Cleaning out the flues of most furnaces is so difficult and complicated that only an expert can do it, and experts' services usually come high. The flues in the Sunshine Furnace can be cleaned from two different clean-out doors and from the feed-door, so that there is no part of the flues which is not easily reached.

A special brush for this purpose is always supplied, and the operation is so simple that a boy can perform it.

The whole Sunshine Furnace construction is on the same plan of simplicity.

Shropshires at West Midland

Show. The sheep section at this show is one of its leading features, and here we find the very best exhibition of Shropshire sheep. Here your representative had the pleasure of renewing acquaintance with Mr. Telfer, of Telfer Bros., Canada, who is thus far the first Canadian sheep man we have met this season.

The proverb, "blood will tell," was well confirmed in the result of the contest in a notably good class of twentythree yearling rams, the winner being a splendid sheep from Mr. H. B. Manders' flock. This grand ram won the blue ribbon of the Shropshire show season, the Mansell memorial challenge cup, and certainly makes a fitting successor to many illustrious sheep which in former years have won this coveted trophy. To show how blood tells, we give a bit of reference to his pedigree : his dam was one of Mr. A. E. Mansell's choice stud ewes, and was purchased at the dispersal This grand sale at Harrington Hall. ewe was the dam of that notable Mansell ram, Blood Royal, sold for a very high figure for export, and she traces right away back to the very best foundation stock of the late Mr. Mansell. Mr. R. P. Cooper's second winner was another excellent ram, as also was Mr. M. Williams' third winner, one of the very best in the class, in respect to quality of fleece. Pens of three yearling rams produced a grand entry. Here the winners, Sir P. A. Muntz's pen, though big, upstanding and masculine sheep, failed to carry popular opinion with them, the preference at the ringside being freely given to the trio that won second honors for Mr. B. Wall's flock, which were much better in fleece, shoulders, quality and type. Mr. R. P. Cooper's pen did full credit to his well-known flock, being matchy and good. Mr. E. Nock, with two pens, one fourth, the other h. c., had a. splendid lot of sheep. Mr. R. P. Cooper went ahead in the two-shear ram class, with the low-down, wide and deep, blocky type, with a grand fiece and leg of mutton. Mr. M. Williams, however, with one of special merit and quality, ran the winner very close, leaving only the barren honor of r. n. for Sir P. A. Muntz's very masculine ram, whose weight and substance, with good top, made him a ram of considerable value. The yearling ewe class, as a whole, was of special merit, every pen being included in the award list. The winners in this grand class, it is needless to say, were most superior, but when so well known a breeder and judge as Mr. W. Barrs, who officiated as judge, says, "They are the best pen I have seen for years," no further comment is necessary to disclose their great merit, and Mr. R. P. Cooper, their owner and breeder, fully deserves the special distinction this pen gained, being first in so grand a class; the
