When the river steamers May Queen and D. J. Purdy leave on their maiden trips of the season this morning, the summer traffic on the river will be in full swing. On Tuesday last Thomas E. Robinson was robbed of 24 pounds of butter which he valued at seven dollars. Mr. Robinson stated that the man who stole the butter was Fred A. McDowell, and accordingly laid a complaint in the police court and swore out a warrant for McDowell's arrest. After talking the matter over with the police, Mr. Robinson said that McDowell left the city and departed for St. Stephen. The supposed thief was placed under arrest yesterday afternoon in St. Stephen and was brought to the city on the New Brunswick Southern express last evening by Detective Killen and locked up in a central police station cell, and will be taken before Magistrate Ritchie this morning.

Claims He Was Robbed.

That he was held up by two desperate men with silhouettes and forced to give up $2, although he saved $25 that was in another pocket, is the story told yesterday by William Lormore, an elderly man, who lives in the western end of St. John county. Mr. Lormore claims he was in the toilet room of the Market building yesterday afternoon when two men entered and accosted him. One of them produced a long knife which, Mr. Lormore said, resembled a silhouette, and pointing it at him said: "Give up your money or I will stick this into your stomach." Mr. Lormore gave the men a two dollar bill which he had in a match pocket in his trousers and satisfied with this, they hastily departed. He had $25 in another pocket which the men did not get. The matter has been reported to the police.

MAY BE RECOUNT IN MAYORALTY FIGHT

Attorneys Acting for T. H. Bullock are Advising Him to Take Matter to Court—A Mistake Claimed.

T. H. Bullock has not yet decided whether he will take legal proceedings with a view to having a recount of the ballots cast in the civic elections for the mayoralty candidates, but it is said that his attorneys are advising him to demand a recount through the courts. The charter makes no provision for a recount of the ballots in a civic election, but it is said that the common council could order a recount or that the courts could be induced to order a recount. It is said that Mr. Bullock's agents have evidence that the tally paper of one of the scrutineers in one of the polls showed that Mayor Frink had five votes less than was credited to him by the poll clerk's tally, and it is believed that in view of this the courts on the principle that every wrong demands a remedy, would favor a recount.

When asked about the matter yesterday the common clerk who acted as returning officer, said he had not been informed that Mr. Bullock would take any action in the matter. Mr. Bullock was out of town yesterday.

HOW COMMISSIONERS MAY ALLOT OFFICES

Mr. McLellan, Safety; Mr. Schofield, Harbor; Mr. Wigmore, Water and Sewerage; and Mr. Agar, Works.

There has been some speculation as to the division of the civic departments among the commissioners who take charge on the first Tuesday in May. The newly elected commissioners have not yet met together yet and discussed the situation, but it seems to be settled that Mr. McLellan, whose plurality will it is said, give him first choice, has decided to take the safety department. Ald. Wigmore naturally expects to take the water and sewerage department, he having run as a candidate for that office. It is generally understood that Mr. Schofield will take the harbor department and Mr. Agar, the department of public works.

Owing to the large vote polled by Mr. Schofield, it is said that he will have second choice in the distribution of the departments, and it might be supposed, in view of the importance of the department of public works under the old regime, that he would take this department. Under the new charter, however, the public works department will not be as important as under the old order.

According to the provisions of the new charter, the mayor shall always be the commissioner of finance and public affairs. The commissioner of public safety will have charge of the fire and police departments, the lighting of the city, the market and all public buildings, but not of the city lands. The commissioner of public works will have charge of the streets, highways, squares, parks, playgrounds and public recreation grounds. The commissioner who takes charge of the harbor, which is under the control of the board of works, will also have charge of the ferry service, and the city lands, making this department a very important one. The other commissioner will have charge of the water and sewerage department. It was intended to give the commissioner of public health, but the legislation turned down to the proposition to be seen that under the new dispensation the commissioner of public works has not the same importance as the present board of works in so far as the control of patronage is concerned, but it is still of great importance, in so far as its operations in the most difficult department in which to make good, and the one most liable to criticism. That is probably why the commissioners elected for four years are not anxious to take hold of it.

The new charter provides that the distribution of departments may be changed whenever it shall appear that the public service may be benefited.

The new council is obliged to meet at least once each week, and all business will be open to the public, unless business is being discussed which involves the liability of the city from a legal standpoint, when the council may, in its discretion, sit in private session. Each commissioner while he has full authority in regard to the technical administration of his department, is responsible to the council for the efficient management of the services entrusted to him.

WE CAN MAKE SUMMER COOKING PLEASURE

This Difficult Feat Accomplished by Use of One Dollar Gas—Labor is Reduced to Minimum.

That summer cooking can be made a genuine pleasure instead of mere drudgery was clearly proven by Miss Daisy K. Gayton, at yesterday's free demonstration of the advantages of One Dollar Gas as a culinary fuel.

The demonstration was, like others, given in the St. John Railway Company's showrooms.

In a careful comparison of the older cooking fuels with One Dollar Gas, Miss Gayton showed that with the latter, the meals could be prepared much more quickly than with coal or wood, always with most gratifying results and a tremendous saving effected in fuel. She also pointed out that the absence of ash and the fact that the fire needs no attention, reduces labor to the minimum, while the kitchen is never overheated.

The subject of Tuesday's demonstration will be announced in the next issue of The Standard.

A particularly interesting feature of this coming presentation of the Durbur will be that the pictures will be explained by Sidney Holme-Guthrie, whose entertaining remarks are sure to add greatly to the enjoyment of the audience. The demand for seats is the largest that has been known for any company playing in the Opera House this season and local theatre-goers are sure to give this attraction liberal patronage if the present advance sale can be taken as a criterion.
