Vail was sworn in as Minister of Militia yesterday, and left this evening for Halifax. An order for superannuation of Bouchette, Commissioner of Customs, was passed yesterday. He will be succeeded by Johnson, Deputy Commissioner. MONTREAL, Oct. 1.

Montreal, Oct. 1.

An important legal decision was rendered by the Court of Review. Some time since a Priest named Archambault at Richelieu, Quebec, denounced one Derionn from the pulpit and advised his expulsion from the Parish. Deriron sued the Priest for libel, when Judge Routhier decided that the law could take no cognizance of anything said by a Priest in the pulpit. The case was appealed, and yesterday the Judges reviewed, and reversed Judge Routhier's decision and fined Archambault fifty dollars. The Judges sitting on the review were Mondelet, Johnson and Torrance. A white man and a black woman occupied the dock this morning, and were called upon to answer for drunkenness. Wm. McKinney confessed to the charge in King's Square, and was fined $4. Bridget Hector, an old Sheffield street offender, was found drunk by Policeman McLaren, and cursing and swearing She, of course, denied the charge, and cross-examined the officer. The fact of her being drunk was proved, and a fine of $3 or two months imposed. "Jane Leader and Emma Clark, stand up," said the Magistrate, and up rose the two English girls that have of late supplied several items for the papers and were thus addressed: "This being brought to the Station for protection, and coming yourselves with complaints, in my opinion, is about played out. One day you come here with a complaint of an assault at Lily Lake, and try to implicate the police by insinuating that they refused to aid you. Next day you go to the Portland Police Court and have the officers running around for you. Then you appear here again with a complaint of assault and robbery. That same night you remain in the house belonging to the keeper of the Old Burial Ground with some man.

The illustrations are numerous and exquisitely wrought. What can be more beautiful than the one which reflects the enchanting spot where—

"Mand Muller on of supports of day."

"Mand Muller on of supports day."

"Maud Muller, on a summer's day. Raked the meadows a weet with hay:" One of those lovely New England landscapes, which the engraver has represented in outlines as beautiful and artistic as the song it adorns.

Conspicuous, also, for its rare beauty, is the illustration accompanying the "Song of the Brook," where he streamlet, dashing beneath the rustic bridge, goes chattering

"Over stony ways,
In little sharps and trebles."

* * * * * "Till last by Philip's farm it flows, To join the brimm ng river." Altogether, this is one of the most by the American press—a fitting gift for lover or friend; an attractive ornament
