

- Q You knew from his mental attitude he would say anything ?
A I knew nothing what he would say.
- Q But you were prepared for him to make a certain statement ?
A I was prepared for all kinds of wild statements.
- Q This same statement is the one you were interested in ?
A Yes. As far as I understand he must have repeated it. The gist is the same.
- Q You came back after 1500 hours ?
A Yes, sir.
- Q To the beer parlor ?
A Yes, sir.
- Q And went on drinking then for another hour or so ?
A No, sir. We sat there but we were not doing so much drinking.
- Q Just making ordinary conversation ?
A Yes, sir.
- Q How many beers do you think you drank ?
A I did not drink four beers all afternoon.
- Q How many did the accused drink ?
A I don't know.
- Q You don't remember that ?
A I didn't count them. I was away.
- Q How many after you came back ?
A I don't know.
- Q How many did you pay for ?
A I think I paid for about three or four rounds all afternoon.
- Q Who paid for the other rounds ?
A Sgt. Orcharde, I believe.
- Q How many did he pay for ?
A I have no idea.
- Q Did you put in an expense slip ?
A I think that is irrelevant. I paid it out of my own pocket, out of my expense account.
- Q How many beers did you charge for ?
A I could not say, sir.
- Q Would it be $5.00 ?
A No sir, nothing like that.
- Q You paid for four rounds ?
A I am not sure exactly, I think it was four I bought.
- Q That would be $1.60 ?
A Yes, sir.
- Q You put in the same expense account the amount Sgt. Orcharde paid ?
A I did not.
- Q He put it on his own account ?
A I imagine so.
- Q Did he put in an account for Corporal McPherson ?
A I don't know.
- Q He paid his own ?
A I don't know whether he bought or not.
