CURES AT LOURDES SHRINE IN LONDON AIRE REPORTED

London, October 24.—There has been quite a sensation in the daily press regarding the many miraculous cures effected after intercession to Our Lady of Lourdes at her shrine at a Dockhead church in the East End...

The latest cure is that of a child with a club foot. Several others are known. Canon Murnane himself was saved from death's door after a night spent in prayer at the shrine...

Non-Catholics, and even some Catholics, are surprised that this is effected at a replica of Lourdes, but they are thus reminded of the personality which is as near London as original shrine in the Pyrenees.

A Mesalliance. By Katharine Tynan. Lightness of touch, agreeable and amusing people, a pretty plot are all here, as always, in a new novel by Katharine Tynan. Memorials of Robert Hugh Benson. By Blanche Warrs Cornish, Shane Leslie, and other of his friends. A beautiful tribute to Father Benson by his friends. The book contains a number of anecdotes and notes. "Deer Jane." By Isabel Cecilia Williams. A simple tale very pleasantly told. It is refreshing in its simple pathos and expression and true feeling. All who enjoy a clean, wholesome and stirring tale ought to read "Deer Jane." The Honor of the House. By Mrs. Hugh Fraser and J. J. Stahlmann. In the ancient and arid Palazo Bontaleuca with the wonderful Roman gardens, is laid the scene of a story of treachery and loyalty, duplicity and upright fortitude, cruelty and wonderful devotion, that is thoroughly Italian in the heights and depths of human nature that it discloses. Pioneers of the Cross in Canada. By Dean Harris. The author deals with the early tribes of Canada, their mode of living, their habits, manners and customs; the coming of the missionary fathers, their labours, trials and sacrifices, and the martyrdom in the wilderness of the heroic Breabur, Jacques, Latham and Garnier. This is a historical work having all the attraction of an epic story.
