The Main Problem of the Present World Struggle

By VLADISLAV R. SAVIC

Introduction by NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER, of Columbia University

12mo, cloth, net $1.50

"A book which makes appeal to every intelligent reader who wishes to have the knowledge necessary to form an independent opinion as to the conditions on which durable peace shall rest. M. Savic is a native Serb, who, through service as correspondent of the English press, has been brought in close touch with British public opinion."

—Pres. Nicholas Murray Butler.

ARMENIA: A Martyr Nation

By M. C. GABRIELIAN

12mo, cloth, net $1.75

An exceptionally informative history of the Armenian nation from its earliest days to recent tragic days. Himself an Armenian, the author has brought together the salient features in his country's tragic story in able fashion throughout. The book is one of extraordinary interest.

In the Land of Ararat

A Sketch of the Life of Mrs. Elizabeth Barrows Ussher a Martyr of the Turkish Massacre at Van

By JOHN OTIS BARROWS

Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, net $1.00

"In these days of world conflict, the readers who have been in the hair-breadth escapes and wonderful experiences of Dr. Clarence D. Ussher, cannot but be interested in this story of the life of his wife, who crowned a career of remarkable usefulness by giving in sacrifice all that was naturally dearest to her, in her effort to save from suffering and death the families of those who had tried to kill herself and her children."

—The Chronicle.

Russia in Transformation

By ARTHUR J. BROWN, D.D.

12mo, cloth, net $1.00

"We have more reason to be interested in Russia just now than in any other country except our own. Doctor Brown writes with discrimination and brings into its proper relation with the story those spiritual features which are so important and so little understood."—The Advance.

"A timely book full of just the questions that everybody is asking about Russia."—Congregationalist.
