Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason.

TALKING TOO MUCH.

I often wring my hands and mourn, and oftentimes I get in dutch, and all the troubles I have borne have come because I talked too much. I can't restrain my eager jaws, when there's a chance to spring hot air; I argue every human cause, and every subject, everywhere. The less I know about a theme, the more warm platitudes I shed, I talk until my hearers scream, and bounce a brickbat on my head. I used to have good friends in town, with high class men I was in touch, but now they always turn me down; it is because I talk too much. I see our leading business men conceal themselves when I draw near; they will not show themselves again until they find the landscape clear. When I arise to hand out slush, to make a little timely speech, the auditors get up and rush for all the fire escapes in reach. I know it's my besetting sin, this thing of talking all the day; but when at spieling men begin, it's mighty hard to break away. I'm always trying to reform, but when I see a chance to talk, I paw around and rant and storm, and push pink language round the block. Then people bat me on the dome with wooden leg and club and crutch, and tell me I should toddle home, and stay there for I talk too much.

SOME RARE STAMPS.

First Issue of Hawaiian Islands Known as "Missionaries."

The first postage stamps of the Hawaiian Islands were set up from ordinary printers 'type, at the local printing office in Honolulu, and, from the fact that the principal correspondents in the islands at that time were the American missionaries, have been handed down to posterity under the sobriquet of "Missionaries."

Of the two-cents value of this issue, printed on this bluish paper only about a dozen copies are in existence, as practically the whole stock of this value was destroyed shortly after their issue. Its value is between $3,500 and $4,000.

The somewhat bizarre circular stamps issued in the Danubian principality of Moldavia in July, 1858, prior to its incorporation in Roumania, with the device of a star, bull's head and posthorn, are held in high esteem by stamp collectors and are all highly priced.

The rarest of the set is, however, the 81 para, hand-struck on blue wove paper, which, in unused condition, is valued at $1,500. Out of a total printing of 2,000 copies of this stamp, only 1,173 were sold.

Prior to the appearance of the general issue for Switzerland under the Federal Administration in 1850, particular postage stamps were issued by several of the principal cantons, commencing with Zurich in March, 1843, whose 4-rappen black on red with vertical background is valued at $250.

Rarest among these local cantonal stamps, is, however, the celebrated "Double Geneva," of the value of 10 cents, printed in black and green and composed of two divisable portions, each valid for 5 centimes postage. An undivided "Double Geneva," in unused condition, is priced by a leading catalogue at $375, and used at $140. The half stamp, used for 5 centimes, is worth only $25.

Similarly, in the United States, a number of local postmasters issued stamps on their own initiative to facilitate the keeping of postal accounts during the two or three years immediately preceding the first Government issue.

Almost all of these "Postmaster Stamps," with the exception of those of New York and Providence, R.I., are of considerable rarity, and are much sought after by specialists in United States postage stamps.
