THOMAS THOMPSON. Toronto, Oct. 18, 1834. 24 A ENERAL CLOTHING ESTAB-LISHMENT, No. 71 King Street, East of the Market Square, Toronto .--ROBERT HAWKE returns thanks to his friends and the public in general for the very liberal encouragement he has received since his commencement in business, and has at present a neat assortment of ready made clothing of various sizes and descriptions, made of the best materials, under his own immediate inspection, which can be warranted prime articles. His Summer Clothing is neatly and carefully put up, which he has no doubt will give general satiafaction, and gain himself the continuance of that support he has so liberally received to the present; and as he is determined to sell, not only his Clothing, but his Fancy and Dry Goods, at a low profit, he flatters himself that general satisfaction will be given to purchasers.
