WOLFVILLE, N.S., DEC. 12, 1890.

Local and Provincial.

See Xmas Bazar adv. in this issue.

Mr. Barpee Witter has had a handsome new sign placed over the door of his millinery store this week by our artist, Mr. Killam.

Mr. Jas. W. Masters and family, of Church St., have moved to Wolfville this week, and are living in the house of Mr. Desbarres, on Keene street.

The Board of revision and appeal completed the review of the assessment rolls of the various wards in this county on Monday last. No change was made in any of the rolls.

Just received, Shad and Herring, in half-barrels, at F. J. PORTER'S.

Mr. J. L. Franklin has sold his place to Mr. C. M. Vaughan, of Wallbrook, who will move to Wolfville in the spring. Mr. Franklin will buy and build a residence for himself next summer.

Xmas Tamarinds at F. J. PORTER'S. 5 lbs. American Lamps just in at F. J. PORTER'S.

Mr. John W. Vaughan has purchased from Mr. C. H. Borden the lot next the store of the latter. The lot is a valuable one and when built on will add to the appearance of the place. Mr. Vaughan intends building next spring.

The Grace Dean McLeod, who has been gaining an enviable reputation as a Canadian story writer, has now in the hands of the publishers, Messrs Lythrop & Co., a new book of Acadian tales. Miss McLeod's home is at Berwick.

The usual rhetorical exhibition of the Junior class of the College is to take place in College Hall, on Wednesday evening of next week. A programme of music has been prepared for the occasion, and the affair will no doubt be a pleasant one.

Pipes, Cigars and Smokers' Sundries finest stock in town, at R. PRAT'S. Your 4-gal. oil can filled with the best American Oil for $1 cash at F. J. PORTER'S.

The rooms of St. George's Lodge, A. F. & A. M., are undergoing thorough repairs this week under the direction of Mr. Dakin, of Windsor. We understand that quite an amount of money has been expended, and the rooms will no doubt look very nice when finished.

Tea Sets, 44 pieces, from $2.90 to $4.90 at F. J. PORTER'S. Day year Cups and Saucers at the Wolfville Bookstore, and get bargains.

The C. V. railway station is nearly completed. Carpenters are now working on the platform. The track has been extended past the station to the street and another switch will be put in. The road is now equipped with 12 flat cars, 8 box cars, and one engine, and passenger car, with two more to arrive—Star.

Rev. Dr. Hill is in excellent health for a man of his age. He is blessed with a retentive memory, and can refer with great accuracy to his first charge in the ministry at Niagara, Annapolis Co., N. S. The doctor is a living epistle; no one can join him in conversation without being impressed that he has lived a life, which is life indeed. He is a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost.—St. John's Gazette.

K. D. C. at G. H. Wallace's. BARGAINS—Tea Sets (best white ware, 44 pieces) $2.50; China Cup and Saucers 10 cents; Table Lamps (tall) 25 cents; at R. PRAT'S.

Some time ago the Ottawa Political Debating Society, of Ottawa, offered three prizes for the best essays on a political subject. There were 562 contestants in the competition and the second prize was awarded to Mr. J. L. Masters, of Church Street, a member of the Senior class at Acadia. The subject of Mr. Master's essay was "Future Destinies of Canada." We extend congratulations to Mr. Masters on his success.

K. D. C. at G. H. Wallace's. TAKE NOTICE—If your razor is dull take it to J. M. Shaw's Barber Shop and he will put it in first-class order for the small sum of 15c. 10.

The above are guaranteed not to become moss-grown, discolored with age and not to crack with frost. All inscriptions being in raised letters, will remain legible. There is but one grade of metal used, and not containing iron in any form can not rust. Are endorsed by scientists.

Sales in Canada last season were over 50 per cent of previous years. In the United States there are six large establishments for the manufacture of the above, in which over 20 large soldiers' monuments were made in 1889, ranging in price from $1,000 to $6,000, besides a large number of family monuments and other cemetery work. Prices depend on size and style.
