Wanted—100 cords white ash staves.—Athens Lumber Yard.

An effort is being made to organize a new brass band in Smith's Falls.

Mrs. D. Woods and son, Hiram, of Oshanty, visited Athens friends on Monday.

Mr. Charles Wing, one of Athens' expert cheese-makers, returned home last week.

Mr. William Most is opening out a stock of groceries in the Berny store, one door west of Phil. Wilts's.

The merchants have already received a large quantity of their holiday goods which they are opening up daily.

In the Methodist church at Pembroke a young couple, both deaf and dumb, were married a few days ago.

Arrangements are in progress for the supply of the Anglican pulpit in this parish on Sunday next, and it is probable that services will be held as usual.

Dr. S. S. and Mrs. Cornell returned to Athens from New York on Thursday last, after an absence of three weeks.

Dr. H. S. Manhard, of Smith's Falls, has been appointed a deputy warden by the Ontario fish and game department.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to a large number of communicants in the Methodist church on Sunday morning.

A Halloween party at the home of Mrs. G. A. McClary, on Thursday evening, was highly enjoyed by a number of Athens young people.

On the afternoon of Thursday next, the ladies of the W.M.S. of the Methodist church will hold a parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. I. C. Algire.

A couple of bear hunters near Newboro shot in mistake a cow owned by Messrs. Tott Bros. Instead of getting a $50 bear skin they had to pay for the cow.

Court Echo I. O. F., Caintown, is to hold its annual squirrel hunt on November 21st. A big time is expected. Oysters will be in big demand about that time.

Shantymen and men to work in the mines are in great demand at Sudbury. It is reported that two of the Copper Cliff mines are not working on account of scarcity of men.

A correspondent says that as a result of somebody's blundering at Lombard Fair, Mrs. Abel Scott, of Addison, is looking for a piece of flannel which the secretary of the fair would like to locate.

Mr. Noah Shook had the misfortune cut off two of the toes of his left foot with an axe one day last week. The injured member were dressed by Dr. Harte, and are now progressing favorably towards recovery.

Mr. L. H. Graham, M.A., science master, has received from the Department of Inland Revenue a complete sample set of metric weights and measures, with chart, for use in the laboratory of the high school.

Communion service will be held in St. Paul's Presbyterian church on Sunday, November 16th, at 10 a.m. Preparatory service will be held in the basement of the church at 7:30 p.m. on the Friday evening preceding.

Halloween was duly observed by the young people of Athens. Quite a number of harmless pranks were played, but no damage was done. The old spirit of lawlessness that used to be rampant on this anniversary seems to be dying out, in this section at least.

Bathurst Agricultural Society has decided to buy improved sires for the use of members in improving their sheep and swine. This history repeats itself; for this is just the line of action adopted and carried out by the first agricultural society ever established in Leeds County.

An old resident of Leeds county passed away on the 25th ult. in the person of Mrs. Livingston, relict of the late Duncan Livingston, a pioneer. The deceased died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Cross, Smith's Falls. She was 86 years of age. She leaves a grown up family: Mrs. Cross, Smith's Falls; Miles Livingston, Neb.; and M. D., Morton, W. D. and Lawson, of Kitley.

The salmon season at Charleston Lake is over, and a careful review of the catches made leads to the conclusion that, while the number taken was not greater than other years, the fish have been much larger, on an average, showing, it is thought, that the imported fish are increasing more rapidly than the native variety. . . . The revival of good bass-fishing, which was pleasantly evident to many visitors to the lake during the past season, is something that should be perpetuated if possible. A rigid observance of the close season, and of the law respecting the number and minimum size of bass that may be taken, will do much to restore the excellent sport that, only a few years ago, could be had with this gamiest of game-fish. All anglers should unite in protecting the bass.

Mrs. Purvis and Miss Winnie Purvis, of Lyn, are visiting Dr. J. F. Purvis.

Too much Brockville "encouragement" deprived the people of Athens of their daily papers on Saturday.

J. Stratford and Roy Richards, of Harlem, have purchased a threshing machine from Jas. Holmes of Toledo.

L. N. Allen and Z. T. Gile, of Harlem, have gone on a hunting expedition to Snow Road, out on the K. & P.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley, of Watertown, N.Y., have removed to Athens, and reside on Elgin street, over Slack's grocery.

It is announced that the Brockville Trades and Labor Council will again place a full ticket in the field for the town council.

Miss Addie Brown has returned home from Rochester, N.Y., owing to the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. A. C. Brown.

Miss Victoria Steacy, of Warburton, spent Saturday and Sunday in Athens, the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. Fair, Victoria street.

The high school has received from the Minister of the Interior a set of the latest maps of the different provinces of the Dominion.

Miss Lillian Blackburn, of the nursing staff of the General Hospital, Montreal, is spending a short vacation with her mother here.

In the list of graduates of the Athens High School published last week the name of Miss Jennie Wilts should have appeared instead of J. Walker.

On Thursday the offerings on Brock cheese board were 1,335 white and 1,420 colored; total, 2,755. Sales on the board were 200 at 11¢, and 2,145 at 11 1/2¢, for both kinds.

A number of horses in this district have been affected with epizootic and several have died, including, recently, valuable animals belonging to Mr. E. Duffield and Mr. Jas. Latimer.

A number of Athenians spent a pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Taylor on Thursday, when a reception was accorded to Mr. and Mrs. E. Taylor on their return from their wedding trip to Boston.

One day last week a horse belonging to Rev. Jas. Lawson, of Addison, slipped its halter, and while enjoying its freedom in the yard, stepped in a hole and broke one of its fore-legs, near the ankle. Dr. Peat is treating it, and it stands a fair chance for recovery.

Surveyors have been three times over the proposed route of the new electric railway between Cornwall and Toronto and as soon as right of way in municipalities is secured construction will commence. It is possible that track-laying will begin next spring.

The choir of the Methodist church, twenty-two in number, was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. G. W. Beach, on Wednesday evening last. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening spent in playing games and other amusements. Several piano selections by Miss Jessie Taplin, a solo by Mrs. S. C. A. Lamb and a trombone solo by Mr. Sim Manhardt were much enjoyed by all present. All departed wishing their hostess many happy returns for the good time provided.

The announcement that at Athens Poultry Fair, on December 5th, higher prices would be paid than for years past will be good news to all interested. Square dealing and the highest figure the market would warrant have always characterized the purchase of poultry here, and there will no doubt be a large offering in Athens on the 5th. Bills will be issued in a few days giving full particulars. Up in Renfrew the town council are taking an interest in the poultry fair, and have voted the sum of $70 to advertise it.

Miss Myrtle Mills, a graduate of the Brockville Business College, has a position in Brockville. Mr. R. Robinson, another graduate, has a position in the same town. Miss Judson has a position in New York. The Brockville College always names students and states plainly where they go. Some schools make a bold statement about positions but the reader is left to wonder what kind of situations are obtained and where they are. For thorough work and straight forward business methods, the Brockville College is not surpassed.

The thunder storm of Thursday evening last will be long remembered by at least one family in Athens. About six p.m. lightning struck the residence of Mr. James Ackland, in the north end of the town, and passing down the stove-pipes, tore eight lengths of them asunder. Jumping from the pipes to the stairway it ran down to the parlor below, where it ripped up the carpet for several feet and scattered the furniture all over the room. Mrs. Ackland, who was sitting at the supper table, received a severe nervous shock. The house was filled with a bluish smoke which could be plainly smelled for several blocks.

Highest price in cash paid for all kinds of grain—Athens Grain Warehouse.

The Toronto Globe announces the engagement of Miss Emma E. Connor, of North Augusta, to Mr. Sidney E. Hessin, of Toronto.

Mrs. Wm. Johnston and Mrs. W. Elliot report their attendance at the provincial convention of the W. C. T. U., at Toronto, to have been very pleasant and profitable.

The Toronto Saturday Night says: Mr. T. H. Leavitt, the Conservative organizer, is very ill at his home, 521 Bloor street, Toronto. Mr. Leavitt's brother, Dr. A. S. Leavitt, is with him.

The Reporter is requested to warn farmers not to contract for the sale of their poultry, as there promises to be a number of buyers at the Athens fair on December 5th, and the top figure will be paid.

The many friends of Rev. Rural Dean Wright will be pleased to learn that he is convalescing very satisfactorily after his recent severe illness. He was able to go out of doors for the first time to-day.

The Sun, Ontario's leading agricultural weekly, contained a lengthy communication in its last issue from the pen of Mr. E. C. Bulford on the subject of cleanliness in the poultry house. The editor commended his methods.

Samuel Stan Merrick, a prominent citizen of Carleton Place, died suddenly on Saturday last. Deceased was a nephew of Mrs. Merrick, of Athens, by whom he was highly esteemed. The funeral at Merrickville on Tuesday was under the direction of the I. O. O. F.

On Tuesday morning of last week, Mr. Michael Garvin, a prosperous young farmer from near Toledo, was united in marriage to Miss Kate Healy, daughter of Mr. Francis Healy, of Smith's Falls, by the Rev. Father Kelly, in St. Francis de Sales church in that town.

The ladies of the W.C.T.U. are arranging for a silver medal contest, to be held on 17th November, the model class of this year to supply the elocutionists. The educational value of these contests is unquestionably great, and worthy of the extensive recognition it receives.

Mr. Fred Gorrell is visiting at his old home in Westport. He is now a government telegrapher in the Yukon. He reports "Junction Joe" Clarke's candidacy for parliament to be taken quite seriously, and that Joe has a large following among the miners, many of whom are opposed to the government.

Miss Jean Armstrong, of Lyn, visited friends in Athens last week. The primary object of her coming was to attend to the placing of a headstone, suitably inscribed, at the graves of the late Mr. and Mrs. Adam Armstrong. The stone was furnished and placed in position by Mr. A. E. McLean of the Athens Marble Works.

In the widespread suffering resulting from the coal strike, the people of Athens have reason to rejoice at their almost total immunity from its dire effects. At the present time, good hard-maple can be purchased at $2.00 per cord—an advance of only $0.20 on normal winter rates—and a good grade of soft wood sells at $1.50.

A couple of young ladies in Midland laid an information before the police magistrate, charging a young man with swearing on the street in their presence. The defendant was fined $1.00 and costs, the magistrate remarking that he had just been waiting for such a complaint, and he was determined in future offenders will be more severely dealt with.

A public meeting for the discussion of The Liquor Act, 1902, will be held in the high school hall on the evening of Monday, 10th November. Rev. George Stafford, of Cardinal, and Rev. G. S. Clendinning, of Elgin, will deliver addresses in support of the act, and opposition speakers are invited. Music will be furnished by Mr. L. H. Graham, M.A., Mr. S. Manhardt, and Rev. Mr. Stafford. A collection will be taken for campaign purposes. The general public invited.

The Reporter was in error last week in stating that pressing business engagements would prevent Mr. Phil. Halliday, of Elgin, from joining in the annual deer hunt. The memory of his bear-killing achievement of last season proved sufficient to overcome all objections to his trip, and he left Brockville on Wednesday with the rest of the party. A card received from Burke's Falls on Saturday announced that all were well and happy on their way to Lake Jag-a-jag—a me-sing-al-sing-everybody-sing.

John E. Steacy, who is working with a threshing machine in Lansdowne, gives the Gananoco Reporter the following figures, showing the possibilities in small farms properly managed:—Thos. E. Burns has 50 acres of lot 12, 5th concession, Lansdowne. On this land this year he raised 162 bushels wheat, 32 bushels peas, 943 bushels oats and barley, a total of 1,137 bushels of grain. He had 54 loads of hay, averaging one ton each, an acre of potatoes, an acre in orchard, and pastured 7 cows, 3 two-year-olds, and 4 horses.
