It is with sorrow that we record this week the death of Mrs John F. Godfrey which occurred on Wednesday night. The deceased had been gradually failing in health and strength during the winter and spring, a victim of the dread consumption. The heartfelt sympathy of the community at large goes out to the bereaved husband and family in their sore bereavement.

The death of Mr James Woodman, an aged and highly respected citizen of this place, took place on Saturday last. Mr Woodman had an attack of paralysis a few years ago and his health since has been somewhat impaired. He was unable to be in town, however, a day or two before his death, which occurred quite suddenly. He was 75 years of age. The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon.

Ladies' Whitewear, Blouses and Shirt Waists at the Glasgow House. See adv. Nearly everyone about town knows "Teddy" Armstrong, the bright little son of Mrs J. F. Armstrong, and his disappearance on Tuesday evening last was the cause of much anxiety on the part of the townspeople generally, as well as his mother. His absence was first noticed by his mother about dark. A search party started out as soon as the fact of his disappearance became known, and looked for several hours in vain. Finally some one suggested looking on the old schooner Buzz, which has been lying at the wharf all winter. They did so and found the little fellow slumbering peacefully on board before dark, and being tired after finishing his tour of inspection, had fallen asleep.

Of the two hundred men who are to represent the Canadian militia at the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebration in London, four are to be taken from Co. 9 of Wolfville. Sergt. Robinson, Sergt. Workman and Private O'Key, will probably be three of the number, but it is not yet known who will be the fourth. The 68th battalion had the right to send four men, and the choosing of them all from Company 9, is a great compliment to the Wolfville boys. Capt. Taylor, as well as the town generally, should be proud of the company.
