Poetry.

EVENING SUPPLICATION. BY EMMALINE EVANS.
The Wintry wind how's loud;
Our hearth is bright and warm
My heart in prayer is bowed
To Him who rules the storm.

Not for myself alone— Thy blessings on me fall Like dew drops from thy throne— Oh! wilt thou comfort all;

Young creatures, chill and pale, Bereft of food and fire, In poverty's low vale, Still trust in Thee, their sire! Oh! may their dreams be bright!
For weary is their day;
And with the morning's light,
They wander still away!

Some humble to seek, Or crive the scanty dole. Which oft will barely keep The body with the soul!

The sailor on the sea.

The savage in the wild.
The slave, the bond, the free.
Still, Father, is thy child: Give us Thy helping hand Through life's brief, bitter day: Then take us to the land Where "sorrows flee away"

MOTHER. There is a voice that calls to me,
I hear it in my sleep,
And when I start amid my dreams,
My walking is to weep.
So plain doth seem the school word, So plain doth seem the school that strange it is to me.
Because I find not by my side,
Its own reality.

"Tis a tone for ever buried!
In the solutude of death;
And well I know it never more Shall speak in moreal breath."
Twiss a soft and gentle music,
So based in other controls.

The six of and ground content arrange.

THE WORLD.

PARRS Life Pills, are now established as the only cectain cure of diseases in the human frame. Sufficient has already been advertised in the public prints to convince any reasonable person that the efficacy of this medicine is unbounded, and that every disease will soon vanish from the effects of this popular remedy. Already the proprietes have received and published twenty-six different sheets of Pestimonials; and, having received some thousand letters confirming all the statements published, and proving the immense henefit derived by all classes by taking Parr's Life Pills. Testimonials are received daily, and it would be impossible in a newspaper to publish one half received and the following are selected as people well known in their respective neighbourhoods, and whose testimony is unquistionable. Further sheets of testimontals may be had gratis, of all Agents.

The fance and offence of Parch Life Pills in THE WORLD.

The fame and efficacy of Parr's Life Pills in America, From the New York Sunday Mercury Jan. 10, 1844 We call the attention of the invalid to the Pestimonials of cures performed by Part's Ede Pills.—

The testimony of such respectable names as a certain guarantee for the truth of the efficacy of this truly excellent medicine.

The number of testimonials of cares by Parr's Life Pills, are crowding upon the proprietors dualy, and their ansolicited testimony witnessed by genitemen of high reputation.

The following testimonial is from one of the most talented and respectable members of the theatrical profession. Mr. T. D. RICE, the original Fine Crow—a gentleman whose high character for worth and integrity as a citizen, places his unsolicited and voluntary attestation of the excellence of the Medicine beyond the shadow of suspicion. This (worth thousands of similar grateful acknowledgments) can be seen at the principal depot, 304 Broadway. From Mr. T. D. Rice, (the original Fine Crone.)

To Messrs. T. Roberts & co. 304 Broadway. N. Y. Gentlemen—Having in the course of a long and arduous practice of my profession, contracted a fightness across the chest, with gena progration of strongth, and suffer ng much from the effects of the labour attached to my peodiar pursains, while in England, I had recourse to your popular Medicine. Parr's Life Pills, from which I recoived great benefit. Finding a branch of your house in this city. I procured a few boxes of the Medicine, and can now sincerely testify to their value & great efficacy, and also to the great character they bear in the old country.
