How the T. Eaton Co. Observed Armistice Day

The big plant of the T. Eaton Co., Toronto, ceased work for two minutes Armistice Day when the 13,000 employees observed the interval in memory of the glorious dead who sleep on the battlefields of France and Flanders. The store, factories and warehouse were closed, and every door was locked on the stroke of 11 o'clock. In the centre of the main store the Eaton Choral Society sang the National Anthem and Praise God From Whom All blessings Flow. Meanwhile the employees stood behind the counters, thousands of shoppers stood still, the men with bared heads while the women bent reverently. Another choir sang in the large furniture building. It was a deeply affecting scene, and many an eye was dimmed with tears.

Operations Avoided

The Possibility of Fatal Results Prevented

In kidney troubles, the surgeon's knife should be the last resort. Kidney trouble can be relieved in a wonderful way by treating in time with the most efficient of all preparations for toning up and rebuilding weak and diseased kidneys—Gin Pills.

Gin Pills are free from all traces of alcohol. They contain Juniper and seven other diuretics and antiseptics. Much time and profound study was given to perfecting the formula on which Gin Pills are prepared and they furnish quick and positive relief, immediately attacking the congested tissue, destroying the poison, soothing, healing and building up the emaciated and weakened organ so that it can take up its work of purifying the blood with efficiency.

Once the kidneys are made normal, the pains, rheumatism, swollen joints, and general debility disappear, the stone or gravel in the bladder are eliminated, and good health and buoyant spirits return. All druggists and dealers sell Gin Pills at 50c per box, with a guarantee to return your money if you do not receive relief. Free sample on request. Address:—

The Arch Enemy of Middle Life

Dr. William J. Mayo, of Rochester, Minn., one of the two brothers who have made that little country town the surgical Mecca of the continent, calls cancer the "arch enemy of middle life." The statement, dramatic though it sounds, is none too strong. Cancer is killing ten per cent. of the people who die over forty years of age. Statistics show that in the two years of 1917 and 1918 cancer killed 180,000 people in the United States.

The worst of the matter is that nearly all this mortality, and the suffering which it implies, is needless. Cancer is neither contagious nor hereditary. It is a new development in each individual, and nearly always gives ample warning of its approach. In a few cases, such as cancer of the liver, there seems to be no present means of combating the disease. In a somewhat larger number of instances, the onset is so insidious that even a careful survey does not detect it until too late.

But probably four times out of every five the patient is warned in time if he would but heed. Any sore that refuses to heal, any persistent lump, particularly in a woman's breast, any abnormal and persistent bleeding from any part, any long continued indigestion in middle life which is accompanied by vomiting or loss of weight, is a danger signal which should send the sufferer to a competent physician at once.

In most of these instances, a careful search will show the cause to be something else than cancer—but the number of cancer cases thus brought to treatment in time would cut the death rate from this disease in two within a year.

Playing The Game

What is needed is good sportsmanship on the part of all sensible, fair Americans, whether they be classed as capitalists, laborers or in between. Let them all recognize the honesty and decency of the great mass of their opponents, for the great mass of both are honest and decent. Let them quit calling names and sincerely try to get at the facts of the situation. Where there is an issue between them, let them fight fair, show themselves willing to take hard knocks as well as to give them, and then abide by the result, as the miners have done in the junction fight. So shall we finally get somewhere.

Apple production is on the decline in Ontario. Whether the farmers are finding it more profitable to engage in other lines we do not know. Should this be the case the result will be a widening of the Canadian market for Nova Scotia apples. The president of the fruit growers' organization of that province speaking at the sixtieth annual meeting held recently expressed the hope that the Department of Agriculture would do something now before it is too late to save the apple production and suggested that experienced men be placed throughout the province as instructors in growing and packing fruit.

Wash Day and Backache

WASH day is the least welcome day of the week in most homes, though sweeping day is not much better. Both days are most trying on the back.

The strain of washing, ironing and sweeping frequently deranges the kidneys. The system is poisoned and backaches, rheumatism, pains in the limbs result.

Kidney action must be aroused—the liver awakened to action and the bowels regulated by such treatment as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. This favorite prescription of the well-known Receipt Book author will not fail you in the hour of need.

A negro bought a horse, which he afterwards found would not go. He took it to a veterinary surgeon, who injected morphine into the animal. The horse bolted down the street while the astonished negro turned to the veterinary and asked him what the charge was. "Ten cents," said he. "Then," said the negro, "I want you to put fifty cents' worth of that stuff in my laigs." "Why?" asked the doctor. "Cause I've got to ketch dat hoss!"

Formerly parts of machinery and automobiles, etc., from the United States were admitted to Canada free of duty, but now such parts are dutiable.
