matatia, who said, "Even if all the cowardly submit to error I, my brothers, will obey the religion of our fathers."

This passage was commented upon as probably emphasizing the attitude of the Pope towards the French Government.

On leaving the Vatican the gymnasts met and greeted Father Werns, the new general of the Society of Jesus.

The Pope was attended by the Papal Court, and many guests, including the Rev. J. Hansmann, the Rev. Thomas J. Gannon, and the Rev. Wm. O'Brien Pardow, of New York.

NAUGATUCK, Conn., Sept. 9.—As a result of a shooting affray in the section of Naugatuck, known as Little Italy, four Italians, three men and one woman, were shot tonight. One of the men, it is thought, may die, another is critically injured, while the seriousness of the third man's wounds has not yet been determined. The woman suffered a flesh wound. Her shooting was said to be unintentional. Two other Italians who are alleged to have participated in the affray, made their escape and are being searched for by the authorities.

POLLARD'S LILLIPUTIAN OPERA COMPANY.

A hearty greeting awaits the Lilliputians when they open at York Theatre on the 11th. The impression they left after their last visit, is too good to be forgotten. When we say that no "grown-up" company can give better representation than the children, we do not exaggerate in the least, and judging from the reports, they are better now than ever they were. Especially good were Miss Eva Pollard, Daphne Pollard and Teddie McNamee. The company has a fine and extensive repertoire, and rumor has it that they will produce two new musical comedies during their season here.

HOUDINI FOILED BY SHARP EYED TURNKEY

Discovered Hiding Place of Concealed Key.

Game Was Spoiled by Keeper, Who Insisted on Looking at Right Foot.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Houdini, the king of the handcuts, as he is described by his press agents, tried to escape from a locked cell in the Yorkville Police Court prison today and encountered a sharp-eyed keeper, who thwarted his plans. The expert lockpicker went to the office of Commissioner of Corrections Lantry a week ago and told him that the locks of the district prisons were no good, and that an expert burglar could easily escape.

"None have ever escaped before, and I hope none will," responded the Commissioner.

The Commissioner gave his permission to try the locks in the prison of the Yorkville Court. The expert went to the prison one day last week and examined the locks on the cell doors, and announced that he would return today and allow himself to be locked in a cell.

When he got there in the afternoon he found a number of headquarters men, precinct detectives, lawless court clerks and others waiting for him.

"I have been locked in the prisons of Germany, France, and England, and in some in this country, and in every case I managed to get out," said he. "I haven't met failure yet, and the prison officials were unable to explain how I did it." He'll have a different story to tell after his experience in the Yorkville prison.

"Things were arranged for his attempted escape from a cell. The cell was selected and he went into another one and, disrobed, his purpose being to go undressed into the cell from which he was to escape, to show he had no key concealed about him."

KEEPER TOO SMART FOR HIM. Hugh Conroy, a prison keeper, was standing in the cell door to see that nothing was smuggled in. The expert announced he was ready to enter the cell from which he was to escape, and was willing to be searched. Conroy stepped up and ran his fingers through the expert's bushy hair, but found nothing. Then he examined the hands, fingers, and looked under the fingernails for a concealed key. There was none there, so the keeper went to the feet. Nothing under the left foot. "Lift your right foot," said the keeper.

"There's something under the toes of that foot, and if you won't let me look you can't go into the cell," said the keeper.

The expert did some thinking, and finally walked over to the cell where his clothes were lying. He then consulted with his manager, Just then Deputy Commissioner of Correction George W. Meyer entered.

He said that all prisoners were searched, and this expert would have to be, or else acknowledge that he had something concealed under his toes. The expert made the acknowledgment and was then allowed to enter the cell. A sheet was drawn over the door. The expert's hands were confined in handcuffs attached to a waist belt. The audience was ordered out into the next room while the "prisoner" was escaping.

One of the audience found a peep-hole and saw the expert's hand come out between the bars of the door and insert something into the Yale lock. He unlocked the door and showed that he had removed the belt and handcuffs while in the cell.
