While they were searching for money and valuables, Milbach succeeded in getting one arm loose, and drawing a pistol concealed under his coat killed two of the highwaymen, but was himself killed by the third. The negro managed to escape with the money and valuables, amounting to several thousand dollars. Five years ago John Lewis, an employ of the Asylum for the Insane near Tren ton, was attacked by a colored inmate, who bit a piece from the calf of Lewis's leg. The wound was not thought serious, although it was very painful. It gradually healed. Last Friday, while Lewis was working in a field, he was taken ill. Brother workmen assisted him to his home, where he was selzed with hydrophobia, raving, foaming at the mouth, and manifesting all the symptoms of that terrible disease. The best medical skill was in attendance, and continue to extend all the relief in their power. Under the patronage of Earl-Granville, K. G., one of the cleverest of our lady readers bid farewell, on Wednesday week to a large circle of admirers, before her departure to America. Mrs. Adela Dauncy Maskell has, indeed, evidently made a careful stady of elocution, and thus succeeds in using to the best advantage her great gift—a well modulated and rich voice. I knew before that Mrs. Maskell was fully fitted to give effect to such serious and pathetic pieces as ahe had placed in her programme; but her rendering of "The Knight and the Lady"—the well-known Ingoldsby—was somewhat of a surprise, as disclosing an unexpected appreciation of humor, not often found in readers of her sex. I, for one, decidedly grudge Mrs. Dauncey Maskell's teaching ability to our American cousins, for we have not by any means got beyond the necessity for elocutionists competent and willing to show English young ladies the way to read and speak.—Figure. deeply interested in the matter, and he would like to know what steps the Minister of Customs was taking to carry out
