

ST. LAWRENCE HALL
MONTREAL

THIS HOTEL, which is famed in the annals of Montreal, and well known to all North-American travellers, is, for situation, the best in the City, being next to the General Post Office, near to the principal Banks and Public Buildings, the Law Courts and Commercial Exchanges, Railroad and Telegraph Offices.

It has recently been re-taken by MR. HENRY HOGAN, its former proprietor, who has thoroughly renovated it, added all the modern improvements, and newly furnished it.

He has associated with himself, as Manager, MR. SAMUEL MONTGOMERY, a gentleman already well known to the travelling community, and from his past experience as a caterer for the public, is justified in assuring his guests that they will find at the St. Lawrence Hall every comfort that an hotel is capable of affording.

SAM'L MONTGOMERY,
