

to that Band, or from among those of their people who have absorbed more than their proper or fair proportion; and I have to desire you to send a copy of this letter to the Chiefs of said Band together with a copy of the list, and to exhort them to cooperate in the work of prevailing with their young men to become farmers, and thus do away with the imputation constantly directed against them, that
