ter and let simmer until onions are over pan in which soft—from forty to sixty minu Mash in a sieve over pan in w they were stewed, add one cup of milk, and when hot cook one scant tablespoonful of flour in one table-spoonful of butter; add the liquid gradually until thin enough to put into the whole. Add one tablespoonful of salt and one-fourth of a spoonful of pepper. Onions will stand a great-deal of pepper. Just before serving, beat the yolk of one egg with one cup-ful of cream and stir them quickly as it is taken from the fire.

BREADED LIVER.

When frying liver and bacon, try cooking the liver in the following manner, and you will be surprised how tender it will be. It will be as tender as chicken liver and will not curl up and get hard. Dip first in egg and then in cracker crumbs and fry a golden brown. This makes an excellent dish

NUT WAFERS.

Beat 2 eggs and cream them with a pound of brown sugar, then stir in a rounding tablespoonful and a half of flour which has been sifted with a quarter of a teaspoonful of baking powder and a saltspoonful of salt. Add a cupful of English walnuts or pecan nuts broken in small bits. Drop the mixture on buttered tins, placing a whole nut meat on the top of each, and bake until a nice brown color and cooked through sufficiently.

OUR HOME CLUB

Games for the Family

The farm home is one of the most The farm home is one of the most important features of our Canadian life. From it go the first men and women of our land and what is inculcated in them, will be handed down "to generations yet unborn."

Where there is a family of boys and girls, outdoor sports should be indulged in, in abundance during the summer. Lawn tennis howling croquet.

Some will say it is all very well to talk of such games when I am out pitching hay or hoeing turnips, but then these games are so different in exercise, that before you have played the first game to a finish you will forcet you were ever tired. I know what I am talking about too. I have been I am talking about too. I have been in an office working until six o'clock, then going home, taking tea, when I was too weary to eat; take a good bath and change of clothes and presto change I could play croquet when we had to tie handkerchiefs around the hoops to distinguish them and at ten clock I felt fine. Now I am on a farm with the charge of a house and nine or ten persons to keep well fed, three and sometimes four times a day. At 7.30 or 8 o'clock I am usually ready for my bed, but then there is the croquet lawn just outside the door and a few nicees and nephews and my own boy clamoring for just two games and before I am aware of the fact, it is past their bed time. After seeing them safely tucked in for the night, I start a letter to our Home Club, but I will not send more until "The Doctor," "Aunt Faithie," and a few others write.

WHEN BOYS STAY ON THE FARM. Very often boys stay at home on the farm without the slightest idea of what they are to get, eiher by the year or when the farm is divided. This in my mind is very far from right because every boy should work with some definite aim.

It is a sad thing for a young man to stay at home until he is probably twenty-five and then to find out that twenty-nive and then to find out that the farm is mortgaged heavily and there is nothing before him but drudgery to pay off this mortgago... Then again he may wish to start up a house of his own and he has either to bring his choice home, or to go to town and work for some one else at town and work for some one eise at laboring wage because he thinks he is too old to learn a tride or profession. Why not take the boys into your confidence and have a definite understanding so that they will know exactly what they are doing?—"The Doctor."

VOTES FOR WOMEN.

I have spent my spare time of late I have spent my spare time of late in reading the letters of the various members of the Home Club. I like the way "Aunt Faithie" touches the auto question. She is certainly on the right track. I wonder if she could be persuaded to give us her ideas on that all pervading theme, "Votes for be persuaded to give us her ideas on that all pervading theme, "Votes for Women." I may be able to send my own opinions on the same subject soon. —"Uncle Dick."

When covering an ironing board make it on the principle of a pillow slip, making it the shape of the board and very tight to prevent wrinkling. It is a good plan to have several of these covers, so they can be frequently changed and laundered.
