

LAKE GEORGE.

BROWN'S HALF-WAY HOUSE.

Visitors at

LAKE GEORGE,

By driving down to

BROWN'S,

FOUR MILES ON THE PLANK ROAD,

Will pass the battle ground of

Gen's. Johnson and Dieskau, Bloody Pond, and Rocky Brook,

The place of the ambuscade and death of

COL. WILLIAMS AND KING HENDRICK, IN SEPT., 1755.

They can also visit the place of the

STOCKADE AT THE FOUR MILE POST,

BUILT BY ABERCROMBIE, IN 1758,

And the scene of an Engagement and Capture

BY THE FRENCH AND INDIANS IN THE SAME YEAR,

And by driving to the

CORNING ORE BED,

About a mile distant, persons may witness the interesting process of

SINKING A SHAFT.

Refreshments of all kinds at the Hotel, and dinners for parties gotten up at very short notice.

GEORGE BROWN, Proprietor.
