Since the first issue of this Index, the present editor has revised and corrected it up to date, the Nova Scotia Private Acts especially having been detailed at length. Furthermore, there have been included all Private Acts passed previous to Confederation. The Public Acts also have been extensively revised, and the editor feels confident that the present work is the most complete of its kind.

The editor here wishes to acknowledge the valuable assistance received in respect of matter previous to Confederation from T. P. Butler, Esquire, Advocate of the Montreal Bar.
