

INDEX

Greetings: their significance, 3;
superior quality of the angler's salutation, 5.
Grey, Sir Edward 38.

Habits: the pleasure of changing them, 15.

Hall, Bradnock, 161.

Hamlet, 110.

Hastings, Lady Elizabeth: her "liberal education," 119.

"Heart, A Contented," 214.

"Heart of Midlothian, The," 117.

Henry Esmond: romantic love in, 117.

Higginson, Colonel Thomas Wentworth: quoted, 98.

Honeymoon: a Norwegian, 175.

Houses: the disadvantage of living in them, 16; built by four-footed architects, 242.

Humour: as a means of grace, 79.

"Hypatia," 117.

"I Go A-Fishing," 163.

Indolence, defined, 223; the teachers of, 227.

Indvik Fjord, 190.

Irving, Washington: quoted, 84, 169.

James, William: His defence of chance, 12.

James of Scotland, 91.

Jeffries, Richard: quoted, 200.

Jefferson, Joseph: as an angler, 57; as fisherman, 268.

Jerkin, 180.

"John Inglesant," 117.

Johnson, Dr. Samuel: his word

"clubbable," 63; quoted, 108.

"Jungle Books, The," 117.

Kant, Emmanuel: his rules for talk, 69.

Kariol, 180, 185.

Katahdin, Mount, 258.

King, Clarence: a good talker, 69.

"King Lear," 116.

Kingsley, Charles, 150.

Kinsman Mountain, 204.

Lafayette, Mount, 203.

Lake George: a scene on, 11.

Lakes named:

George, 11, 179.

Loenvand, the, 190.

Moosehead, 128, 250.

Pharaoh, 139.

Rangeley, 131.

St. John, 50.

Lamb, Charles: quoted, 2; his essays, 94, 153.

"Land of Steady Habits, The," 15.

Landaff valley, 204.

Long, Mr. Andrew: his "Angling Sketches," 162.

Life: reflections, chiefly upon its uncertainty, 14, 21, 35, 36, 103; the philosophy of a quiet life, 223-226.

"Little Flowers of St. Francis," quoted, 21.

Loenvand, the, 190.

Long Island: a good place to cure insomnia, 213.

"Lorna Doone," 117, 162.

Love: romantic love not the "greatest thing in the world," 118.

Lovers: sudden appearance of, in the landscape in spring, 108; their relation to the landscape, 108; charm added to the landscape by, 108; society arranged for their convenience, 109.