BEST OF KLONDIKE

PITTSBURGH, July 21 — Klondike, the Chicago negro, set about staying six rounds with Sam Langford, the Canadian, the other night at the Bijou Theatre, and took a terrible beating in doing so. Langford worked hard to put the Klondike out. The latter fouled Langford in the second, third, fifth and sixth rounds.

Langford kept continually punching kiondike's face. The latter was neavier than Langford. The Klondike did not attempt to fight back. It was the first time Langford showed in this city, and it is the opinion of men wno saw Ketchel while here, that Langford is no match for Stanley.

Jimmy Walsh, of Boston, beat Johnny Whittaker, of Arkon, Ohio, in six rounds. Whittaker was afraid of Waish in the first round, but in the five succeeding rounds he fought back bravely. Billy Corcoran acted as referee. In spite of hot weather the theatre was crowded.

CALAIS, July 21—M. Bleriot, the French aeronaut, arrived here today with his monoplane. He announces that he will make a trial flight to cross the English Channel tomorrow. Count De Lambert will also begin a series of trials with his aeroplane today at Wissant. The feverish haste of his rivals has indluced Herbert Latham, the aviator, who made a daring but unsuccessful attempt to cross the channel on Monday, to hastily prepare his new machine which already is on the way here from Chaloms.
