

SHOETOWN BOYS IN THE KILTIES.

Front row, sitting (left to right)—John Melver, Thomas A. Drover, Frederick D. Spooner, W. Hoy, G. W. Ross, William Finch, John Cunningham, Reuben H. Wells, Middle row (left to right)—E. Lakin, E. Nicholl, Frederick William Crosscup, William Mageary, John Tulloch, J. McNaught, Albert Parker, William Lakin, Rear row—J. Adkin, H. Campbell, William Nichols, F. Lakin, J. Douglas, E. Holt, Wilfred Parker.

29th. 1140 all ranks transferred from Valcartier to Citadel and 5 to Levis.

OCTOBER

- 2nd. Brigadier General A. O. Fages, G. O. C. M.D. No. 5 holds an inspection of all troops at Valcartier Camp on the Plateau. Half holiday.
- 8th. Thanksgiving day.
- 9th. Strike tents, preparatory to leaving Valcartier. Officers and men billeted at Khaki Club for the night.

- 10th. Battalion departs from Valcartier and Quebec arriving at Montreal in evening. Takes up quarters in Peel Street, Barracks.
- 13th. Over half the Battalion starts on final leave. C. P. R. provides special train for New England boys. Brass and Pipe bands play for returned soldiers at Windsor St. Station.
- 14th. Ross Rifles returned to Ordnance. Church parades, Protestant party to Douglas Methodist Church, Roman Catholics, to St. Patricks.

What night was Sgt. H-lm-s so anxious about an automobile? The night he drank the Adjutant's ink?

— 0 —

Sgt. Perrin wants to know who threw the bottle on the way up from Fredericton—so does the conductor.

