

"I wish I could be with you tonight. I have no doubt of the verdict which will be given by the County of Brant and the City of Brantford on Monday next. Tell the people that I thank them heartily for the sympathy which I have received, and that with my renewed health and vigor I will give the people of Ontario the same faithful service as in the past"—Message from Ontario's Premier to W. S. Brewster, Thursday night.

IN HAM'S OWN DISTRICT W. S. BREWSTER GOT GREAT OVATION

Temper of Ward Four Was Evidenced Last Night.

Rain Failed to Stop Cheering for Conservative Cause

That Ward 4 that good old Conservative Ward is going to remain behind Brewster again in this election was ably demonstrated last evening at the rousing Conservative rally held in Recreation Park. The rain had threatened at first to put a damper on the meeting, but even the elements could not dampen the enthusiasm of the Conservatives of Ward 4, and so it was that a large crowd and a sprinkling of women of Ward 4, were waiting when the speakers arrived. The crowd grew in volume until there were between six and seven hundred present, three times the number which had turned out the night before to hear the Liberal candidates and the speakers.

The band of the Dufferin Rifles brought a good following down to the park with them, and the meeting was from every point of view one of the most successful, Brewster meetings of the campaign. The crowd seemed to be filled with enthusiasm and there was always a ready cheer for the candidate or for any strong point made by the speakers. A ring of Liberal hecklers entrenched themselves in a dark corner of the field and at the first part of the meeting caused some annoyance, but on being invited to come out of the dark and up to the platform they slunk away and were not heard from again. As said before the meeting was very enthusiastic and both longer in numbers and more enthusiastic than the Ham meeting held on the same ground only the night before. The fighting spirit of the grand old Conservative party was evidenced everywhere last night, and when ex-Mayor Hartman, who was chairman, called for cheers for Brewster there went up three cheers from the crowd supplemented with a "tiger" but not one voice was raised to cheer for Ham.

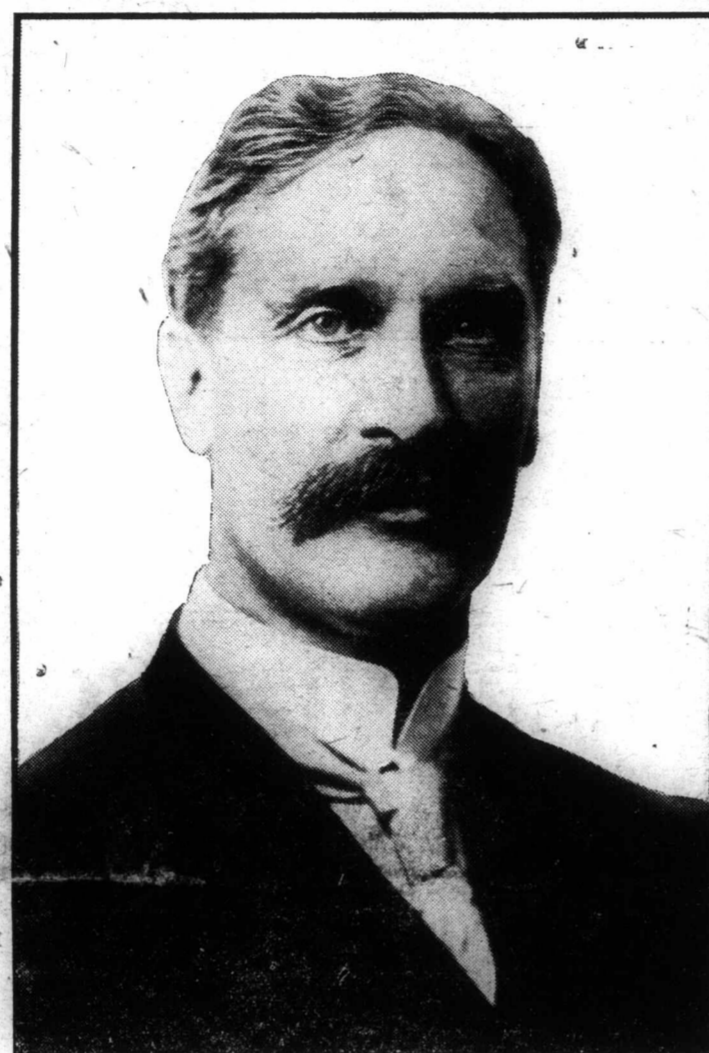

The speeches were all attentively listened to and all were punctuated with rounds of applause from the audience. Ex-Mayor Hartman acted as chairman and splendid fighting campaign speeches were made by Mr. R. T. Hall, Capt. M. Colquhoun, Mayor Spence, Mr. Brewster and Mr. Cockshutt. The ring of victory was in the air and the boundless enthusiasm and the bound-to-win spirit of the addresses were soon communicated to the crowd and each and every point made by any of the speakers was the signal for an outburst of applause.

Mr. Hall received a royal welcome from the residents of Ward 4, and he made a capital speech touching particularly on the temperance catchcry of the Liberals, as compared with the sound steady, temperance policy of Sir James Whitney.

Capt. M. Colquhoun spoke on the Workmen's Compensation Act and declared as a workingman to workingmen that "we can no longer afford to be led astray on side issues such as 'abolish the bar,' but we should stand behind this government of Sir James Whitney, regardless of our politics and give him our hearty support for the introduction of that act."

Mr. Brewster received a hearty reception from the audience when he rose to speak and in a stirring speech showed up the two-faced stand of the Liberal party in regard to temperance. Splendid speeches were also made by Mayor Spence and Mr. Cockshutt. It was truly an "eve of the election" gathering and the citizens of Ward 4 showed by the meeting that they are going to stand behind Mr. Brewster, when they go to the polls on Monday.

CHANGE THE SYSTEM

Protection to Royalty at Buckingham Palace Has Been Faulty.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] MONTREAL, June 27—A London cable to the Daily Mail says: When the King leaves London the whole system of protection at Buckingham Palace will be overhauled. There is, of course, no need for panic, but recent events have shown that the palace is by no means as secure as it ought to be. Not only has a man got inside, but the militants have smashed a window, and others got across the court yard before they were captured. The household, and Scotland yard as well, hails the removal of the court with profound relief.

Take slug of a catch-cry, a little insincerity, sweeten or bitter it with the French language, according to taste, shake it up in the pulpit and force it down the throats of the people. It has got to be taken while it is fizzing.

POSTERS ARE CONDEMNED AS RANK DISGRACE

In Meaford Indignation Was Great That They Were Covered up.

MEAFORD, Ont., June 26—Condemned as a disgrace to the Liberal party, N. W. Rowell's "Is That You Daddy?" posters, depicting a drunken man reeling outside a bar-room with his little boy standing wistfully by, have been covered up in Meaford. This action was taken on instructions from Mr. Rowell after local Liberals had vented their indignation. From the office of a Toronto publishing firm under instructions from Mr. Rowell these posters have been circulated all over the province.

Meaford was no exception. Some days ago W. J. Robinson, who acted as organizer for the liquor interests here in two local option fights, and is now siding with Mr. Alberry, the Liberal candidate, made a request for billboard space to the Meaford Bill-posting company. Matters were arranged and the posters were put up. But the posters were a boomerang. Decent Liberals expressed themselves in strong language about them, and there was something approaching a row in the Liberal organization. The result was that Mr. Alberry made a demand two days ago that they be covered. He was told that instructions from Toronto were necessary. The long distance phone was hurriedly pressed into service, and two hours later came the following telegram to the bill poster: "Cover abolish-the-Bar" posters at once. Writing." This was followed by the following letter "We have to-day received instructions from Mr. Rowell's office that he wishes the posters in Meaford to be covered at once." The posters were covered.

THE WESTERN CROPS

From All Reports Will Break All Previous Records.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] WINNIPEG, Man., June 27—John Bury, vice-president in charge of the Western lines of the C.P.R., has returned from an extended trip through the west. Asked about the crops he said: "It must be remembered that this year there are one and three-quarter million more acres sown in grain in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta than last year, making a total of almost twenty-one million acres."

From close observation and inquiry from the company's agents and many farmers he has no hesitation in saying that the crop is making excellent progress and with favorable weather conditions, the largest amount of grain ever harvested is in sight.

Sir James Whitney Makes a Plea to Electors Against Schemes of the Preacher-Politicians

TORONTO, June 27.—Sir James Whitney, Ontario's Premier and grand old man, last night issued the following to the electors of the Province:

"The great majority of the clergymen of Ontario are entitled to and have the confidence of the people. But a small minority among them, anxious above everything else to turn my Government out of office, are not ashamed to come out openly and denounce from their pulpits, in violent and unbecoming language, all who dare to support the Government as bad citizens and bad men.

"In a British and Christian country such conduct is intolerable, and I respectfully call upon all self-respecting men in their congregations to resent this conduct in a way that these men will never forget."—J. P. WHITNEY.

WESTBROOK WILL CARRY TOWN OF PARIS BY A BIG MAJORITY

North Brant's Candidate for Good Gov't

No Doubt About That After Meeting Last Night.

Liberal Campaign in North Brant a Contemptible One

That Paris will give John W. Westbrook a bigger majority than ever on Monday next, was evidenced last night when a great meeting was held for the cause of continued Good Government in Ontario. In Paris, as in Brantford, the Liberal campaign has been one of misrepresentation, and it remained for Mr. Westbrook, who was the last speaker of the evening, to thoroughly expose the despicable nature of the campaign being waged against him. The crowd which filled Arlington Park theatre to capacity, was wildly enthusiastic. The splendid speeches of Col. J. Z. Frazer of Burford and A. W. Wright of Toronto, had telling effects. Dr. Lovatt made a splendid chairman and he was backed up on the platform by J. H. Fisher, M. P., A. W. Wright, Toronto, Col. J. Z. Fraser, Burford, and many prominent Paris people.

Doctor Lovatt, introducing the speakers, spoke briefly and took occasion to correct an impression credited by the Grit organization as to his views on temperance. "Temperance and abolition were totally different issues, and while he had given his support in the past to the local option movement, he could not reconcile himself to the political aspect of the question as presented in the present campaign." Mr. Rowell was asking for support on this because he could not claim it on his records in the past. He wanted votes for promises, whereas the Conservatives were asking for a mandate to further the good work they had already done.

Col. Fraser, on being called upon to speak, received an ovation. He heartily thanked the audience for their kindness, and then in splendid style proceeded to show how far the Liberal party had kept its election promises in the past, and scored quite a few hits over those reverend gentlemen whose gullibility had enabled the Grit party to use them as tools in a political issue.

This is a most peculiar contest, he said, one of the most peculiar of many he had helped to fight in this province, and, as usual, the spectacle presented itself of a discredited party attempting to raise all the dust possible to obscure the main issues. For this purpose they had dragged in the liquor traffic. Fortunately there is in the make-up of our citizens something which enables them to see through the humbug and clap-trap of cheap electioneering tactics.

He was and always had been consistently and strictly a temperance man, though he never could favor such a parliamentary policy, based as it was, not on an electorate wish, but on the instigation of the political figure heads of a party, lacking merit and ready to make use of the handiest and by no means fairest methods of returning to power.

Reverend gentlemen never rose to address their congregations; but they apologized for speaking on such a subject, and taking side with a political party. Why should they? There was no reason for it; we are all trying to do our best for this great province

FRENCH OF QUEBEC SEEKING LARGE PART OF THIS PROVINCE

Campaign to Force Official Recognition of French in the Public Schools is Only the First Step in a Definite Plan to Surge Into Province, Drive the English Back and Take Possession of the Eastern Counties—Admission of French Language to the Schools is Only Factor To-day Holding Back a Great Movement of French-speaking People.

OTTAWA, June 26.—The bilingual school is the dominant issue in the provincial election as far as Eastern Ontario is concerned, and the Rowell temperance policy is scarcely heard of on the public platform. What is recognized in this part of the province, in Ottawa particularly, is that the whole campaign on behalf of the French language in Ontario is being largely directed an financial from Quebec, and that it is the latest and most aggressive stage of a movement that has been going on for many years. This movement has for its object the placing of the French language on an official equality with English everywhere in Canada.

It is a movement that has become more prominent during the last year or so because of the more open demand made by those prominent in its furtherance. Even the floor of Parliament has not been free from its influence. Time and again during the last two or three sessions French members, whose knowledge of English was perfect, would demand that sessional papers be printed in French before they would allow business to proceed. Time and again there have been demands for new privileges of this kind. These happenings have not passed unnoticed.

Bilinguals Are Part of the Plot
Another evidence of the whole plot is seen in the bilingual school difficulty in Eastern Ontario. This was fomented by the same people who are making demands on the floor of Parliament, together with allies in the Province of Quebec. Every effort was made to force the Whitney Government into making concessions. When these concessions were refused negotiations were entered into with the Rowell forces. By that party the bilingual element was promptly taken up. Mr. Rowell and his friends be-

"Come back as I have, in God's mercy, from the shadows of the dark valley, I am more than ever impressed with what I owe to the good people of the Province of Ontario. They have given me an opportunity to be of some service to the State, and they have given me their confidence in full measure, filled up, shaken together and running over, and as long as my health and strength are vouchsafed to me I shall be at their disposal, and shall endeavor to give them the same faithful service as in the past. I thank them again, and I thank you, my friends, whatever are your political affiliations. And with a heart full to overflowing I say: May God bless you, every one."—Sir James Whitney
