Hampton Village, Nov. 14—Little Addie Bowaird, known to everyone in Hampton for her bright and winning disposition, after suffering for weeks from spinal meningetili, passed peacefully to rest on Monday morning. No one in Hampton are restricted to the coder, and kev. Mr. Lodge, class of the coder of the coder of the was a groundly normal. No one in Hampton in the case of the coder of the was a groundly normal. No one in Hampton in the case of the coder of the was a groundly normal. No one in Hampton in the case of the coder of the coder of the work of the code of the service during the last death. Five years ago give to thild, she has naturally been a great favorite of the father. Three doctors, one from St. John, and a trained name were employed. She spoke during the last part of her father. Three doctors, one from St. John, and a trained name were employed. She spoke during the last the fatral comelery, there exhaults a continuous services of the coder of the paralysis set in. The funeral took place on Wednedday afternoon, interment been on the company of the fundation and obtained to the paralysis set in. The funeral took place on the code of the last of the standard o extended their business by establishing agencies in every important town and village between Norton and Shediac.

Miss Florence Smith has returned to Sussex after visiting her sister, Mrs. Robinson, of St. John, who is now quite recovered from her recent illness.

The body of Deacon Jonathan Titus, who died recently in St. John, was conveyed to the train from Brussels street church on Saturday morning and brought to his brother's residence, on Tourist avenue, where it remained until his daughter, Florence, wife of the Rev. Dr. Weeks, of Toronto, arrived at 2 o'clock, after which it was removed to the Baptist churchyard at Central Norton and deposited beside his land avorably known in this locality. He kept store for a number of years in SJohn. At one time he was the head of the firm of Titus & Dykeman, in the Y. M. C. A. building on Charlotte street. Of late he had been an invalid from rheumatism, and had lived with his daughter, Mrs. Stillwell, St. John.

Mrs. McNeil, wife of the Rev. Mr. McNeil, of Petiticodiac, is visiting friends in Hampton.

Qaptain Nickerson has gone to Boston of the most estimable citizens of the town and in token of the respect in which he was held a large number of citizens of the town and in token of the respect in which he was held a large number of citizens of the town and in token of the respect in which he was held a large number of citizens of the town and in token of the respect in which he was held a large number of citizens of the bridge the body to the graw. The orangemen with their band attended in a body. Rev. W. R. Robinson, of Gibson, York county, and Game Warden John Robinson are sons of the deceased.

The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held Tuesday last. Speeches were made by clergymen of this town and instrumental music was rendered. The association is in a healthy state financially and everything points to a very success full year.

Miss Le Furgey, of Summerside, and Miss Comstock are to give a concert here friday evening of next week under the access of Harkin Hampton.

Captain Nickerson has gone to Boston to urge the United States and Canada Coal & Iron Company to place a steam drill and borer in their anthracite mine at able to do light work again.

Spence Snodgrass is slowly gaining strength after a severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ganong were given a surprise party on Halloween. About 25 guests assembled to do them honor and enjoy the evening. As a result a valuable table has been added to their furniture.

Contractor William Smith is greated.

Councillor Samuel Flewwelling and land councillor samuel Flewwelling and land councillor samuel Flewwelling and land councillor samuel Flewwelling and councillor samuel flew was concluded. Court considers.

Macrae vs. City of St. John. Court on Macrae vs. City of St. John. Court on strawberries on Thanksgiving day, picked from the road bed of the Intercolonial, this question through the columns of The the body gently and lovingly beside the dust of her mother. The casket was covered with wreaths of flowers. The sympathy of the community goes out to the afflicted parent, to her only sister, Je sie, and to her five young brothers, who are left to mourn their end loss.

Doctor McInture, of St. John, performed a skillful operation on one of Miss Iola Gray's eyes recently. It has proved quite successful.

Mrs. Robert H. Anderson with a dozen solid silver coffee spoons, and Miss Sara Marshall read an address expressing the society's affection for Mrs. Anderson and a sense of loss at her departure from Chatham, Nov. 12.—At a meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of St. John's church last evening the members of the society presented Mrs. Robert H. Anderson and a sense of loss at her departure from Chatham, Nov. 12.—At a meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of St. John's church last evening the members of the society presented Mrs. Robert H. Anderson and a sense of loss at her departure from Chatham, Nov. 12.—At a meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of St. John's church last evening the members of the society presented Mrs. Robert H. Anderson and a sense of loss at her departure from Chatham, Nov. 12.—At a meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of St. John's church last evening the members of the society presented Mrs. Robert H. Anderson and a sense of loss at her departure from Chatham, Nov. 12.—At a meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society presented Mrs. Robert H. Anderson and a sense of loss at her departure from Chatham, Nov. 12.—At a meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society presented Mrs. Robert H. Anderson and a sense of loss at her departure from Chatham, Nov. 12.—At a meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society presented Mrs. Robert H. Anderson and a sense of loss at her departure from Chatham, Nov. 12.—At a meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society presented Mrs. Society presented Mrs. Society presented Mrs. Robert H. Anderson and a sense of loss at her departure from Chatham, Nov. 12.—At a successful.

Mrs. William Reid has been quite ill with la grippe.

Mrs. Alexander McManus, will regret to hear that shock so low with spinal meningets that the doctors have given up hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. Alexander McManus, will regret to hear that shock so low with spinal meningets that the doctors have given up hopes of her recovery.

Carlain Stack of the steamhoat St

cessfully placed yesterday afternoon.

Rev. David Wright, of Springhil, occupied the pulpit at St. James' last Sun drill and borer in their anthracite mine at Central Norton. While their pump is capable of throwing out 150 gallons of water per minute, the captain thinks this is not sufficient, but they should have a regular mining pump, capable of throwing out gravel and rocks as well. He says there is nothing to prevent them from carrying on operations all winter. The further they get down the better the coal. About an inch of anow fell here Wednesday, turning to rain in the afternoon.

FREDERICTON.

Contractors James Piers & Son have completed the foundation for a root cellar and manure shed, over which will be built a 30x40 barn for Mr. Schoffeld, of Central Norton.

Fredericton, Nov. 14—The supreme court today reserved judgment in the Higgins case till tomorrow morning.

Wood vs. Leblane, postponed from last week, was taken up by the supreme court this afternoon. Powell and Teed, for plaintiff, are moving for new trial on the ground that members of the jury were tampered with during the trial of the suit at Dorchester last July. Five with an adversarial power of the supreme court today reserved judgment in the Higgins case till tomorrow morning.

Wood vs. Leblane, postponed from last week, was taken up by the supreme court today reserved judgment in the Higgins case till tomorrow morning.

Wood vs. Leblane, postponed from last week, was taken up by the supreme court today reserved judgment in the Higgins case till tomorrow morning.

Wood vs. Leblane, postponed from last week, was taken up by the supreme court that members of the jury were tampered with during the trial of the supreme court of the supr

Norton.
Havelock Fowler, of the same place, is offering for early, his farm, and intends to remove to Hampton.
William Brown, whose hand became paralyzed recently, is improving and is now able to do light work again.
Spence Snodgrass is slowly gaining Spence Snodgrass is slowly gaining the case were discussed. They elaim to the case were discussed. They elaim to have been in an adjoining room at the dual position of civil court commissioner.

C., moves to make absolute rule nisi to quash assessment made against applicant. Rule absolute.

Rule absolute.

Ex parte John McGoldrick—O. S. Crocket moves for rule absolute for certiorari and a rule nisi to quash an order made by Judge Wilson, York county court, on review from small debt court of Fredericton, whereby he set aside a verdict which defendant obtained on trial of an action against him by Sarah A. Lucy and ordered a verdict for plaintiff in lieu

ment of the control of the plane of the plan

Harris vs. Jamieson (St. John elevator case)—Court divided equally, chief justice and Judges Barker and McLeod for new trial; Judges Hanington, Landry and Gregory contra.

Plaintiff's verdict therefore stands.
Ex parte Wm. H. Edgett—Rule nisi for mandamus to compel receiver of taxes of Moncton to allow applicant to make connection with town sewer.

O'Leary vs. Depres—Rule refused to rescind chief justice's order committing defendant to prison for nine months for fraudulent transfer of property with in-supreme court costs refused.

Cormier vs. Dominion Atlantic Railway Company—Plaintiff's verdict for $600 set aside and non-suit ordered. Court held-there was no evidence of negligence by

A meeting to receive the report of Havelock Company, referee in equity in re the estate of the late Wesley Vanwart was held in Mr. Coy's office Saturday after-

Referee Coy submitted a lengthy report which contained, among other things, a list of accounts passed by him amounting to $43,511.40. The total value of the per-

President—James Rourke, 1st vice-president—H. E. Gillmor, M. D. 2nd vice-president—Col. J. J. Tucker,

M. P. Treasurer-Michael Kelly. Depositary—S. C. Osborne.
Directors—S. J. Shanklin, M. R. Daly,
Edward McBride, H. W. Brown, C. F.
Black, J. S. Titus, Geo. Mosher, Joseph

Hodsmyth.
Auditors-S. J. Shanklin, Cudlin Miller, ir., E. S. Hatfield.
The scholars of Miss Alberta M. Brown, teacher of district No. 3, St. Martins, made her a very pleasant surprise party at her home Tuesday evening last. The evening's enjoyment consisted of games

At the last regular meeting of the Farmers' Institute the following were elected:

President—James Rourke.

Vice-president—H. E. Gillmor, M. D.

Secretary-treasurer—Michael Kelly.
Auditor—W. L. McDiarmid.

The sale and tea held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbytenian church in Masonic hall last evening proved a financial success. W. E. Skillen contributed very much to the evening's entertainment by graphophone Mrs. E. S. Hatfield, who has been visiting friends in Lynn, has returned.

Traffic on the St. Martins & Hampton

Spence Snodgrass is slowly gaining strength after a severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ganong were given a surprise party on Hallow'een. About 25 guests assembled to do them honor and enjoy the evening. As a result a valuable has been added to their furniture. Contractor William Smith is engaged with his men putting an addition to miss Flewwelling's house.

Councillor Samuel Flewwelling and family are residing at present in ms mother's residence, while she is in England, and the county warden is having his residence enlarged and improved.

Mrs. William Alexander is visiting former displayed and relatives at Reid's Point.

action. No returns were made last month, when fines and costs amount to something like $360, and the city's cheque for salary was declined.
The council this afternoon decided to commence action in the supreme court to compel Mr. Kay to pay over the money held by him and the government is to be asked to investigate a charge to be laid against the police magistrate in regard to the matter.

Bristol, N. B., Nov. 15-The snow which officers.

On Tuesday night, the 21st inst., Major Howell, assisted by Ensign Knight of No. 1 corps, of St. John, will conduct special services and on Saturday evening Ensign Percy, assisted by the local officers, and the service entitled conducts of the service of the service entitled.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, N. B., Nov. 14.—(Special)—A two story house owned by C. J. Tabor, of the Carlisle Hotel, was burned to the ground this morning. The building was unoccupied, the last tenant, Alfred Mason, having moved a few days ago. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. The building was situated outside the town limits and the distance was so great from the nearest hydrant that water could not reach the burning building. The insurance was only $500.

CENTREVILLE.

Centreville, N. B., Nov. 13—Yesterday's snow storm has made beautiful sleighing, and today's sunshine has been taken advantage of by many for driving and busi-vantage of by many for driving and business.

Some hay is being marketed at $6 per ton. Oats are moving briskly at 30 cents. Lee White, son of Lev. White, is receiving many congratulations upon the capture of a bull moose. A gentleman driving into town sighted the animal about two miles out on the Khexford road. He reported the fact and Lee and a few young friends started out. The former young friends started out. The former found the moose in a piece of woods and pierced his heart with a 30-30. He received an ovation a few hours later when he dreve into town with the moose on a double wagon.

Doctor Peppers was called to St. Mary's or Monday to attend the funeral of his on Monday to attend the funeral of

The young people are enjoying the rolle rink more than ever, and are making extensive preparations for the advertised carnival.

CAMPBELLTON.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, Nev. 17—Mrs. Stuart, wife of H. H. Stuart, teacher of the superior school here left Friday morning for McAdam Junction, where she expects to visit her parents until after Christmas, Joseph Allingham, of Gagetown, is spending a few days with friends at the Hill. Hill.

The tea given by the ladies of the Methodist church Saturday night in the hall was very successful, $17.50 being realized, which will go toward the repairs of the church. The tables were waited upon by the following young ladies: Misses Maude Smith, Ethel Peck, Mary Archi-bald, Annie Smith, Maggie Archibald and Mabed Elliott.

Mrs. John Russell was called to her home at New Horton this week by the serious illness of her father, George Bart-

The schooner Velma A. left today for Shulee with a cargo of hay and farm pro

DEER ISLAND.

Deer Island, Nov. 15—Harlie Haney has secured work in Waterville (Mc.), and left on Friday for there. I. K. Fountain left Monday by steamer Viking for St. Stephen and vicinity on hunting cruise.

Allison Haney has bought the W. S

Allison Haney has sought the W. S. Thompson place and is this week moving his family to the farm.

A dance will be held in Moss Rose hall at an early date, and with such good music as is furnished by the Lodge brothers, of Eastport, little advertising is necessary.

Charence Haney was the guest of J. W. Stover on Sunday last.

The Orange ledge recently organized at Cumming's Cove is in a flourishing condition. About 12 members were added to the roll on the last night of meeting, and as many more will join the ranks before the charter closes.

William McNeill is enjoying an outing at Leonard's Lake.

Alonzo Calder is visiting friends in North Perry.

GAGETOWN.

Gagetown, Nov. 15. A successful social was held at the Methodist parsonage Thursday evening, when more than $20 evening at 8 o'clock, after scarcely 24 hours' illness. A severe attack of grippe, followed by heart failure, was the cause of death. Deceased leaves his wife and of death. Deceased leaves his wife and eight children, who will have the sympathy of the community in their unexpected bereavement. The funeral will be on Sunday, at 1 o'clock. Interment at Upper

SUSSEX.

Sussex, N. B., Nov. 17-John J. Ros

his been visiting his parents.
Mr. and Mrs. John McCarty have been visiting Mrs. McRae this week.
Edward Morris is here visiting his will give a magic lantern service, entitled

BAYSWATER.

Bayswater, Nov. 14-The mail driver has been notified by the department that the daily mail will be discontinued and a day.

William Saul had a visit this week from Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barlow, who have been in the city all summer, have moved back to their old home.

Rev. H. D. Worden returned home to Oak Bay Friday. He held two services here on Sunday at the Union meeting.

AMHERST.

General Traffic Manager Tiffin, of the I. C. R., and District Freight Agent D. A. Sborey, of Halifax, were in Amherst today in the interests of the I. C. R. They had a conference with H. Pipes, president of the board of trade, and other prominent business men years of age, was a close friend of the Jennings boy. Both Coffin and Jennings were about 10 years old.

GUILTY OF THE MURDER

Woodward was arrested on suspicion of woodward was arrested on suspinos of the knowing something of the death of the boys. During his trial it developed that he was the last person seen with them and testimony was adduced showing that he had purchased poison. It was shown that ruther was the motive of the that robbery was the motive of the crime. Woodward, according to the testimony, induced the two boys to accompany him to the Collingswood woods where, during a luncheon, he administered the poison and robbed the children of what money that reasons.

what money they possessed.

Jennings, it was testified, had stolen $10 from his father before going to meet Woodward. The prisoner was tried on the direct charge of murdering Coffin. He attempted to prove an alibi but failed.

Woodward. The prisoner was tried on the direct charge of murdering Coffin. He attempted to prove an altib but failed.

MARINERS' HARDSHIPS.

Mar. and Mrs. Bullock's elegant home was thrown open to the guests and the spacious drawing rooms, flower decked and brilliantly lighted, presented an amber of young ladies prettily gowned assisting the osteos in looking after the guests. Rev. Mr. Sheldon asked the blessing.

New York, Nove 17.—Captain Ott, of the schooner Hattie C. Luce, of Rockport (Me.), which arrived at this port on Saturday last, reports that he left Jackson-ville (Fla.), Oct. 28. From then until Nov. 5 they had heavy northeast winds, being under two reef sails nearly all of the time. When within 40 miles of Cape Henry the wind increased and the vessel was driven off shore 50 miles. The schooner labored very hard and shipped large quantities of water. The poop deek leaked so that in six hours the water had gained to seven feet in the hold, and she would not steer. The lashing of the deckned for 48 hours without any rest, the craw having only a little bread and coffee, as nearly all the stores were lost even known or of whom had effec, as nearly all the stores were lost even known to appear in a police whom the grant of the work of the guests and the stores were lost ened to with a good will.

Schoolar sheeper was severed, a number of young ladies prettily gowned assisting the stores. He may be control figure. At 6 o'clock and the hour which the store in looking after the guests Rev. Mr. Sheldon asked the blessing.

Deep interest entered in the hour which the she was made to the partors. It was just a happy jolly hour and with the hour which was made up of a song by Hairy Upton, the singing of Let a Little Sunshine In by the assemble of the time. When within 40 miles of Cape Henry the wind increased and the vessel was driven of shore 50 miles. The schoolner of the time was increased and the vessel was driven of shore 50 miles. The schoolner of the problem has been added to the problem has a police work worked for 48 hours without any rest, the crew having only a little bread and coffee, as nearly all the stores were lost and there was no water except what could be saved in a big barrel.

The Control of the Co

REV. CHARLES M. SHELDON'S WORDS.

Three Addresses in Victoria Rink, and a Sermon in Carleton Baptist Church-Boys of the Mission Dine With Him at J. F. Bullock's Home - Mr. Sheldon, Not Believing in Sunday Cars or Ferry, Walked the Bridge to Carleton and Back.

has to say with clear, strong intentness.
What some may accept as an example on his part of the courage of his convictions occurred yesterday morning, when he left for Carleton Baptist church, where he was sketch of the Visitor.

Rev. Mr. Sheldon, whose name has become familiar all over America, looks anywhere from 35 to 40 years, very fair and of good appearance. He is very quiet and unassuming in manner and would have had a marwellous vogue in the past few years. Rev. Mr. Sheldon is a native of ent to congress in order to pursue his ministerial and literary work.

A little more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed charge of the Town was all the particular that the original point of the large audience. According to the more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon a sumed the town was all the town of the the particular than the choir look their individuality and the two looks the original that good to the common strain.

After several hymns, Rev. Howard Roach read Paslm 107. Major Powell, of the audience arose and sange. In that great volume of sound the original had been choir look their individuality and the tooline of the salvent and the choir looks the original that the original that th

There was a unique gathering at the residence of John F. Bullock, Germain street, from 5 to 7.30 o'clock Saturday, when 18 or 20 boys of the Whitney mis-when 18 or 20 boys of the Whitney mission were invited to take tea ware Rev. Mr. Sheldon, and about a dozen other guests were asked to meet Mr. Sheldon informally.

The boys were on hand before 4.30 and while it was hardly necessary to furnish entertainment for them, several friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bullock were on hand to see that there were no dull moments.

Everybody had a good time and the enjoyment of the occasion was enhanced by its novelty.

Mr. and Mrs. Bullock's elegant home with a good will.

Rev. Chas. M. Sheldon, of Topeka (Kansas), addressed four meetings in this city Saturday and Sunday and 10.000 people listened to him.

He speaks with simple, earnest directness; he makes no pretensions to picturesque orations, but rather tells what he has to say with clear, strong intentness. What some may accept as an example on his part of the courage of his convictions occurred yesterday morning, when he left for Carleton Baptist church, where he was engaged to preach. The ferry boat was engaged to preach. The ferry boat was sengaged to preach. The ferry boat was engaged to preach. The ferry boat was sengaged to preach. The ferry boat was one of the largest that has ever been in the Victoria rink.

In the rear of the orchestra on a raised dias sat Mr. Sheldon, and with him were some well-known citizens and clergymen. Mayor White presided. Among those on the platform were H. E. K. Whitney and J. F. Bullock, Col. A. J. Armstrong, Rev. Howard Roach and Major Powell, of the singers of the various hymns.

The crowd was one of the largest that has ever been in the Victoria rink.

In the rear of the orchestra on a raised dias sat Mr. Sheldon, and with him were some well-known citizens and clergymen. Howard Roach and Major Powell, of the same was one of the various hymns.

the board of trade, and other prominent business men.

It is understood increased freight facilities at this station and also the needs of electric lights in the freight sheds were among the things brought to their notice.

GUITY OF THE MURDIA

OF TWO VOING BOYS

Paul Woodward Poisoned Them in the Woods, Where He Induced Them to Go, So That He Might Rob Them ward was today convicted of murder in the work of the musiciana, the press, the citizens and the boys them: The ministerial and histerary work.

A little more than two years ago Mr. Sheldon spoke briefly of the work. The heldon assumed charge of the Topeka and said the afternon offering would be for this work. More hymns were sung and then advert sements had a week off and the topeka Capital had a phenomenal sale all over America.

Regarding this episode in his career, Mr. Sheldon said, he would, take for and was advert sements had a week off and the topeka Capital had a phenomenal sale all over America.

Regarding this episode in his career, Mr. Sheldon said, he would, take for and was work. The means and the negroes of Topeka and asid the afternon offering work. More hymns were sung and then the topeka Capital had a phenomenal sale all over America.

Regarding this episode in his career, Mr. Sheldon said, he would, take for and work. The heldon is reluctant to speak. When the subject was broached by a Telegraph representative Saturday night Mr. Sheldon is the tree things: This work. Mr. Sheldon said, he work and then afternon offering work. Mr. Sheldon said, he work. Mr. Sheldon said, he work. The house work the term of the afternon offering work. Mr. Sheldon said the afternon offering work. M

gress of good was the fact that most of the people of the world did not really be-lieve that God owned everything in the world. They went by the theory that the earth was the Lord's and the fulness.

the earth was the Lord's and the fulness, thereof all except their corner lot and that was their's alone.

Another thing was the lack of recognization of the brotherhood of mankind. The existence of aristocracy, the division of the rich and poor, uneducated and learned. This was largely because we did not know how the other half of the world lived.

Another thing which he strongly believed, was that the recent coal strike had caused. was that the recent coal strike had caused the people to find that the coal in the ground ought to belong to the common people, because it was a common neces-

Another thing that would make the world better was the suppression of the liquor traffic.

We could all help to make our homes. We could all nep to make our homes. Christian ones, and then Christian homes produced Christian men and women, and Christian men and women would soon produce a Christian world.

the crew having only a little bread and coffee, as nearly all the stores were lost and there was no water except what could be saved in a big barrel.

Saturday Evening's Meeting.

In the Victoria rink Saturday evening Rev. Mr. Sheldon lectured before a very they had not any rest for 60 hours. The vessel was bady damaged,

New York, Nov. 17.—Captain Warren and crew of nine men of the schooner Revent of the schooner Revent of the schooner Revent of the schooner Revent of the schooner John M. Brown. Captain Warren reports his vessel sprung aleak Nov. 7 at 7 p. m., the pumps were kept going all night but the vessel soon became waterlogged; then the deckload went over the side and the spars, with the exception of the mizzen mast, were carried away. She lay helpless and drifting until Nov. 10, when the schooner John M. Brown, from Fernandian, took off all hands. It is supposed the Haggett struck some sunken obstruction, as she was overhauled before her last voyage.

With a good will.

Saturday Evening's Meeting.

In the Victoria rink Saturday evening rever the vesting a very strongly advocated compulsory, education and condemned child labor. He spoke with pathos of the condition of the spoke within a man who, after becoming very education. The spoke were harded to the strongly advocated compulsory, education and condemned child labor. He spoke within alone to condemned child labor. He spoke within a man who, after becoming very education. The strongly advocated compulsory and condemned child labor. He spoke within a man who, after becoming very education and condemned child labors in the cotton mills, where their very existence was warped and they true their very existence was warped and the true he died. After his death a large mob who had gathered cried out for the murderer, "Lynch him! lynch him!"

However, the murderer escaped the fate and was arrested quietly and longed in jail. At the trial, through the efforts of a very clear warper and to condemned child abores in the cotton mills, where their very existence The told of the dens of vice, how at the bottom of an innocent looking stairway was an ordinary appearing basement cigar and liquor store, and then beyond a pair of swinging doors was a room in which had been an inmate of the Austin Farm insane Hospital for the past eight months, as a result of a railroad accident two years ago, today escaped from the institution and threw herself in front, of a train at the Forest Hills station. The wheels passed over her right leg and arm, counting which resulted in her death a few hours later.

Distinguished Greek and Material and the past eight months, as a result of surpress the almost of the dens of vice, how at the bottom of an innocent looking stairway was a room in which in game they are installed machines, wherein, by baiting with a cent, one could see most improper pictures. Then again, beyond a second pair of swinging doors, women and sgirls sat about tables.

Sunday forenoon, Mr. Sheldon, accompanied by H, E. K. Whitney, spoke in Carleton Baptist church, his subject to the level of the boy's way of enjoying, life, and looking at things in general. In conclusion Mr. Sheldon pleaded form the text, John i—43: Follow Me.

Yesterday's Meetings.

Sunday afternoon.

Distinguished Greek and Material committed an accidental or minor of fence, into the society of foul and harden. In the speaker afluded to the lamentable gaps so often seen between a father and son, where the boy's was carce on familiar terms with his father, or else stood in dread of him. Fathers should, were installed machines, wherein, by bait ing with a cent, one could see most improper pictures. Then again, beyond a second pair of swinging doors, women and girls sat about tables.

Sunday forenoon, Mr. Sheldon, accommitted an accidental or minor of fence, into the society of foul and harden. In the light part of swinging doors, women and girls sat about tables.

Sunday forenoon wheth the boy's way of giovally in the part of swinging doors, women and girls sat about tables.

Sunday afternoon where the boy a

Sunday afternoon Victoria rink was thronged to hear him speak, and again in the evening the rink's seating capacity of 3,000 was put to the test.

An immense crowd, estimated at 4,000 gathered at the afternoon meeting to hear Mr. Sheldon tell what he considered a few things that would make the world better.

Harrison's orchestra, on the platform, strengthened by members from some of