ORTHIBUTE ORTHIB Contracts for advertising BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL COLLARS; INTERIOR AND ADDRESS AND ADDRE done? Great heaven! what has she done? Thinking rather than speaking to this effect, Roland entered the dining-room. There the lady was already busy making a tollet of a strange nature. At this Roland assisted, and without impropriety, for, in spite of name and masculine attire, the attendant was a woman—a purchased slave; bought by the fugitive, and retained by her as a companion, chiefly becase from a similarity in height, frame and general expression; it was possible by the aid of dress for one to pass for the other, so that in case of danger a ready deception might be practiced on watchful enemies, and a means of escape secured. The perfection of this arrangement was displayed on this occasion; for when the lady presently emerged from the inner room, enveloped in the travelling cloak, it was impossible to recognize her. The arts of the toilet had enabled her to simulate the slave's dead-olive complexion and crisped hair of sable blackness. Even the cringing servile manner was effectually assumed.

"My pistol!" she said, as she came forth. Hair-Faced, Kessey Felt and Leather Facings MOOSE HAIR COLLARS, warranted safe. 1874.
